IN ASSEMBLY

February 1, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. DenDEKKER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring pedestrian-control signals to indicate that all pedestrians at an intersection shall cross the street at the same time

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 19-196 to read as follows:

§ 19-196 Pedestrian-control signals; timing. Any intersection with a pedestrian-control signal shall have such signal programmed to indicate that all pedestrians at the intersection shall cross the street at the same time. No traffic-control signal shall indicate a green light for traffic while a pedestrian-control signal at such intersection displays a signal indicating walk or a steady walking person.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
