A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree when:

- 1. He or she knowingly acts in a manner likely to be injurious to the physical, mental or moral welfare of a child less than seventeen years old or directs or authorizes such child to engage in an occupation involving a substantial risk of danger to his or her life or health; or
- 2. Being a parent, guardian or other person legally charged with the 11 care or custody of a child less than eighteen years old, he or she fails or refuses to exercise reasonable diligence in the control of such child to prevent him or her from becoming an "abused child," a "neglected child, " a "juvenile delinquent" or a "person in need of supervision, " as those terms are defined in articles ten, three and seven of the family 16 court act.
- 3. A person is not guilty of the provisions of this section when he or 17 she engages in the conduct described in subdivision one of section 18 19 260.00 of this article: (a) with the intent to wholly abandon the child 20 by relinquishing responsibility for and right to the care and custody of such child; (b) with the intent that the child be safe from physical 21 injury and cared for in an appropriate manner; (c) the child is left 23 with an appropriate person, or in a suitable location and the person who leaves the child promptly notifies an appropriate person of the child's location; and (d) the child is not more than thirty days old.

3 Endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree is a class A 4 misdemeanor.

- § 2. Section 260.11 of the penal law is renumbered section 260.12.
- § 3. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 260.11 to read
- 8 § 260.11 Endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree.
 - A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree when:
 - 1. He or she knowingly acts in a manner which creates a foreseeable risk of either serious physical injury or protracted harm to the mental or emotional welfare of a child less than seventeen years old; or
 - 2. He or she commits the crime of endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree and has previously been convicted of endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree as defined in section 260.10 of this article or endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree as defined in this section.

Endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree is a class D 20 felony.

- § 4. Section 260.12 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 89 of laws of 1984 and as renumbered by section two of this act, is amended to read as follows:
- § 260.12 Endangering the welfare of a child; corroboration.
- A person shall not be convicted of endangering the welfare of a child as defined in sections 260.10 or 260.11 of this article, or of an attempt to commit the same, upon the testimony of a victim who is incapable of consent because of mental defect or mental incapacity as to conduct that constitutes an offense or an attempt to commit an offense referred to in section 130.16 of this chapter, without additional evidence sufficient pursuant to section 130.16 of this chapter to sustain a conviction of an offense referred to in section 130.16 of this chapter, or of an attempt to commit the same.
- 34 § 5. Section 260.15 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
- 36 § 260.15 Endangering the welfare of a child; defense.
 - In any prosecution for endangering the welfare of a child, pursuant to section 260.10 or 260.11 of this article, based upon an alleged failure or refusal to provide proper medical care or treatment to an ill child, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant (a) is a parent, guardian or other person legally charged with the care or custody of such child; and (b) is a member or adherent of an organized church or religious group the tenets of which prescribe prayer as the principal treatment for illness; and (c) treated or caused such ill child to be treated in accordance with such tenets.
 - § 6. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 30.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 467 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:
- 49 (a) A prosecution for a class A felony, or rape in the first degree as 50 defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or a crime defined or 51 formerly defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal 52 or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as 54 defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of the penal law, may be commenced at any time;

- § 7. Section 213-c of the civil practice law and rules, as added by chapter 3 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:
- § 213-c. Action by victim of conduct constituting certain sexual offenses. Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this arti-cle, a civil claim or cause of action to recover from a defendant as hereinafter defined, for physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered by a person as a result of acts by such defendant of rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 the penal law, or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of the penal law may be brought within five years. As used in this section, the term "defendant" shall mean only a person who commits the acts described in this section or who, in a criminal proceeding, could be charged with criminal liability for the commission such acts pursuant to section 20.00 of the penal law and shall not apply to any related civil claim or cause of action arising from such acts. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that a crim-inal charge be brought or a criminal conviction be obtained as a condi-tion of bringing a civil cause of action or receiving a civil judgment pursuant to this section or be construed to require that any of the rules governing a criminal proceeding be applicable to any such civil action.
 - § 8. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 215 of the civil practice law and rules, as added by chapter 3 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:
 - (b) Whenever it is shown that a criminal action against the same defendant has been commenced with respect to the event or occurrence from which a claim governed by this section arises, and such criminal action is for rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of the penal law the plaintiff shall have at least five years from the termination of the criminal action as defined in section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law in which to commence the civil action, notwithstanding that the time in which to commence such action has already expired or has less than a year remaining.
 - § 9. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 30.10 of the criminal procedure law, as separately amended by chapters 3 and 320 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:
 - (f) For purposes of a prosecution involving a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, other than a sexual offense delineated in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section, committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest in the first, second or third degree as defined in sections 255.27, 255.26 and 255.25 of the penal law committed against a child
