Introduced by M. of A. LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to a rebuttable presumption to custodial interference in the first degree

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 135.50 of the penal law is amended by adding a new second undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

There shall be a rebuttable presumption under subdivision one of this section that a person acts with intent to permanently remove the victim from this state when the person removes the victim from the state for a continuous period for thirty days or more.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
