AN ACT to amend the general business law and the tax law, in relation to the sale of junk metal

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 62 of the general business law, as amended by chapter 302 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

2 § 62. Statement required from persons selling certain property. On 3 purchasing any pig or pigs of metal, bronze or brass castings or parts 4 thereof, sprues or gates or parts thereof, copper wire or brass car 5 journals, or metal beer kegs, such junk dealer shall cause to be 6 subscribed by the person from whom purchased a [~~statement as to~~] written 7 manifest detailing a description of the goods, when[~~7~~] and where [~~and~~ 8 ~~from whom~~] he or she obtained such property, [~~also~~] the name of the 9 person who salvaged the property and the name of the person who author-10 ized the salvage, his or her identity as verified by a government issued 11 identification card, age, residence by city, village or town, and the 12 street and number thereof, if any, the driver's license number or information from a government issued identification card, if any, of such 13 person, and otherwise such description as will reasonably locate the 14 same, his or her occupation and name of his or her employer and place of 15 employment or business, which statement the junk dealer shall forthwith 16 file in the office of the chief of police of the city or village in 17 which the purchase was made, if made in a city or incorporated village, 18 and otherwise in the office of the sheriff of the county in which made.
19 The junk metal dealer shall also make and retain a copy of the government issued photographic identification card used to verify the identity 20 of the person from whom the junk metal was purchased and shall retain 21 this copy in a separate book or register for two years from the date of 22 purchase of the junk metal and include an additional copy of this identification card.
