AN ACT in relation to establishing a bi-county commission in the counties of Nassau and Suffolk to study the feasibility of establishing the state of Long Island

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings: Nassau and Suffolk counties comprise 2 an area of 2,826 square miles, larger than the states of Rhode Island
3 and Delaware. The combined population of the two counties is 2.832
4 million which is greater than the population of 17 states. For the years
5 2002-2004, Long Island paid 8.124 billion dollars in state taxes yet
6 only 5.2 billion dollars was returned in direct local aid, tuition 7 assistance, highway aid, pension payments, lottery money, metropolitan 8 transportation authority subsidies and Medicaid payments. For many years 9 the question of forming the state of Long Island has been discussed in 10 public and academic forums. The issue should be investigated, a report
11 prepared and referendum held in Nassau and Suffolk counties so the citizens 12 may be heard.

13 § 2. There is hereby established a Nassau and Suffolk bi-county
14 commission to study the feasibility of forming the state of Long Island 15 to consist of the counties of Nassau and Suffolk. Such commission shall 16 be comprised of 24 members, 12 of whom shall reside in the county of 17 Nassau and 12 of whom shall reside in the county of Suffolk. The county 18 executive of each county shall serve on the commission as co-chairs. Of 19 the remaining 22 members, 5 members from each county shall be appointed

1 by the county executive of the county in which such county executive
2 serves; 3 members from each county shall be appointed by the majority 3 leader of the county legislature from the county in which such majority 4 leader serves, and 3 members from each county shall be appointed by the 5 minority leader of the county legislature from the county in which such 6 minority leader serves. Members of the commission shall receive no 7 compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and 8 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Members 9 of the commission shall serve at the pleasure of their appointing 10 authority. Vacancies on the commission shall be filled in the same 11 manner as the original appointment.

12 § 3. The study authorized by section two of this act shall be 13 completed and submitted to the Nassau county legislature and the Suffolk
14 county legislature on or before July 1, 2019.

15 § 4. At the general election to be held November 5, 2019, the county 16 of Nassau and the county of Suffolk shall be submitted to the voters of 17 such counties, a referendum concerning whether or not the state of Long 18 Island shall be formed. Such referendum shall be deemed approved if it 19 is approved by a majority of the voters voting on such referendum in 20 each county, provided however that the approval of such referendum shall 21 not be binding upon the county of Nassau or the county of Suffolk.

22 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
