AN ACT to amend the not-for-profit corporation law, in relation to a member of a homeowners association's request to inspect the books and records of the homeowners association's governing board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section. 1. Paragraph (e) of section 621 of the not-for-profit corpo-2 ration law, as amended by chapter 549 of the laws of 2013, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 (e) Upon the written request of any person who shall have been a 5 member of record for at least six months immediately preceding his or 6 her request, or of any person holding, or thereunto authorized in writ-7 ing by the holders of, at least five percent of any class of the 8 outstanding capital certificates, the corporation shall provide to such 9 member an annual balance sheet and profit and loss statement or a finan-10 cial statement performing a similar function for the preceding fiscal 11 year, and, if any interim balance sheet or profit and loss or similar 12 financial statement has been distributed to its members or otherwise 13 made available to the public, the most recent such interim balance sheet
14 or profit and loss or similar financial statement. The corporation
15 shall be allowed a reasonable time to prepare such annual balance sheet 16 and profit and loss or similar financial statement. Members of any 17 homeowners association duly filed with the office of the attorney gener-
18 al shall also be entitled to review, upon request to the homeowners
19 association's governing board, invoices, ledgers, bank accounts, recon-20 ciliations, contracts, and any documents related to the expenditure of 21 homeowners association dues.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
