IN ASSEMBLY

January 17, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. MONTESANO, McKEVITT, FINCH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to the sale of alcoholic beverages at customer-operated point-of-sale stations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-eee to read as follows:

§ 399-eee. Prohibited sale of alcoholic beverages at customer-operated point-of-sale stations. 1. Sale of alcoholic beverages by retail establishments licensed pursuant to the alcoholic beverage control law is prohibited at customer-operated point-of-sale stations.

2. For purposes of this section, "customer-operated point-of-sale station" means a self-scanning checkout where customers pay for and bag their own merchandise without interacting with a human cashier.

3. Violation of this section shall be subject to a fine of no less than five hundred dollars and no more than one thousand dollars.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
