IN ASSEMBLY

January 17, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. BRONSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to public-private partnerships to support at-risk children; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 2 153-l to read as follows:

3 § 153-l. Public-private partnerships to support at-risk children;
4 funding. 1. (a) Expenditures made by the county of Monroe or the Roches-
5 ter city school district for preventive services described in paragraph 6 (b) of this subdivision shall be subject to sixty-five percent state
7 reimbursement; provided, however, that one hundred percent of Monroe 8 county's local portion of claims for such services are comprised of 9 privately donated funds.

10 (b) Eligible programs include those providing: (i) home visitation, 11 treatment intervention and parenting education to families eligible for 12 service under the temporary assistance for needy families program; (ii)
13 educational intervention and improvement services for students at risk 14 of academic failure and school drop out; (iii) intervention and individ-15 ualized planning services providing support for families that have 16 sought family court intervention for a person in need of supervision
17 petition or child with serious emotional challenges; (iv) services
18 intended to increase graduation rates and prepare students for college
19 or the workplace through one-on-one mentoring, academic support, life
20 and social skills, and job readiness; and (v) at-risk first-time parents 21 with maternal and child health nurses to improve pregnancy outcomes, 22 child health and development, and family economic self-sufficiency.

23 2. The county of Monroe or the Rochester city school district shall 24 provide an annual report on or before the first day of December to the
