IN ASSEMBLY

January 20, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. BRINDISI, MORELLE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to the residence of a level 3 sex offender

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 168-c of the correction law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2-a to read as follows:

2-a. No level 3 sex offender released or discharged from a correctional facility, hospital or local correctional facility or placed on probation shall reside within one thousand feet of a building used exclusively as a school or within one thousand feet of another registered sex offender, the measurements to be taken in straight lines from the center of the nearest entrance of the residence to the center of the nearest entrance of such school.

§ 2. Section 168-f of the correction law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4-a to read as follows:

4-a. A level 3 sex offender, after his or her discharge, parole or release from any correctional facility, hospital or local facility or who was placed on probation and who has established a residence shall not change said residence so as to reside within one thousand feet of a building used exclusively as a school or within one thousand feet of another registered sex offender, the measurements to be taken in straight lines from the center of the nearest entrance of the residence to the center of the nearest entrance of such school.

§ 3. Section 168-k of the correction law is amended by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

5. A level 3 sex offender who has established residence in this state pursuant to this section shall not reside within one thousand feet of a building used exclusively as a school or within one thousand feet of another registered sex offender, the measurements to be taken in
