Introduced by M. of A. ABINANTI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to requiring signage alerting motorists of red light cameras; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 1111-f to read as follows:

§ 1111-f. Red light camera signage required. Any city or county operating a demonstration program that imposes monetary liability on the owner of a vehicle for the failure of an operator thereof to comply with traffic-control indications in such city or county pursuant to this article shall install and maintain signage in each direction of every intersection where a traffic-control signal photo violation-monitoring device is in operation. Such signage shall advise that a traffic-control signal photo violation-monitoring device is operating at such intersection, and shall be in accordance with the state manual and specifications for a uniform system of traffic control devices as provided in section sixteen hundred eighty of this chapter. For the purposes of this section, the term "traffic-control signal photo violation-monitoring device" shall mean a vehicle sensor installed to work in conjunction with a traffic-control signal which automatically produces two or more photographs, two or more microphotographs, a videotape or other recorded images of each vehicle at the time it is used or operated in violation of subdivision (d) of section eleven hundred eleven of this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law and shall expire December 1, 2019 when upon such date the provisions of this act shall be deemed repealed. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date is authorized to be made on or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
