AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to capping the amount of collectible rent increases due to major capital improvements at six percent of the legal regulated rent

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph 3 of subdivision d of section 6 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended by section 30 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

(3) there has been since January first, nineteen hundred seventy-four a major capital improvement required for the operation, preservation or maintenance of the structure. An adjustment under this paragraph shall be in an amount sufficient to amortize the cost of the improvements pursuant to this paragraph over an eight-year period for a building with thirty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or a nine-year period for a building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations, for any determination issued by the division of housing and community renewal after the effective date of the rent act of 2015; provided that the collection of any increase in the legal regulated rent for any housing accommodation pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed six percent in any year from the effective date of the order granting the increase over the legal regulated rent registered pursuant to section twelve-a of this act, with collectibility of any dollar excess above said sum to be spread forward in similar increments and added to the legal regulated rent as established or set in future years. In no event shall more than
