4151--A

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 1, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. PAULIN, DINOWITZ, LUPARDO, SOLAGES, SIMON, BUCHWALD, ARROYO, McDONOUGH, SEAWRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection -- reported and referred to the Committee on Codes -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to the prohibition of the sale of crib bumper pads and the restriction of the use of such pads in certain settings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 1 2 399-ii to read as follows: 3 § 399-ii. Prohibit the sale of crib bumper pads and restrict use of 4 such pads in certain settings. 1. For the purposes of this section: (a) 5 "Crib" shall mean a bed or containment designated to accommodate an infant. б 7 (b) "Crib bumper pads" shall mean a pad or pads of a non-mesh material 8 resting directly above the mattress in a crib, running the surface area 9 of the crib or along the length of any of the interior sides of the 10 crib. "Crib bumper pad" does not include mesh liners. (c) "Distributor" shall mean any person who delivers to a person other 11 12 than the purchaser, for the purpose of retail sale. (d) "Manufacturer" shall mean any person who makes and places into the 13 stream of commerce a bumper pad as defined by this section. 14 15 (e) "Retailer" shall have the same meaning as set forth in subdivision 16 eleven of section four hundred ninety-a of this chapter. 17 (f) "Secondhand dealer" shall have the same meaning as set forth in 18 subdivision six of section four hundred ninety-a of this chapter. 19 (g) "Child care facility" shall mean any place subject to section 20 three hundred ninety of the social services law or article forty-seven

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD08332-05-7

A. 4151--A

1	of the New York city health code as authorized by section five hundred
2	fifty-eight of the New York city charter.
3	(h) "Place of public accommodation" shall mean any inn, hotel, motel,
4	motor court or other establishment that provides lodging to transient
5	guests. Such term shall not include an establishment treated as an
б	apartment building for purposes of any state or local law or regulation
7	or an establishment located within a building that contains not more
8	than five rooms for rent or hire and that is actually occupied as a
9	residence by the proprietor of such establishment.
10	(i) "Person" shall mean a natural person, firm, corporation, limited
11	liability company, association, or an employee or agent of a natural
12	person or an entity included in this definition.
13	2. No manufacturer, importer, distributor, wholesaler, retailer or
14	secondhand dealer shall sell, lease, offer for sale, or offer for lease
15	in this state any crib bumper pad as an accessory to a crib or as a
16	separate item.
17	3. (a) On or after the effective date of this section, no child care
18	facility or place of public accommodation shall use or have on the prem-
19	ises any crib bumper pads unless a medical professional has determined
20	that use of crib bumper pads is medically necessary for a particular
21	child using a crib in such child care facility or place of public accom-
22	modation.
23	(b) The office of children and family services, in consultation with
24	the city of New York department of health and mental hygiene, shall
25	notify child care facilities of the provisions of this subdivision in
26	plain, non-technical language. Such notice shall be given to every child
27	care facility upon the effective date of this section or as soon as
28	practicable thereafter, and such notice shall also be given to each
29	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred
29 30	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law.
29 30 31	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules
29 30 31 32	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with</pre>
29 30 31 32 33	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities.</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43	<pre>applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged</pre>
29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the
$\begin{array}{c} 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 34\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 40\\ 41\\ 42\\ 43\\ 44\\ 45\\ \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of
$\begin{array}{c} 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 34\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 40\\ 41\\ 42\\ 43\\ 44\\ 45\\ 46\end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules,
$\begin{array}{c} 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 34\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 40\\ 42\\ 43\\ 44\\ 45\\ 46\\ 47\\ \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a
$\begin{array}{c} 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 34\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 40\\ 42\\ 43\\ 445\\ 46\\ 47\\ 48\end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of subdivision two of this section has occurred, the court may
$\begin{array}{c} 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 39\\ 40\\ 42\\ 43\\ 445\\ 46\\ 47\\ 48\\ 49\\ \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of subdivision two of this section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each
$\begin{array}{c} 29\\ 30\\ 31\\ 32\\ 33\\ 35\\ 36\\ 37\\ 38\\ 39\\ 41\\ 42\\ 43\\ 45\\ 46\\ 47\\ 48\\ 9\\ 50\\ \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of subdivision two of this section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation. Each sale of a crib bumper pad in violation of this section
$\begin{array}{c} 2 9 \\ 3 0 \\ 3 1 \\ 3 2 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 4 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 7 \\ 3 3 \\ 4 1 \\ 4 2 \\ 4 4 \\ 4 5 \\ 4 4 \\ 4 5 \\ 4 6 \\ 5 1 \\ 5 1 \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of subdivision two of this section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation. Each sale of a crib bumper pad in violation of this section shall constitute a separate violation. In connection with any such
$\begin{array}{c} 2 9 \\ 3 0 \\ 3 1 \\ 3 2 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 4 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 5 \\ 4 1 \\ 4 2 \\ 4 4 \\ 4 5 \\ 4 4 \\ 5 1 \\ 5 2 \\ 5 2 \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of subdivision two of this section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation. Each sale of a crib bumper pad in violation of this section shall constitute a separate violation. In connection with any such proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to take proof
$\begin{array}{c} 2 9 \\ 3 0 \\ 3 1 \\ 3 2 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 3 \\ 4 1 \\ 4 2 \\ 4 4 \\ 4 5 \\ 5 1 \\ 5 2 \\ 5 3 \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of subdivision two of this section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation. Each sale of a crib bumper pad in violation of this section shall constitute a separate violation. In connection with any such proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to take proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue subpoenas in
$\begin{array}{c} 2 9 \\ 3 0 \\ 3 1 \\ 3 2 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 4 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 4 \\ 4 2 \\ 4 4 \\ 4 5 \\ 5 1 \\ 5 2 \\ 5 4 \\ \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation. Each sale of a crib bumper pad in violation of this section shall constitute a separate violation. In connection with any such proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to take proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue subponeas in accordance with the civil practice law and rules.
$\begin{array}{c} 2 9 \\ 3 0 \\ 3 1 \\ 3 2 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 3 \\ 3 5 \\ 3 3 \\ 4 1 \\ 4 2 \\ 4 4 \\ 4 5 \\ 5 1 \\ 5 2 \\ 5 3 \end{array}$	applicant for license or registration pursuant to section three hundred ninety of the social services law. (c) The office of children and family services shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this subdivision, with respect to the ban on crib bumper pads in child care facilities. 4. Whenever there shall be a violation of subdivision two of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of subdivision two of this section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each violation. Each sale of a crib bumper pad in violation of this section shall constitute a separate violation. In connection with any such proposed application, the attorney general is authorized to take proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue subpoenas in

A. 4151--A

1	not	affe	ect oth	ler pi	rovisior	ns or	applica	atio	ns o	f this	sectio	on which	ch d	can be
2	give	en ef	fect w	vithou	ut the i	invali	id provi	lsio	n or	applic	ation,	and	to	this
3	end	the	provis	sions	of this	s sect	cion are	e se	vera	ble.
4	§	2.	This	act	shall	take	effect	on	the	sixtiet	h day	after	it	shall aay a 5 have become a law.