IN ASSEMBLY

January 9, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. PERRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to criminal history review of child care providers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 390-b of the social services law, as added by chapter 416 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, after reviewing any criminal history record information provided by the division of criminal justice services, of an individual who is subject to a criminal history record check pursuant to this section, the office of children and family services and the provider shall take the following actions:

(a) (i) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an operator of a child day care center, school age child care program, group family day care home, family day care home, or any person over the age of eighteen residing in such a home, reveals a felony conviction at any time for a sex offense, crime against a child, or a crime involving violence, or a felony conviction within the past five years for a drug-related offense or a felony conviction at any time for any offense committed in another jurisdiction which, if committed in this state, would constitute a sex offense, crime against a child, or crime involving violence, or a felony conviction within the past five years for a drug-related offense pursuant to the penal law, the office of children and family services shall deny the application [~~unless the office determines, in its discretion, that approval of the application will not in any way jeopardize the health, safety or welfare of the children in the center, program or home~~]; or EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.
