IN ASSEMBLY

January 31, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. WEPRIN, O'DONNELL, AUBRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to written statements upon any adverse action against any person previously convicted of a criminal offense

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 754 of the correction law, as added by chapter 931 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

§ 754. Written statement upon denial of license or employment or other adverse action. At the request of any person previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses who has been denied a license or employment or against whom an adverse action has been taken with respect to a license or employment, a public agency or private employer shall provide, within thirty days of a request, a written statement setting forth the reasons for such denial or adverse action.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
