AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to binding arbitration for certain public employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of subparagraph (v) of paragraph (c) 2 of subdivision 4 of section 209 of the civil service law, as amended by 3 chapter 216 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

4 the public arbitration panel shall make a just and reasonable determination of the matters in dispute. In arriving at such determination, the 5 panel shall consider, above all other factors, the financial ability of 6 the public employer to pay. The public employer's ability to pay shall 7 be defined as existing fiscal capacity without resort to either new or 8 increased taxation including, but not limited to, the level of taxation
9 in the political subdivision compared to similar political subdivisions 10 in other areas of the state, the tax base, any evidence of economic 11 decline and any other applicable measures of fiscal distress, or 12 extraordinary reductions in other governmental expenditures. The arbitration panel shall also consider the competing financial obligations of 13 the public employer which may be affected by such determination and 14 specifically the impact of any such determination on ongoing negotiations or successor negotiations with employee organizations representing other employees of the public employer. The arbitration panel shall 15 specify its rationale in the determination, including the consideration 16 of such ability of the public employer to pay without resort to new or 17 increased taxation. The panel shall specify the basis for its findings, 18 taking into secondary consideration, in addition to any other relevant 19 factors, the following:
20
21
22

1 § 2. Clause b of subparagraph (v) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 of 2 section 209 of the civil service law, as amended by chapter 216 of the 3 laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

4 b. the interests and welfare of the public [~~and the financial ability~~
5 ~~of the public employer to pay~~];

6 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately, except that sections one 7 and two of this act shall only apply to disputes referred to a public 8 arbitration panel on or after the effective date of this act, and 9 provided that the amendments to the opening paragraph of subparagraph 10 (v) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 of section 209 of the civil 11 service law made by section one of this act and the amendments to clause
12 b of subparagraph (v) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 of section 209
13 of the civil service law made by section two of this act shall not 14 affect the expiration of such subdivision and shall be deemed to expire 15 therewith.
