

STATE OF NEW YORK

2907

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 23, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. PRETLOW -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to the payment of delinquent taxes; and to repeal subdivision 2 of section 962 of the real property tax law relating to the qualifications of certain corporations or banking institutions to lend money pursuant to the provisions of title 4 of article 9 of the real property tax law and section 968 of the real property tax law relating to tax sale provisions under such title

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and 2 declares that many taxing jurisdictions are owed millions of dollars 3 annually in unpaid property taxes and that these taxing jurisdictions 4 should be given the opportunity to utilize as many collection methods as 5 possible in an effort to collect as much in unpaid taxes as possible.
6 Such uncollected taxes adversely impact the taxing jurisdictions' ability 7 to meet their operating expenditures and provide for the delivery of 8 necessary and essential local governmental services, amplifying the risk 9 of future real property tax increases and negatively impacting those 10 taxpayers who timely remit payment. It is hereby further declared that 11 limited means exist for taxing jurisdictions to expedite the collection 12 of such delinquent taxes and that it is in the public interest to 13 increase the number of methods available to taxing jurisdictions to 14 expedite such collections and to provide their constituents as many 15 payment methods as possible. It is further declared that many delinquen-16 cies often remain unpaid, thereby creating a lien against the affected 17 real property, and that the taxpayers should have alternative methods of 18 making payments to taxing jurisdictions for the payment of their taxes 19 which will in turn enable taxing jurisdictions to expedite the receipt 20 of anticipated revenues and provide a funding source, which will enable

1 taxing jurisdictions more effectively to carry out their public 2 purposes, especially at this time when many taxing jurisdictions have 3 significant budgetary problems.

4 § 2. The title heading of title 4 of article 9 of the real property 5 tax law is amended to read as follows:

6 ACCEPTANCE OF TAXES FROM CERTAIN [~~LOAN CORPORATIONS~~]

7 ENTITIES

8 § 3. Section 960 of the real property tax law is amended to read as 9 follows:

10 § 960. Payment of taxes by loan corporations. 1. Any [~~municipal~~ 11 ~~corporation may~~] taxing jurisdiction or its assignee shall, as provided 12 in this title, accept payment of taxes, including special ad valorem 13 levies and special assessments, on real property from any [~~corporation~~ 14 ~~organized under the laws of the state of New York for the purpose of~~ 15 ~~extending loans to taxpayers for the payment of taxes~~] entity, upon 16 receipt of an affidavit from a property owner authorizing the entity 17 making the loan to pay the taxes or delinquent taxes and penalties, 18 interest, court costs or other fees on such property owner's behalf and 19 containing a legal description of the property and the street address 20 thereof, if applicable. For the purposes of this title, "entity" shall 21 mean any corporation, limited liability company or partnership regis-22 tered to do business in this state.

23 2. Upon such a payment, a conditional tax receipt shall be issued and 24 the amount thereof conditionally credited by the [~~municipal corporation~~] 25 taxing jurisdiction against the taxes due on the property for which 26 payment is made, but such payment shall not extinguish the tax lien 27 existing against such property until the conditional tax receipt is 28 surrendered for cancellation to the [~~municipal corporation~~] taxing 29 jurisdiction by the entity lending the money to the taxpayer. In addi-30 tion, the authorized representative of the taxing jurisdiction shall 31 certify by affidavit that payment of the taxes and penalties, interest, 32 court costs or other fees on the described property has been made by the 33 lending entity and not the property owner responsible for the payment of 34 such taxes and that the taxing jurisdiction's tax lien is transferred to 35 the lending entity that paid the taxes and penalties, interest, court 36 costs or other fees. The taxing jurisdiction shall attach to the docu-37 ment the collector's seal of office, if there is such a seal, and deliv-38 er the document to the lending entity that paid the taxes and penalties, 39 interest, court costs or other fees within thirty days of receipt of 40 payment. The taxing jurisdiction shall keep a record of all tax liens 41 transferred as provided by this section. A property owner authorizing a 42 lending entity to pay the taxes imposed by a taxing jurisdiction on such 43 property owner's real property must file with the taxing jurisdiction an 44 affidavit containing such authorization, the name of the entity author-45 ized to pay the taxes and penalties, interest, court costs or other 46 fees, a legal description of the property and the street address there-47 of, if applicable.

48 3. Payments made pursuant to this section by the lending entity may be 49 used by the [~~municipal corporation~~] taxing jurisdiction in the same 50 manner as if payment were made directly by the taxpayer.

51 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 962 of the real property tax law is 52 amended to read as follows:

53 1. [~~Municipal corporations may~~] Taxing jurisdictions or their assign-54 ees shall accept [~~such~~] payments from [~~a corporation~~] an entity extend-

1 ing loans for [~~such~~] the purpose[~~, if the loan corporation has a paid-up~~ 2 ~~capital of at least one million dollars and charges not more than four~~ 3 ~~per centum interest on unpaid balances on moneys loaned, nor more than~~ 4 ~~two per centum of the amount of the loan as a service charge in~~ 5 ~~connection therewith, provided, however, that in the event of a default~~ 6 ~~in the payment of such a loan, the loan corporation may charge six per~~ 7 ~~centum interest per annum on all sums in default. The loan corporation~~ 8 ~~shall, within three days after receiving the same, deposit the condi-~~ 9 ~~tional tax receipt with a banking institution, trust company, state~~ 10 ~~bank, national bank, or federal reserve bank of the district in which~~ 11 ~~the municipal corporation is located]~~ of paying taxes and delinquent 12 taxes and penalties, interest, court costs or other fees. An entity 13 making a loan shall have the right to charge reasonable and customary 14 loan fees and interest, and such interest shall not exceed the rate of 15 one and one-quarter percent per month or fraction thereof. The loan 16 document shall provide for the notification of payment due dates and an 17 acknowledgment by the borrower of the interest rate to be paid, and such 18 acknowledgment shall be sworn to. The interest rate, irrespective of 19 any state law, shall not exceed the rate of one and one-quarter percent 20 per month or fraction thereof. In calculating the effective rate of 21 interest, only those fees in excess of ten percent of the face amount of 22 the loan shall be included for such calculation.

23 § 5. Subdivision 2 of section 962 of the real property tax law is 24 REPEALED and two new subdivisions 2 and 3 are added to read as follows:

25 2. To be enforceable, a tax lien transferred as provided by section 26 nine hundred sixty of this title must be recorded in the office of the 27 clerk or register of each county in which the property encumbered by the 28 lien is located.

29 3. An entity holding a tax lien transferred as provided by section 30 nine hundred sixty of this title may charge reasonable and customary 31 loan fees and recover the costs of closing the loan and recording 32 expenses paid to acquire and record the lien by adding these costs to 33 the amount of the lien.

34 § 6. Section 964 of the real property tax law, subdivision 2 as 35 amended by chapter 733 of the laws of 1959, is amended to read as 36 follows:

37 § 964. Deposit and delivery of conditional tax receipts. 1. [~~Imme-~~ 38 ~~diately upon]~~ Within thirty days of the execution of the loan contract 39 between the [~~taxpayer]~~ property owner and the [~~loan corporation, the~~ 40 ~~loan corporation]~~ entity making the loan, such entity shall pay to the 41 [~~municipal corporation]~~ taxing jurisdiction, or its assignee, the moneys 42 provided for therein. The [~~taxpayer]~~ property owner shall make payments 43 on the loan to the [~~banking institution with which the conditional tax~~ 44 ~~receipt has been deposited for the account of the loan corporation]~~ 45 entity making the loan or its successor in interest directly or in such 46 manner as directed by the entity. The entity making the loan shall have 47 the right to pay subsequent years' delinquent taxes and add these taxes 48 to the original conditional tax receipt. Advances made to pay subsequent 49 years' delinquent taxes shall earn interest at the rate specified in the 50 original contract between the entity making the loan and the property 51 owner.

52 2. [~~When made, such payments shall be entered and acknowledged by the~~ 53 ~~banking institution upon the conditional tax receipt, which receipt~~ 54 ~~shall remain in the possession of the banking institution until either~~ 55 ~~the loan is fully discharged or a default occurs thereon.] In the event~~

56 the loan is fully discharged, the conditional tax receipt shall be

1 endorsed "paid" and two copies of the conditional receipt endorsed 2 "paid" shall be delivered, one to the [~~taxpayer or person making the~~ 3 ~~payment. In the event of default, the conditional tax receipt shall be~~ 4 ~~returned to the loan corporation at its option~~] property owner and one 5 to the taxing jurisdiction that issued the conditional tax receipt.

6 § 7. Subdivision 1 of section 966 of the real property tax law is 7 amended to read as follows:

8 1. Upon the surrender of the conditional tax receipt evidencing the 9 discharge of the obligation created by the loan contract in connection 10 with which it was issued, the [~~municipal corporation~~] taxing jurisdic-11 tion shall replace it with a receipted tax bill. Such receipted tax bill 12 shall bear the date of the conditional tax receipt and no interest or 13 penalty shall be charged to the [~~taxpayer~~] property owner by the taxing 14 jurisdiction for the period between the date of the issuance of the 15 conditional tax receipt and the date of its surrender. All [~~penalties~~ 16 ~~and interest imposed by the municipal corporation for tax default shall~~ 17 ~~be added to the tax lien until the discharge of the obligation created~~ 18 ~~by the loan contract in connection with which the conditional tax~~ 19 ~~receipt was issued, and such penalties and interest shall be cancelled~~ 20 ~~and be deemed satisfied upon the discharge of such obligation provided~~ 21 ~~such obligation is discharged prior to the disposition of the tax lien~~ 22 ~~as provided in section nine hundred sixty eight of this chapter~~] liens 23 created and transferred shall stay in effect until the loan obligation 24 is fully satisfied and discharged.

25 § 8. The real property tax law is amended by adding two new sections 26 965 and 967 to read as follows:

27 § 965. Definitions; applicability. For the purposes of this title, the 28 term "taxing jurisdiction" includes a municipal corporation, a special 29 district and, where applicable, a county tax collection agency as 30 provided for in title four-A of this article. The provisions of section 31 nine hundred ninety-six of this article shall not be applicable for the 32 purposes of this title.

33 § 967. Foreclosure of a conditional tax receipt. 1. Except as other-34 wise provided by this section, the transferee of a tax lien pursuant to 35 subdivision two of section nine hundred sixty of this title, and any 36 successor in interest, is subrogated to and is entitled to exercise any 37 right or remedy possessed by the transferring taxing jurisdiction and is 38 entitled to foreclose the lien in the event of a default, as default is 39 defined in the contract between the parties, in the manner provided for 40 in article thirteen of the real property actions and proceedings law for 41 the foreclosure of a mortgage.

42 2. Prior to the institution of a suit to foreclose a tax lien trans-43 ferred pursuant to subdivision two of section nine hundred sixty of this 44 title, a lending entity shall provide notice, via certified mail, to the 45 property owner that such lending entity intends to commence a foreclo-46 sure action. Such notice shall provide the property owner sixty days 47 from receipt of such notice to cure any default, as default is defined 48 in the loan agreement with the lending entity.

49 3. If a suit to foreclose a tax lien so transferred results in the 50 foreclosure of such lien, the entity filing suit is entitled to recover 51 all costs, disbursements, expenses and fees as provided for in article 52 thirteen of the real property actions and proceedings law for the fore-53 closure of a mortgage, the same as provided for in the civil practice 54 law and rules insofar as not covered by the real property actions and 11 interest at the rate of eighteen percent per annum, to the date of 12 redemption, or one hundred fifty percent of the purchase price, whichev-13 er is less.

23 [~~and~~]. Any county in which conditional tax receipts are recorded may 24 [~~make~~], in its discretion, promulgate regulations not inconsistent with 25 the provisions of this title for the better accomplishment of the 37 regulations and any other measures necessary to implement any provision 38 of this act on its effective date may be promulgated and taken, respec-39 tively, on or before the effective date of such provision.
