AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a credit against income tax for the rehabilitation of distressed residential properties

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new 2 subsection (ccc) to read as follows:
- 3 (ccc) Credit for rehabilitation of distressed residential properties.
  4 (1) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand
  5 seventeen, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided,
  6 against the tax imposed by this article, in an amount equal to thirty
  7 percent of the qualified rehabilitation expenditures made by the taxpay-
- 7 percent of the qualified rehabilitation expenditures made by the taxpay-8 er with respect to a qualified distressed residential property.
- 9 Provided, however, the credit shall not exceed one hundred thousand 10 dollars.
- 12 (2) Tax credits allowed pursuant to this subsection shall be allowed
  12 in the taxable year in which the property is deemed a certified rehabil-
  13 itation.
- 14 (3) If the amount of the credit allowable under this subsection for 15 any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the 16 excess may be carried over to the following year or years, and may be 17 applied against the taxpayer's tax for such year or years.
- 18 (4) (A) The term "qualified rehabilitation expenditure" means, for 19 purposes of this subsection, any amount properly chargeable to a capital 20 account:

(i) in connection with the certified rehabilitation of a qualified 1 2 distressed residential property, and

- 3 (ii) for property for which depreciation would be allowable under 4 section 168 of the internal revenue code.
- 5 (B) Such term shall not include (i) the cost of acquiring any building 6 or interest therein, (ii) any expenditure attributable to the enlarge-7 ment of an existing building, or (iii) any expenditure made prior to 8 January first, two thousand seventeen or after December thirty-first, 9 two thousand twenty-two.
- (5) The term "certified rehabilitation" means, for purposes of 10 11 distressed residential property in this subsection, any rehabilitation of a certified distressed residential property which has been approved 12 13 and certified by a local government as being completed, with a certif-14 icate of occupancy issued, and that the costs are consistent with the work completed. Such certification shall be acceptable as proof that the 15 16 expenditures related to such rehabilitation qualify as qualified rehabilitation expenditures for purposes of the credit allowed under para-17 18 graph one of this subsection.
- 19 (6) (A) The term "qualified residential property" means, for purposes 20 of this subsection, a distressed residential property located within New 21 York state:
  - (i) which has been substantially rehabilitated,
- 23 (ii) which was constructed prior to January first, nineteen hundred 24 sixty-two,
  - (iii) which is owned by the taxpayer, and

- (iv) which is located within a distressed residential or mixed-use area, as identified by each locality through local law, that is deemed an area in need of community renewal due to dilapidation and vacancies.
- 29 (B) If the distressed residential property is rental property, such 30 property shall have been vacant for at least six months while actively 31 marketed for lease.
- 32 (C) A building shall be treated as having been "substantially rehabil-33 itated" if the qualified rehabilitation expenditures in relation to such 34 building total ten thousand dollars or more.
- (7) (A) If the taxpayer disposes of such taxpayer's interest in the qualified distressed residential property, or such property ceases to be used as a residential property of the taxpayer within five years of receiving the credit under this subsection, the taxpayer's tax imposed by this article for the taxable year in which such disposition or cessation occurs shall be increased by the recapture portion of the credit 40 41 allowed under this subsection for all prior taxable years with respect to such rehabilitation.
- (B) For purposes of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the recapture 43 portion shall be the product of the amount of credit claimed by the 44 45 taxpayer multiplied by a ratio, the numerator of which is equal to sixty 46 less the number of months the building is owned or used as residential property by the taxpayer and the denominator of which is sixty. 47
- (8) Any expenditure for which a credit is claimed under this 48 49 subsection shall not be eligible for any other credit under this chap-50
- 51 § 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 52 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliv) to read as 53 follows:
