(ii) The person returning, destroying or sealing such record, samples, analyses or other documents in accordance with this paragraph shall maintain a record certifying the date and manner of such return, destruction or sealing and identifying the person or persons returning, destroying or sealing same. The person returning, destroying or sealing same shall send a copy of this record to the person who submitted the sample.

(iii) This paragraph shall supplement and not supplant any applicable provision of paragraph (b) of this subdivision. This paragraph shall not apply to DNA records, samples, analyses and other documents obtained from the forensic examination of crime scene evidence, where the DNA profile developed from such crime scene evidence does not match the DNA profile of a known person.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subdivision, a DNA record which was obtained from a sample provided pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision prior to the effec-

The court shall affirm on the record or in writing that the defendant has been given the notice required by this subdivision. The failure of a court to advise the defendant pursuant to this subdivision or to otherwise comply with the provisions of this subdivision shall not be deemed to affect the voluntariness of a plea of guilty or the validity of a conviction.
- § 12. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 97-pppp to read as follows:
- § 97-pppp. Assistance to police and crime laboratories: DNA evidence fund. 1. There is hereby created in the custody of the state comptroller a special fund to be known as the "assistance to police and crime laboratories: DNA evidence fund".

 - 3. If the court finds that the defendant was subjected to a custodial interrogation in violation of subdivision two of this section, then any statements made by the defendant following that custodial interrogation, even if otherwise in compliance with this section, are also presumed inadmissible.
 - 4. The people may rebut a presumption of inadmissibility through clear and convincing evidence that the statement was both voluntary and reliable and:
 - (a) exigent circumstances existed necessitating interrogation at a place in a location other than a police station, correctional facility,
