emergency housing rent control law, as amended by section 25 of part B of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

No application for adjustment of maximum rent based upon a sales price 3 valuation shall be filed by the landlord under this subparagraph prior 4 to six months from the date of such sale of the property. In addition, 6 no adjustment ordered by the commission based upon such sales price 7 valuation shall be effective prior to one year from the date of such 8 Where, however, the assessed valuation of the land exceeds four 9 times the assessed valuation of the buildings thereon, the commission 10 may determine a valuation of the property equal to five times the equal-11 ized assessed valuation of the buildings, for the purposes of this subparagraph. The commission may make a determination that the valu-12 13 ation of the property is an amount different from such equalized 14 assessed valuation where there is a request for a reduction in such 15 assessed valuation currently pending; or where there has been a 16 reduction in the assessed valuation for the year next preceding the 17 effective date of the current assessed valuation in effect at the time 18 of the filing of the application. Net annual return shall be the amount 19 by which the earned income exceeds the operating expenses of the proper-20 ty, excluding mortgage interest and amortization, and excluding allow-21 ances for obsolescence and reserves, but including an allowance for depreciation of two per centum of the value of the buildings exclusive 22 the land, or the amount shown for depreciation of the buildings in 23 the latest required federal income tax return, whichever is 24 25 provided, however, that (1) no allowance for depreciation of the build-26 ings shall be included where the buildings have been fully depreciated 27 for federal income tax purposes or on the books of the owner; or (2) the 28 landlord who owns no more than four rental units within the state has 29 not been fully compensated by increases in rental income sufficient 30 offset unavoidable increases in property taxes, fuel, utilities, insur-31 ance and repairs and maintenance, excluding mortgage interest and amor-32 tization, and excluding allowances for depreciation, obsolescence and 33 reserves, which have occurred since the federal date determining the 34 maximum rent or the date the property was acquired by the present owner, 35 whichever is later; or (3) the landlord operates a hotel or rooming 36 house or owns a cooperative apartment and has not been fully compensated by increases in rental income from the controlled housing accommodations 38 sufficient to offset unavoidable increases in property taxes and other costs as are allocable to such controlled housing accommodations, 39 including costs of operation of such hotel or rooming house, but exclud-40 41 ing mortgage interest and amortization, and excluding allowances for 42 depreciation, obsolescence and reserves, which have occurred since the 43 federal date determining the maximum rent or the date the landlord 44 commenced the operation of the property, whichever is later; or (4) the 45 landlord and tenant voluntarily enter into a valid written lease in good 46 faith with respect to any housing accommodation, which lease provides 47 for an increase in the maximum rent not in excess of fifteen per centum and for a term of not less than two years, except that where such lease 48 provides for an increase in excess of fifteen per centum, the increase 49 50 shall be automatically reduced to fifteen per centum; or (5) the land-51 lord and tenant by mutual voluntary written agreement agree to a 52 increase or decrease in dwelling space or a change in the substantial services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided in the housing 54 accommodations; provided that an owner shall be entitled to a rent 55 increase where there has been a substantial modification or increase of dwelling space or an increase in the services, or installation of new equipment or improvements or new furniture or furnishings provided in or to a tenant's housing accommodation. The permanent increase in the maxi-3 mum rent for the affected housing accommodation shall be one-fortieth, in the case of a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or one-sixtieth, in the case of a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations where such permanent increase takes 7 effect on or after September twenty-fourth, two thousand eleven, of the total cost incurred by the landlord in providing such modification or 9 increase in dwelling space, services, furniture, furnishings or equip-10 ment, including the cost of installation, but excluding finance charges 11 provided further that an owner who is entitled to a rent increase pursuant to this clause shall not be entitled to a further rent increase 12 13 based upon the installation of similar equipment, or new furniture or 14 furnishings within the useful life of such new equipment, or new furni-15 ture or furnishings. The owner shall give written notice to the commis-16 sion of any such adjustment pursuant to this clause; or (6) there has 17 been, since March first, nineteen hundred fifty, an increase in the 18 rental value of the housing accommodations as a result of a substantial rehabilitation of the building or housing accommodation therein which 19 20 materially adds to the value of the property or appreciably prolongs its 21 life, excluding ordinary repairs, maintenance and replacements; or (7) there has been since March first, nineteen hundred fifty, a major capi-22 improvement required for the operation, preservation or maintenance 23 of the structure; or (8) there has been since March first, nineteen 24 25 hundred fifty, in structures containing more than four housing accommo-26 dations, other improvements made with the express consent of the tenants 27 in occupancy of at least seventy-five per centum of the housing accom-28 modations, provided, however, that no adjustment granted hereunder shall 29 exceed fifteen per centum unless the tenants have agreed to a higher 30 percentage of increase, as herein provided; or (9) there has been, 31 since March first, nineteen hundred fifty, a subletting without written 32 consent from the landlord or an increase in the number of adult occupants who are not members of the immediate family of the tenant, and the 33 34 landlord has not been compensated therefor by adjustment of the maximum 35 rent by lease or order of the commission or pursuant to the federal act; 36 or (10) the presence of unique or peculiar circumstances materially 37 affecting the maximum rent has resulted in a maximum rent which is 38 substantially lower than the rents generally prevailing in the same area 39 for substantially similar housing accommodations; or (11) notwithstanding any provision of law or rule or regulation to the contrary, any 40 41 adjustment in the legal regulated rent based upon a major capital 42 improvement shall be effective upon approval of the application therefor. No increase may be collected for the period of time prior to the 43 44 date of approval of the application. 45

- § 4. Paragraph 1 of subdivision g of section 26-405 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subparagraph (p) to read as follows:
- (p) Notwithstanding any provision of law or rule or regulation to the contrary, any adjustment in the legal regulated rent based upon a major capital improvement shall be effective upon approval of the application therefor. No increase may be collected for the period of time prior to the date of approval of the application.
 - § 5. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that:
