AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to criminal justice faculty employed by a community college

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 211 of the retirement and social security law is 2 amended by adding a new subdivision 9 to read as follows:

3 9. Any person employed by a community college as a faculty member 4 under a criminal justice program of the state university of New York or 5 city university of New York who retired from public employment while a
6 member of the New York state and local police and fire retirement
7 system, the New York city police pension fund, or the New York city fire
8 department pension fund and who is entitled to receive a retirement 9 allowance from such retirement system prior to the commencement date of 10 such employment by a community college shall automatically be deemed to 11 have been granted a waiver of retirement earnings limitation and such 12 person may be employed by a community college without loss, suspension
13 or diminution of his or her retirement allowance. Any person employed 14 by a community college as a faculty member under a criminal justice
15 program of the state university of New York or city university of New 16 York who has not retired as a member of the New York state and local 17 police and fire retirement system, the New York city police pension
18 fund, or the New York city fire department pension fund shall not auto-

1 atically be deemed to have been granted a waiver of retirement earnings
2 limitation.

3 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill will allow certain retirees of the New York State and Local Police and Fire Retirement System to work in a community college as a faculty member of a criminal justice program of the state university of New York or city university of New York without loss, suspension or diminution of his or her retirement allowance.

If this bill is enacted, insofar as it will affect the New York State and Local Police and Fire Retirement System, we expect few retirees to be affected. There would be negligible additional annual costs.
