AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to extending the enhanced STAR exemption to the disabled surviving spouse of a previously qualifying individual

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 4 of 2 section 425 of the real property tax law, as added by section 4 of part 3 A of chapter 405 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as follows:

4 (iii) In the case of property owned by husband and wife, one of whom 5 is sixty-five years of age or over, the exemption, once granted, shall 6 not be rescinded solely because of the death of the older spouse so long 7 as the surviving spouse is at least sixty-two years of age or is phys-
8 ically disabled as of the date specified in this paragraph. To qualify 9 as physically disabled for the purposes of this subparagraph, an indi-
10 vidual shall submit to the assessor a certified statement from a physi-
11 cian licensed to practice in the state on a form prescribed and made 12 available by the commissioner which states that the individual has a 13 permanent physical impairment which substantially limits one or more of 14 such individual's major life activities, except that an individual who 15 has obtained a certificate from the state commission for the visually 16 handicapped stating that such individual is legally blind may submit 17 such certificate in lieu of a physician's certified statement. The other 18 requirements of this subdivision must still be met for the enhanced 19 exemption to be granted to a surviving spouse under this subparagraph.

20 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to the 21 administration of the enhanced STAR exemption beginning with the 22 2017-2018 school year.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
