IN ASSEMBLY

January 30, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to a privately owned vacant property temporary public benefit use exemption

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new
2 section 481-a to read as follows:

3 § 481-a. Privately owned vacant property temporary public benefit use
4 exemption. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, where 5 privately owned vacant property is temporarily used for the public bene-
6 fit in a city having a population of one million or more such property
7 may be exempt from taxation and ad valorem levies for as long as such
8 real property shall be limited to use for the public benefit for a mini-
9 mum of twenty hours a week in the months of November through March and 10 twenty-five hours a week in the months of April through October.

11 2. The term "public benefit", as used in this section shall include,
12 but not be limited to, open spaces, community gardens, urban farms and 13 pop-up parks.

14 3. No real property shall be entitled to receive an exemption pursuant 15 to this section if the owner or operator of such real property shall 16 receive or may be lawfully entitled to receive pecuniary profit from the 17 use of such real property.

18 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
