Introduced by M. of A. HEVESI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to increasing from $300 a month to $600 a month the rent subsidy payable to a foster child living independently

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 5 of section 409-a of the 2 social services law, as amended by chapter 339 of the laws of 1993, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, where a 5 social services official determines that a lack of adequate housing is 6 the primary factor preventing the discharge of a child or children from 7 foster care including, but not limited to, children with the goal of 8 discharge to independent living, preventive services shall include, in 9 addition to any other payments or benefits received by the family,
10 special cash grants in the form of rent subsidies, including rent
11 arrears, or any other assistance, sufficient to obtain adequate housing.
12 Such rent subsidies or assistance shall not exceed the sum of [~~three~~] 13 six hundred dollars per month, shall not be provided for a period of 14 more than three years, may be provided up to age twenty-four for youth 15 discharged from foster care, and shall be considered a special grant.
16 Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the ability of 17 those using the rent subsidy to live with roommates. The provisions of 18 this paragraph shall not be construed to limit such official's authority 19 to provide other preventive services.

20 § 2. Subdivision 7 of section 409-a of the social services law, as 21 added by section 83 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

22 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if a social 23 services official determines that a lack of adequate housing is a factor 24 that may cause the entry of a child or children into foster care and the
