IN ASSEMBLY

January 27, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. LENTOL, HEVESI, O'DONNELL, BENEDETTO, JAFFEE, OTIS, PEOPLES-STOKES, STECK, BICHOTTE, M. G. MILLER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law and the social services law, in relation to prostitution offenses and services to human trafficking victims

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 230.01 of the penal law, as added by chapter 368 of 2 the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
3 § 230.01 Prostitution; affirmative defense.

4 In any prosecution under section 230.00, section 230.03, section
5 230.19, section 230.20 or subdivision two of section 230.25 of this 6 article or subdivision two of section 240.37 of this part, it is an 7 affirmative defense that the defendant's participation in the offense 8 was a result of having been a victim of compelling prostitution under 9 section 230.33, a victim of sex trafficking under section 230.34 of this 10 article or a victim of trafficking in persons under the trafficking
11 victims protection act (United States Code, Title 22, Chapter 78).

12 § 2. Subdivision (a) of section 483-aa of the social services law, as 13 added by chapter 74 of the laws of 2007, is amended and two new subdivi-
14 sions (c) and (d) are added to read as follows:

15 (a) "Human trafficking victim" means a person who is a victim of sex 16 trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law, a victim of 17 compelling prostitution as defined in section 230.33 of the penal law, 18 or a victim of labor trafficking as defined in section 135.35 of the 19 penal law.

20 (c) "Short-term safe house" means a residential facility operated by a 21 not-for-profit agency with experience in providing services to human 22 trafficking victims, that provides emergency shelter, services and care 23 to human trafficking victims including food, shelter, clothing, medical

1 care, counseling and appropriate crisis intervention services and 2 promotes a safe living environment.

3 (d) "Long-term safe house" means a residential facility operated by a
4 not-for-profit agency with experience in providing services to human
5 trafficking victims, that provides shelter for human trafficking victims
6 and promotes a safe living environment. In addition, a long-term safe 7 house shall provide or assist with securing necessary services for such 8 human trafficking victim either through direct provision of services, or 9 through written agreements with other community and public agencies for 10 the provision of services including but not limited to housing, assess-11 ment, case management, medical care, legal, mental health and substance
12 and alcohol abuse services. Such safe house, in accordance with a 13 service plan for such human trafficking victim, shall also provide coun-
14 seling and therapeutic services, educational services including life 15 skills services, job training and placement and planning services to 16 successfully transition such person back into the community.

17 § 3. Subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 483-bb of the social services 18 law, as added by chapter 74 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as 19 follows:

20 (a) The office of temporary and disability assistance ~~[may]~~ shall 21 coordinate with and assist law enforcement agencies and district attor-
22 ney's offices to access appropriate services for human trafficking
23 victims.

24 (b) ~~[In providing such assistance, the]~~ The office of temporary and 25 disability assistance may enter into contracts with non-government 26 organizations for providing services to ~~[pre-certified]~~ victims of human 27 trafficking as defined in subdivision ~~[(b)]~~ [(a)] of section four hundred 28 eighty-three-aa of this article, ~~[insofar as funds are available for~~ 29 ~~that purpose]~~ subject to available funds. Such services ~~[may]~~ shall 30 include, but are not limited to, case management, emergency temporary 31 housing, health care, mental health counseling, drug addiction screening
32 and treatment, language interpretation and translation services, English 33 language instruction, job training and placement assistance, post-em-
34 ployment services for job retention, and services to assist the individ-
35 ual and any of his or her family members to establish a permanent resi-
36 dence in New York state or the United States. Such services shall also 37 include appropriate voluntary placement in a short-term and/or long-term 38 safe house, as such terms are defined under subdivision (c) or (d) of 39 section four hundred eighty-three-aa of this article. Placement in a 40 safe house shall be available from the initial point of contact between 41 the human trafficking victim and any of the following: law enforcement;
42 a local social services district; or a social or legal services provid-
43 er. Nothing in this article shall prevent placement in a safe house of 44 a human trafficking victim who is: (1) involved in a proceeding which 45 has not reached final disposition, for the duration of such proceeding;
46 (2) not involved in a pending proceeding; or (3) participating in a 47 program for victims of domestic violence and has been identified as a 48 victim of human trafficking. Nothing in this ~~[section]~~ article shall 49 preclude the office of temporary and disability assistance, or any local 50 social services district, from providing human trafficking victims who 51 are United States citizens or human trafficking victims who meet the 52 criteria pursuant to section one hundred twenty-two of this chapter with 53 any benefits or services for which they otherwise may be eligible.

54 § 4. Section 483-cc of the social services law is amended by adding a 55 new subdivision (c) to read as follows:

1 (c) Promptly upon an encounter with a person who reasonably appears to 2 a law enforcement agency or district attorney's office to be a human 3 trafficking victim, or a person who identifies himself or herself as a 4 human trafficking victim, such law enforcement agency or district attor-
5 ney's office shall advise such person of the availability of the 6 services of specific, established providers of social and legal services
7 to human trafficking victims. Unless, after receiving such advice, the 8 apparent victim expresses that he or she does not wish the presence of a 9 representative of such an established provider of social or legal 10 services, the law enforcement agency or district attorney's office shall 11 contact the appropriate provider and request that a representative be 12 provided. If the apparent victim does not wish the presence of such a 13 representative, that expression by the apparent victim shall be docu-
14 mented by the agency or office official in writing or other recorded
15 form. Nothing in this subdivision shall affect any obligation such law 16 enforcement agency or district attorney's office may have to provide any 17 information or assistance to such person.

18 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that section one 19 of this act shall apply to all cases pending on such effective date; 20 provided, further, that sections two and three of this act shall take 21 effect April 1, 2018; and provided, further, that section four of this 22 act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a 23 law.
