AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to granting an exemption from the tax on mortgages for residential real property purchased by persons receiving federal and/or state buyouts of their residence as a result of damage caused by hurricane Sandy in October of 2012; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 252 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

(3) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, the governing body of any municipality acting through its local legislative body or other governing agency, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws or ordinances to exempt from the taxes imposed by this article the mortgage of residential real property, when such real property is purchased and is to be occupied by an owner or owners who have received, or for whom a final determination has been made and will receive, federally and/or state funded buyouts of such owner or owners' previous residential real property which was damaged or destroyed as a result of hurricane Sandy during October of two thousand twelve.

(b) Any person who after October twenty-second, two thousand twelve and before the effective date of this subdivision, who would otherwise qualify under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, and who has paid any taxes imposed by this article, shall be entitled to receive a reimbursement of all such taxes paid from the county clerk or county treasurer of
