2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 30, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. AUBRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law, the criminal procedure law and the penal law, in relation to establishing substance abuse treatment alternatives for certain offenders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 249-a 2 to read as follows:

3 § 249-a. Substance abuse treatment alternative programs for certain 4 offenders. 1. The director shall enter into agreements with residential 5 substance abuse treatment programs to provide for the care and treatment 6 of eligible offenders sentenced pursuant to section 60.14 of the penal 7 law.

8 2. Such programs shall be licensed by the office of alcoholism and 9 substance abuse services and shall be approved by the division of 10 probation and correctional alternatives.

11 3. Upon the satisfactory completion of the course of treatment, the 12 eligible offender shall have the court imposed sentence of conditional 13 discharge terminated in accordance with the provisions of section 410.90
14 of the criminal procedure law.

15 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 390.30 of the criminal 16 procedure law, as added by chapter 14 of the laws of 1985, is amended to 17 read as follows:

18 (a) The report of the pre-sentence investigation must contain an anal-19 ysis of as much of the information gathered in the investigation as the 20 agency that conducted the investigation deems relevant to the question
21 of sentence. Where appropriate, the report shall include a treatment 22 plan including but not limited to a listing of available licensed
23 substance abuse programs to provide for the care and treatment of offen-24 ders sentenced in accordance with the provisions of subdivision one of

1 section 60.14 of the penal law. The report must also include any other 2 [~~information~~] information that the court directs to be included and the 3 material required by paragraph (b) of this subdivision which shall be 4 considered part of the report.

5 § 3. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 60.14 to read as 6 follows:

7 § 60.14 Authorized depositions; criminal possession of a controlled 8 substance.

9 1. The sentence of any person convicted of a violation of section 10 220.03 of this chapter, criminal possession of a controlled substance in 11 the seventh degree, section 220.06 of this chapter, criminal possession 12 of a controlled substance in the fifth degree, or section 221.20 of this 13 chapter, criminal possession of marihuana in the third degree, for 14 either the first or second time who has no prior conviction for any of 15 the other provisions of article two hundred twenty of this chapter and 16 also has no prior violent felony conviction shall be conditionally
17 discharged provided such person agrees to attend, and successfully
18 completes an alternative program of substance abuse treatment approved 19 in accordance with section two hundred forty-nine-a of the executive 20 law.

21 2. The court shall impose such a sentence on the condition that the 22 offender participate in a substance abuse treatment alternative program
23 for a specified period of time as determined by the court.

24 3. Upon completion of a course of treatment, the court shall terminate 25 the sentence in accordance with the provisions of section 410.90 of the 26 criminal procedure law. If the court determines that the offender 27 absconded from the substance abuse treatment alternative program or that 28 the sentence is no longer suitable because it endangers the safety, 29 security or order of such treatment facility or that the offender other-30 wise violates the terms and conditions of the sentence, the sentence may 31 be revoked. Upon revocation, the offender shall be sentenced in accord-32 ance with the other provisions of this chapter applicable to persons 33 convicted of criminal possession of a controlled substance or criminal 34 possession of marihuana, as the case may be.

35 4. The court shall conduct an ongoing evaluation of the program. The 36 court shall undertake studies in conjunction with the division of 37 probation and correctional alternatives, the division of parole and the 38 office of alcoholism and substance abuse services to ensure that the 39 programmatic objectives are met.

40 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 41 it shall have become a law.
