Introduced by M. of A. LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes -- ordered to a third reading, amended and ordered reprinted, retaining its place on the order of third reading

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, the civil practice law and rules and the executive law, in relation to the possession of opioid antagonists

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 60.49 to read as follows:

§ 60.49 Possession of opioid antagonists; receipt into evidence.

1. Evidence that a person was in possession of an opioid antagonist may not be admitted at any trial, hearing or other proceeding in a prosecution for any offense under sections 220.03, 220.06, 220.09, 220.16, 220.18, or 220.21 of the penal law for the purpose of establishing probable cause for an arrest or proving any person's commission of such offense.

2. For the purposes of this section, opioid antagonist is defined as a drug approved by the Food and Drug Administration that, when administered, negates or neutralizes in whole or in part the pharmacological effects of an opioid in the body and shall be limited to naloxone and other medications approved by the department of health for such purpose.

§ 2. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 4519-a to read as follows:

§ 4519-a. Possession of opioid antagonists; receipt into evidence. 1. Possession of an opioid antagonist may not be received in evidence in any trial, hearing or proceeding pursuant to subdivision one of section two hundred thirty-one and paragraph three of subdivision b of section two hundred thirty-three of the real property law or subdivision five of section seven hundred eleven and subdivision one of section seven hundred fifteen of the real property actions and proceedings law as

2 manufacture, or other illegal business.

3 2. For the purposes of this section, opioid antagonist shall have the 4 same meaning as set forth in subdivision two of section 60.49 of the 5 criminal procedure law.

6 § 3. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 214-g to 7 read as follows:

8 § 214-g. Opioid antagonist awareness. The superintendent, in cooper-
9 ation with the department of health and the office of alcoholism and 10 substance abuse services, shall, for all members of the division of 11 state police: (1) develop, maintain and disseminate appropriate instruc-
12 tion regarding section 60.49 of the criminal procedure law, and (2)
13 establish and implement written procedures and policies in the event a
14 member of the division of state police encounters a person who possesses
15 opioid antagonists.

16 § 4. Section 841 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 17 subdivision 7-b to read as follows:

18 7-b. Take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that all police
19 officers and peace officers certified pursuant to subdivision three of 20 this section receive appropriate instruction regarding section 60.49 of 21 the criminal procedure law relating to the introduction of opioid antag-
22 onists into evidence in certain cases.

23 § 5. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 24 have become a law and shall apply to all cases pending on and after such 25 date.
