1	25.33. Enforcement.
2	25.35. Criminal penalties.
3	§ 25.01. Legislative findings. The legislature finds and declares that
4	transactions involving tickets for admission to places of entertainment
5	are a matter of public interest and subject to the supervision of New
6	York and the appropriate political subdivisions of the state for the
7	purpose of safeguarding the public against fraud, extortion, and similar
8	abuses.
9	The legislature further finds that many ticket resellers advertise and
10	sell tickets to places of entertainment within the boundaries of New
11	York state often from locations outside the state, without adhering to 12	the provisions of this article. The legislature objects to any claim
13	that businesses domiciled outside New York state are exempted from this
14	statute when selling tickets to events occurring in New York state,
15	regardless of the territories of origin of both the buyer and seller. It
16	is the legislature's intent that all governmental bodies charged with enforcement of this article, including the attorney general of New York
17
18	state have the authority to regulate the activities of all persons
19	reselling tickets to venues located within this state to the full extent of the state's powers under the federal and state constitutions and that 20
21 22	this article be construed in light of this purpose. § 25.03. Definitions. As used in this article the term:

23	employees and agents or others at or less than the established price.
24	Similarly, the term "resale" shall not apply to any not-for-profit

32 § 25.09. Additional printing on tickets. Every operator of a place of 33 entertainment having a permanent seating capacity in excess of five thousand persons shall, if a price be charged for admission thereto, 34 print or endorse in a clear and legible manner on each ticket, "This 35 36 ticket may not be resold within one thousand five hundred feet from the 37 physical structure of this place of entertainment under penalty of law". 38 § 25.11. Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section, an opera-

55 tor may designate an area within the property line of such place of 56 entertainment for the lawful resale of tickets only to events at such

1	place of entertainment by any person, firm, corporation or not-for-pro-

31	state. Such license or certificate shall be granted upon a written
32	application setting forth such information as the secretary of state may
33	require in order to enable him or her to carry into effect the
34	provisions of this article and shall be accompanied by proof satisfac-

42	any ticket that such seller does not own at the time of the offer or
43	sale. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to venues
44	containing less than six thousand seats.
45	3. The operator or the promoter shall determine whether a seat for
45 46	which a ticket is for sale has an obstructed view, and shall disclose
47	such obstruction. Every sale or resale of such ticket shall include a
48	disclosure of such obstructed view.
49	4. If any licensee under this section demonstrates that their business
50	provides a service to facilitate ticket transactions without charging
51	any fees, surcharges or service charges above the established price, on the people of New York in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, with two or more sufficient sureties or a duly authorized surety company, which bond shall be approved by the secretary of state. Each such bond shall be conditioned that the obligor will not be guilty of any fraud or extortion, will not violate directly or indirectly any of the provisions of this article or any of the provisions of the license or certificate provided for in this article, will comply with the provisions of this article and will pay all damages occasioned to any person by reason of any misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud or deceit or any unlawful act or omission of such obligor, his or her agents or employees, while acting within the scope of their employment, made, committed or omitted in connection with the provisions of this article the business conducted under such license or caused by any other in violation of this article in carrying on the business for which such license is granted. One or more recoveries or payments upon such bond shall not vitiate the same but such bond shall remain in full force and effect, provided, however, that the aggregate amount of all such recoveries or payments shall not exceed the penal sum thereof. Before the secretary shall draw upon such bond, the secretary shall issue a determination in writing which shall include the basis of such action. The secretary shall notify in writing the licensee of any such determination and shall afford the licensee an opportunity to respond within twenty 22 days of the receipt of such determination. In no event may the bond be 23 24 drawn upon in less than twenty-five days after the service of a determi-25 nation to the licensee. Such written notice may be served by delivery 26 thereof personally to the licensee, or by certified mail to the last 27 known business address of such licensee. Only upon such determination of 28 the secretary shall moneys be withdrawn from the bond. Upon the commencement of any action or actions against the surety upon any such 29 30 bond for a sum or sums aggregating or exceeding the amount of such bond 31 the secretary of state shall require a new and additional bond in like 32 amount as the original one, which shall be filed with the department of 33 state within thirty days after the demand therefor. Failure to file such bond within such period shall constitute cause for the revocation 34 35 of the license pursuant to section 25.31 of this article theretofore 36 issued to the licensee upon whom such demand shall have been made. Any 37 suit or action against the surety on any bond required by the provisions 38 of this section shall be commenced within one year after the cause of 39 action shall have accrued.

40 § 25.17. Supervision and regulation. The secretary of state shall have power, upon complaint of any person or on his or her own initiative, to 41 42 investigate the business, business practices and business methods of any 43 such licensee which relates to this state's or any other state's ticket 44 resale law, or in regards to ticket resale practices generally. Each 45 such licensee shall be obliged, on the reasonable request of the secre-46 tary of state, to supply such information as may be required concerning 47 his or her business, business practices or business methods provided that the information requested is related to the complaint which forms 48 49 the basis of such investigation. Each operator of any place of entertainment shall also be obliged, on request of the secretary of state, to 50 51 supply such information as may be required concerning the business, business practices or business methods of any licensee provided that the 52 53 information requested is related to the complaint which forms the basis 54 of such investigation. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership or corpo-15 16 ration holding such license or certificate to post such license or 17 certificate or to permit such certificate to be posted upon premises other than those described therein or to which it has been transferred 18 pursuant to the provisions of this article or unlawfully to alter, 19 20 deface or destroy any such license or certificate. 21 § 25.21. Change of office location. The licensee shall also on 43 request furnish each purchaser of a ticket with a receipt showing the same information. Further, if the licensee conducts business through the 44 45 use of the internet, the same price list, or hyperlink to the same, 46 shall be conspicuously displayed on the internet page on which tickets 47 are accessed. In addition the licensee shall publish in a conspicuous 48 place, or hyperlink to on the internet a statement clearly detailing the 49 required guarantees required by section 25.07 of this article. 2. (a) An online resale marketplace shall post a clear and conspicuous 50 51 notice on the website of such online resale marketplace that the website

52 is for the secondary sale of tickets and shall require that the user 53 confirm having read such notice before starting any transaction. No 54 operator or its agent shall transfer a prospective ticket purchaser 55 through any means to a secondary seller without providing a clear and 56 conspicuous disclosure appropriate for the selling platform that informs

1	the prospective purchaser that the ticket offered is in the secondary
2	market.
3	(b) No operator or operator's agent or any person who is employed by
4	such operator or operator's agent shall resell or engage in the business
5	of reselling any tickets of admission or any other evidence of the right
6	of entry to a theatre, place of amusement or entertainment, or other
7	places where public exhibitions, games, contests or performances are
8	held. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to donations made
9	by the operator or operator's agent, when there is no compensation

No 32 licensee, other person or entity, whether or not domiciled, licensed or 33 registered within the state, shall pay to any officer or employee of any 34 place of entertainment, any commission, gratuity or bonus in connection 35 with the sale, delivery or payment of tickets or in connection with the business being done by such licensee, other person or entity, whether or 36 37 not domiciled, licensed or registered within the state, in tickets of 38 admission to such place. 39 § 25.29. 1 § 25.30. Operator prohibitions. 1. A ticket is a license, issued by 2 the operator of a place of entertainment, for admission to the place of 3 entertainment at the date and time specified on the ticket, subject to 4 the terms and conditions as specified by the operator. Notwithstanding 5 any other provision of law to the contrary, it shall be prohibited for б any operator of a place of entertainment, or operator's agent, to: (a) restrict by any means the resale of any tickets included in a 7 8 subscription or season ticket package as a condition of purchase, as a 9 condition to retain such tickets for the duration of the subscription or 10 season ticket package agreement, or as a condition to retain any 11 contractually agreed upon rights to purchase future subscription or season ticket packages that are otherwise conferred in the subscription 12 13 or season ticket agreement; 14 (b) deny access to a ticket holder who possesses a resold subscription 15 or season ticket to a performance based solely on the grounds that such 16 ticket has been resold; or 17 (c) employ a form of paperless ticketing that is not readily transferable to another customer through a transaction that is independent of 18 19 the operator or operator's agent, unless a purchaser is given the option 20 at the time of first public sale to purchase the same tickets at the 21 same established price in some other form, including, but not limited to, paper tickets, that is readily transferable through a transaction 22 that is independent of the operator or operator's agent, provided howev-23 er, that nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit the operator or opera-24 25 tor's agent from imposing a nominal surcharge on paperless tickets. 26 2. Additionally, nothing in this article shall be construed to prohib-27 it an operator of a place of entertainment from maintaining and enforcing any policies regarding conduct or behavior at or in connection with 28 29 their venue. Further, nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit an operator of a place of entertainment of six thousand seats 30 31 or less, or such operator's agent, from restricting the resale of tick-32 ets that are offered at a promotional or discounted price, for free, or for persons with disabilities. No operator or operator's agent or any person who is employed by 42 such operator or operator's agent shall resell or engage in the business 43 of reselling any tickets of admission or any other evidence of the right of entry to a theatre, place of amusement or entertainment, or other 44 45 places where public exhibitions, games, contests or performances are 46 held. This provision shall not apply to donations made by the operator 47 or operator's agent, when there is no compensation provided, to individuals or charitable organizations where the tickets are for personal use 48 49 or charitable purposes. 50 4. The operator or the promoter shall determine whether a seat for 51 which a ticket is for sale has an obstructed view, and shall disclose 52 such obstruction. If the operator or promoter discloses that a seat for 53 which a ticket is for sale has an obstructed view, it shall be the 54 responsibility of the secondary ticket reseller to disclose such obstruction upon the resale of such ticket.
