AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to continuation of senior citizen rent increase exemption benefits after a period of ineligibility due to a head of household's temporary increase in income

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 26-605 of the administrative code of the city of 2 New York is amended by adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a head of a household to whom a rent increase exemption order/tax abatement certificate has 5 been issued under this chapter, chapter three or chapter four of this title who has become ineligible for such rent increase exemption order/tax abatement certificate as a result of a temporary increase in 7 income for a period of time that does not exceed two years, may, upon 8 resumption of receipt of an income that qualifies for such 9 10 order/certificate under this chapter, chapter three or chapter four of 11 this title, apply to the supervising agency, subject to the terms and 12 conditions imposed by such relevant chapter, for a rent increase exemption order/tax abatement certificate relating to the same dwelling 13 unit to which the original rent increase exemption order/tax abatement 14 certificate applied, and such order/certificate shall provide that the 15 16 head of the household shall be exempt from paying that portion of the 17 maximum rent for the dwelling unit which exceeds the last rent that the head of the household was required to pay in the dwelling unit prior to 18 his or her increase in income which caused the temporary ineligibility, 19 plus any non-exempt increases in such maximum rent which may have 21 occurred during the temporary period of ineligibility.

22 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to rele-23 vant applications for the senior citizen rent increase exemption bene-24 fits filed on or after such date.
