remain in effect until any and all outstanding driver responsibility assessments have been paid in full and such person has provided proof of completion of a motor vehicle accident prevention course.

- (e) Any completion of a motor vehicle accident prevention course approved pursuant to article twelve-B or twelve-C of this chapter shall not serve to reduce the calculation of points or the reduction of an insurance premium pursuant to section twenty-three hundred thirty-six of the insurance law on a person's driving record for the purposes of this section.
- Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, commencing April first, two thousand six and ending March thirty-first, thousand fourteen, in each year, the first forty million seven hundred thousand dollars of fees collected pursuant to this subdivision and section eleven hundred ninety-nine of this chapter, in the aggregate, shall be paid to the state comptroller who shall deposit such money in the state treasury pursuant to section one hundred twenty-one of the state finance law to the credit of the general fund. Any such fees collected in excess of such amount shall be paid to the credit of the comptroller on account of the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund established pursuant to section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law. Commencing April first, two thousand fourteen and for each such fiscal year thereafter, any such fees collected pursuant to this subdivision and section eleven hundred ninety-nine of this chapter shall be paid to the credit of the comptroller on account of the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund established pursuant to section eighty-nine-b of the state finance law.
- § 3. Subsection (a) of section 2336 of the insurance law, as amended by chapter 751 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) Any schedule of rates or rating plan for motor vehicle liability and collision insurance submitted to the superintendent shall provide for an appropriate reduction in premium charges for any insured for a three year period after successfully completing a motor vehicle accident prevention course, known as the national safety council's defensive driving course, or any driver improvement course approved by the department of motor vehicles as being equivalent to the national safety council's defensive driving course, provided that, except as provided in article twelve-C of the vehicle and traffic law, there shall be no reduction in premiums for a self instruction defensive driving course or course which does not provide for actual classroom instruction for a minimum number of hours as determined by the department of motor vehicles. Such reduction in premium charges shall be subsequently modified to the extent appropriate, based upon analysis of loss experience statistics and other relevant factors. All such accident prevention courses shall be monitored by the department of motor vehicles and shall include components of instruction in "Road Rage" awareness and in Zone Safety" awareness as defined by the commissioner of motor vehicles. The provisions of this section shall not apply to a motor vehicle accident prevention course completed pursuant to section five hundred three or eleven hundred ninety-nine of the vehicle and traffic law or attendance at a program pursuant to article twenty-one of the vehicle and traffic law as a result of any traffic infraction.
- § 4. Subsection (a) of section 2336 of the insurance law, as amended by chapter 585 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) Any schedule of rates or rating plan for motor vehicle liability and collision insurance submitted to the superintendent shall provide for an appropriate reduction in premium charges for any insured for a
