Introduced by M. of A. CYMBROWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crime of public larceny

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 155.00 of the penal law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 10 to read as follows:

3 10. "Unauthorized purchases" means any purchase made by means of any 4 credit or debit charge made against a credit or debit card not author-5 ized by the employer who issued the card or any purchase made by means 6 of any credit or debit charge made against a credit or debit card issued 7 by an employer not consistent with the provisions of the agreement
8 signed by the employee when the card was issued to the employee.

9 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding five new sections 155.50, 10 155.55, 155.60, 155.65 and 155.70 to read as follows:

11 § 155.50 Public larceny in the fifth degree.

12 A person is guilty of public larceny in the fifth degree when he or 13 she is an employee of the state or a political subdivision of the state
14 or a governmental instrumentality within the state, possessing a credit
15 or debit card issued by his or her employer and the person makes unau-
16 thorized purchases using such credit or debit card for goods and 17 services.

18 Public larceny in the fifth degree is a class A misdemeanor.

19 § 155.55 Public larceny in the fourth degree.

20 A person is guilty of public larceny in the fourth degree when he or 21 she is an employee of the state or a political subdivision of the state
22 or a governmental instrumentality within the state, possessing a credit
23 or debit card issued by his or her employer and the person makes unau-
24 thorized purchases using such credit or debit card for goods and 25 services exceeding one thousand dollars.
