18 purpose where such public use, benefit, or purpose is primarily for 19 economic development and where the condemnee's real property is a home 20 or dwelling.

51 section 204-a to read as follows:

52 § 204-a. Economic development condemnation findings and homeowner 53 protection. (A) If the condemnor determines pursuant to paragraph four 54 of subdivision (B) of section two hundred four of this article that the 55 primary public purpose or benefit is for economic development, the 4 actual or expected benefits of the project, including the expected

9 locality in which the real property to be acquired is located shall hold 10 at least one public hearing to compile and analyze public input. The 11 public hearing shall be held in accordance with the provisions of this

18 also be approved by the chief executive officer of such locality if the 19 office of such chief executive officer is elective.

20 (B) The condemnor shall also create a homeowner impact assessment

26 The homeowner impact assessment statement shall be completed simultane-

28 (A) of this section. The homeowner impact assessment statement shall be 29 made widely available.

38 law, as amended by chapter 356 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read 39 as follows:

45 filing of a petition in such court within [~~thirty~~ ninety] days after the 46 condemnor's completion of its publication of its determination and find-47 ings pursuant to section two hundred four [~~herein~~ of this article]. Such 48 petition shall be accompanied by proof of service of a demand on the 49 condemnor to file with said court a copy of a written transcript of the 51 findings. Upon receipt of such petition and demand, the condemnor shall 52 forthwith deliver to the court a copy of the record and a copy of its 53 determination and findings. The proceeding shall be heard on the record

54 without requirement of reproduction. If such proposed public improvement 55 is located in more than one judicial department, such proceeding may be 56 brought in any one, but only one, of such departments, and all such

1 proceedings with relation to any single public project shall be consol-
2 idated with that first filed. If the condemnor substantially alters the 3 scope of the project or the determination and findings, then the condem-
4 nee shall have an additional ninety days from the condemnor's publica-
