Introduced by M. of A. RA, RAIA, CROUCH, McDONOUGH, GIGLIO, CURRAN --Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. LUPINACCI, OAKS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law and the tax law, in relation to vacant redeveloped commercial property exemptions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

T	Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new
2	section 421-p to read as follows:
3	§ 421-p. Vacant redeveloped commercial property exemptions. 1. Real
4	property that is constructed, altered, or improved upon vacant land
5	subsequent to the first day of January, two thousand eighteen for the б	purpose of commercial, business or industrial activity shall be exempt
7	from taxation and special ad valorem levies, to the extent hereinafter
8	provided. For the purposes of these exemptions, the following terms
9	shall have the following meanings: (a) "vacant land" means land, includ-
10	ing land under water, which contains no enclosed, permanent improvement
11	that has been neglected or abandoned for a period of eighteen months or
12	more; and (b) "predominantly vacant land" means land, including land
13	under water, that has been neglected or abandoned for a period of eigh-
14	teen months or more on which not more than fifteen percent of the lot
15	area contains enclosed, permanent improvements; in addition, such land
16	may include existing foundations.
17	2. (a) (i) For real property that is newly constructed, improved and
18	on vacant land and the value of the construction exceeds two million
19	dollars, such real property shall be exempt for a period of five years
20	to the extent of fifty per centum of the increase in assessed value
21	thereof attributable to such construction and for an additional period
22	of five years provided, however, that the extent of such exemption shall
23	be decreased by twenty-five per centum. Such exemption shall be
24	computed with respect to the "exemption base." The exemption base shall

1	the number of years the property would have been previously exempt from
2	real property taxes.
3	3. Such exemption shall be granted only upon application by the owner
4	of such real property on a form prescribed by the commissioner. Such
5	application shall be filed with the assessor of the city, town, village,
6	school district, or county having the power to assess property for taxa-
7	tion on or before the appropriate taxable status date of such city,
8	town, village, school district or county and within one year from the
9	date of completion of such construction, alteration, or improvement.
10	4. If the assessor is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to an
11	exemption pursuant to this section, he or she shall approve the applica-
12^{11}	tion and such real property shall thereafter be exempt from taxation and
13	special ad valorem levies as herein provided commencing with the assess-
14^{13}	ment roll prepared after the taxable status date referred to in subdivi-
15^{14}	sion three of this section. The assessed value of any exemption granted
16	pursuant to this section shall be entered by the assessor on the assess-
17	ment roll with the taxable property, with the amount of the exemption
18	shown in a separate column.
19	5. The provisions of this section shall apply to real property used
20	primarily for the buying, selling, storing or developing goods or
21	services, the manufacture or assembly of goods or the processing of raw
22	materials for businesses with between one and one hundred employees with
23	a taxable income of no more than three hundred ninety thousand dollars.
24	This section shall not apply to property used primarily for the furnish-
25	ing of dwelling space or accommodations to either residents or tran-
26	sients other than hotels or motels.
27	6. In the event that real property granted an exemption pursuant to
28	this section ceases to be used primarily for eligible purposes, the
29	exemption granted pursuant to this section shall cease.
30	7. A county, city, town or village may, by local law, and a school
31	district, except a city school district to which article fifty-two of
32	the education law applies, may, by resolution, reduce the per centum of
33	exemption otherwise allowed pursuant to this section; provided, however,
34	that a project in course of construction and exemptions existing prior
35	in time to passage of any such local law or resolution shall not be
36	subject to any such reduction so effected. Any county, city, town,
37	village or school district that has reduced the per centum of exemption
38	pursuant to this subdivision may thereafter, by local law or resolution
39	as the case may be, increase the per centum of exemption up to any per
40	centum not exceeding the maximum allowed by subdivision two of this
41	section, provided, however, that any such local law or resolution shall
42	apply only to construction, alterations, or improvements commenced
43	subsequent to the effective date of such local law or resolution. A copy
44	of all such local laws or resolutions shall be filed with the commis-
45	sioner and the assessor of each assessing unit which comprises the coun-
46	ty, city, town or school district or, in the case of a village, the
47	village assessor, or the applicable town or county assessor of a village
48	which has adopted a local law provided in subdivision three of section
49	fourteen hundred two of this chapter.
50	8. A county, city, town or village may, by local law, and a school
51	district, except a city school district to which article fifty-two of
52	the education law applies may, by resolution, establish a date for the
53	commencement of effectiveness of exemptions offered pursuant to this
54	section.
55	§ 2. Subsection (d) of section 615 of the tax law is amended by adding

56 a new paragraph 5 to read as follows:

(5) small business relocating to vacant or predominantly vacant rede-1 veloped commercial property. A twenty percent deduction is allowed for 2 small businesses with between one and one hundred employees and a taxa-3 4 ble income of no more than three hundred ninety thousand dollars. The 5 small business is eliqible for the deduction if it has relocated to a б vacant land or predominantly vacant land, as defined in subdivision one 7 of section four hundred twenty-one-p of the real property tax law, with-8 in the previous taxable year. However, the small business may only 9 receive the deduction upon the approval of the real property taxation exemption described in subdivision four of section four hundred twenty-10 11 one-p of the real property tax law. The deduction may be allowed for the same duration of time as the real property tax exemption provided. 12 13 § 3. Section 209 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 14 13 to read as follows: 15 13. For any taxable year beginning after two thousand seventeen, an 16 eligible business with between one and one hundred employees and a taxa-17 ble income of no more than three hundred ninety thousand dollars may be allowed to deduct twenty percent of its taxable income. A business is 18 eligible if it has relocated on vacant land or predominantly vacant 19 20 land, as defined in subdivision one of section four hundred twenty-one-p 21 of the real property tax law, within the last year, and has received approval for the real property taxation exemption described in subdivi-22 sion four of section four hundred twenty-one-p of the real property tax 23 24 law. The deduction may be allowed for the same duration of time as the 25 real property tax exemption provided. 26 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
