[~~Eighteen months, where the holder is convicted of a violation of subdivision two-a of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article committed within ten years of a conviction for a violation of subdivision two, two-a, three, four or four-a of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article; or where~~] Where the holder is convicted of a violation of subdivision two, two-a, three, four or four-a of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article [~~committed~~] after having been convicted two or more times of a violation of subdivision two, two-a, three, four or four-a of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article within the preceding ten years [~~of a conviction for a violation of subdivision two-a of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article~~], such holder shall be permanently disqualified from operating a motor vehicle.

§ 3. Subparagraph 3 of paragraph (e) of subdivision 2 of section 1193 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 173 of the laws of 1990, item (iii) of clause a as amended by section 35 and item (iii) of clause b as amended by section 36 of part LL of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010 and clause b as amended by section 17 of part E of chapter 60 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

(3) Permanent disqualification from operating certain motor vehicles. a. Any person sentenced pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (c) of subdivision one of this section shall be permanently disqualified from operating a motor vehicle. In addition, the commissioner shall not issue such person a license valid for the operation of any vehicle. However, the commissioner may waive such disqualification and prohibition hereinbefore provided after a period of ten years has expired from such sentence and may issue a permanently probationary license provided:

(i) that during such ten year period such person has not violated any of the provisions of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article or any alcohol or drug related traffic offense in this state or in any jurisdiction outside this state;

(ii) that such person provides acceptable documentation to the commissioner that such person is not in need of alcohol or drug treatment or has satisfactorily completed a prescribed course of such treatment; and

(iii) after such documentation is accepted, that such person is granted a certificate of relief from disabilities as provided for in section seven hundred one of the correction law by the court in which such person was last penalized pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section.

b. Except as otherwise provided herein, in addition to any revocation set forth in subparagraph four or five of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, any person sentenced pursuant to subparagraph three of paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section shall be permanently disqualified from operating any vehicle set forth in such paragraph. In addition, the commissioner shall not issue such person a license valid for the operation of any vehicle set forth therein by such person. The commissioner may waive such disqualification and prohibition hereinbefore provided after a period of five years has expired from such sentencing provided:

(i) that during such five year period such person has not violated any of the provisions of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article or any alcohol or drug related traffic offense in this state or in any jurisdiction outside this state;

(ii) that such person provides acceptable documentation to the commissioner that such person is not in need of alcohol or drug treatment or has satisfactorily completed a prescribed course of such treatment; and

(iii) after such documentation is accepted, that such person is granted a certificate of relief from disabilities or a certificate of good conduct pursuant to article twenty-three of the correction law.

[~~b~~] c. Any person who holds a commercial driver's license and is convicted of a violation of any subdivision of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article who has had a prior finding of refusal to submit to a chemical test pursuant to section eleven hundred ninety-four of this article or has had a prior conviction of any of the following offenses: any violation of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article; any violation of subdivision one or two of section six hundred of this chapter; or has a prior conviction of any felony involving the use of a motor vehicle pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section five hundred ten-a of this chapter, shall be permanently disqualified from operating a commercial motor vehicle. The commissioner may waive such disqualification and prohibition hereinbefore provided after a period of ten years has expired from such sentence provided:

(i) that during such ten year period such person has not been found to have refused a chemical test pursuant to section eleven hundred ninety-four of this article while operating a motor vehicle and has not been convicted of any one of the following offenses while operating a motor vehicle: any violation of section eleven hundred ninety-two of this article; any violation of subdivision one or two of section six hundred of this chapter; or has a prior conviction of any felony involving the use of a motor vehicle pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section five hundred ten-a of this chapter;

(ii) that such person provides acceptable documentation to the commissioner that such person is not in need of alcohol or drug treatment or has satisfactorily completed a prescribed course of such treatment; and

(iii) after such documentation is accepted, that such person is granted a certificate of relief from disabilities or a certificate of good conduct pursuant to article twenty-three of the correction law.

[~~c~~] d. Upon a third finding of refusal and/or conviction of any of the offenses which require a permanent commercial driver's license revocation, such permanent revocation may not be waived by the commissioner under any circumstances.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
