1 revoked pursuant to this section, then neither such vehicle nor any other motor vehicle shall be registered or reregistered in the name of its owner or of any other person legally responsible for its use, nor shall any driver's license be issued to such owner, person or operator until [one year has] eighteen months have passed since the date of such revocation and, as the case may be, the commissioner has received the payments and evidence required by paragraph (c) [below] of this subdivision.

- (b) If a motor vehicle not registered in this state is involved in an accident in this state and the privilege of its operation within this state has been revoked, then neither its owner, any person legally responsible for its use nor its operator shall exercise the privilege of the operation of such vehicle within this state or the privilege of operation within this state of any motor vehicle, until [one year has] eighteen months have passed since the date of revocation and, as the case may be, the commissioner has received the payments and evidence as required in paragraph (c) [below] of this subdivision.
- (c) The payments and evidence referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) [above] of this subdivision shall be evidence, satisfactory to the commissioner,
- (1) That no cause of action based upon such accident against such owner, person legally responsible or operator has been commenced within a period of [ene year] eighteen months from the date of the accident or a release thereof has been given to such owner, person or operator, or
- (2) That no judgment arising out of such cause of action for amounts within the limits stated in paragraph (a) of subdivision four of section three hundred eleven of this article against such owner, person or operator remains unsatisfied, except that such registration and licensing privileges may be restored on compliance with the procedures permitting the payment of a judgment in installments provided in section three hundred thirty-four of this title and
- (3) That all civil penalties required to be paid to the department pursuant to the provisions of subdivision five of section three hundred nineteen of this [chapter] article have been paid.
- § 5. Subdivision 15 of section 318 of the vehicle and traffic law, amended by chapter 186 of the laws of 1985, is amended and a new subdivision 16 is added to read as follows:
- 15. Notwithstanding any provisions of this section, a restricted use license or privilege of operating a motor vehicle in this state may be issued to a person who has had his or her license or such privilege revoked or suspended pursuant to any provision of this section in accordance with article twenty-one-A of this chapter. No restricted use license or privilege of operating a motor vehicle in this state may be issued to a person who has had his or her license or such privilege revoked or suspended pursuant to any provision of this section twice within eighteen months.
- 16. Any person who has had his or her license or privilege of operating a motor vehicle in this state revoked or suspended pursuant to any provision of this section three or more times within eighteen months shall have his or her license or such privilege revoked permanently.
- § 6. Subdivisions 1 and 5 of section 319 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by section 11 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, are amended to read as follows:
- 1. Any owner of a motor vehicle registered in this state, or an unregistered motor vehicle, who shall operate such motor vehicle or permit it to be operated in this state without having in full force and effect the financial security required by the provisions of this chapter and any other person who shall operate in this state any motor vehicle regis-3 tered in this state, or an unregistered motor vehicle, with the knowledge that the owner thereof does not have in full force and effect such proof of financial security, except a person who, at the time of operation of such motor vehicle, had in effect an operator's policy of 7 liability insurance, as defined in section three hundred eighteen of this article, with respect to his operation of such vehicle shall be 9 guilty of a [traffic infraction and upon conviction may be fined not less than one hundred fifty dollars or more than one thousand five 10 hundred dollars or may be imprisoned for not more than fifteen days or 11 both] misdemeanor. In addition to the penalties [herein] set forth in 12 13 this section, such person, upon conviction, shall also become liable for 14 payment to the department of the civil penalty provided in subdivision 15 five of this section.

- 5. The civil penalty for a violation of subdivision one of this section shall be [seven hundred fifty] one thousand dollars.
- § 7. Subdivision 11 of section 509 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by section 3 of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:
- 11. (a) A violation of any provision of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not less than seventy-five nor more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than fifteen days, or by both such fine and imprisonment except, if the violation consists of failure to renew a license which was valid within sixty days, the fine shall be not more than forty dollars, and except that a violation of subdivision [seven or] eight of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not more than seventy-five dollars.
- (b) A second or subsequent violation of any provision of this section, except for a violation for failure to renew a license which was valid within sixty days or for a violation of subdivision eight of this section, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than seventy-five nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
- § 8. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 511 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 173 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) A person is guilty of the offense of aggravated unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle in the third degree when such person operates a motor vehicle upon a public highway while knowing or having reason to 40 41 know that such person's license or privilege of operating such motor 42 vehicle in this state or privilege of obtaining a license to operate 43 such motor vehicle issued by the commissioner is suspended, revoked or 44 otherwise withdrawn by the commissioner, or when such person operates a 45 motor vehicle without being duly licensed pursuant to section five 46 hundred two of this title and such person has previously been convicted for a violation of section five hundred nine of this title within the immediately preceding eighteen months. For the purpose of this paragraph, a person who has in effect three or more suspensions or revocations of his or her license, imposed on at least three separate dates, 51 shall be presumed to know that such license was suspended or revoked.
 - § 9. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 511 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 607 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:
 - (b) Aggravated unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle in the second degree is a [misdemeanor] class E felony. When a person is convicted of
