18 provisions of the correction law, is equal to the unserved portion of 19 his or her maximum or aggregate maximum term; provided, however, that in 20 the event that the state board of parole finds, in writing and by clear 21 and convincing evidence, that the release of a person serving any 22 sentence of imprisonment for the conviction of a violent felony offense, 23 as defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of this article, would 24 pose an imminent threat to society, such person shall not be condi-

37 (a) Every person confined in an institution of the department or a

39 determinate sentence of imprisonment, except a person serving a sentence

41 against the term or maximum term of his or her sentence imposed by the 42 court. Such allowances may be granted for good behavior and efficient 43 and willing performance of duties assigned or progress and achievement 44 in an assigned treatment program, and may be withheld, forfeited or 45 canceled in whole or in part for bad behavior, violation of institu-

5 the maximum term or period of his sentence not to exceed in the aggregate one-third of the term or period imposed by the court. Such allowances may be granted for good behavior and efficient and willing performance of duties assigned or progress and achievement in an assigned treatment program, and may be withheld, forfeited or canceled in whole or in part for bad behavior, violation of institutional rules or failure to perform properly in the duties or program assigned.

12 Provided, however, that any time allowance earned pursuant to this section by a person serving a sentence for conviction of a violent felony offense defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law shall be withheld by the state board of parole upon a finding, in writing and by clear and convincing evidence, that such person would pose an imminent threat to society if released from incarceration.
