Introduced by M. of A. WEPRIN -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. COOK, MALLIOTAKIS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to fees charged by certain fire departments for motor vehicle fires and accidents

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 159-d to read as follows:

§ 159-d. Approval for fees. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no fire department located in a city with a population of one million or more shall charge a fee for services provided in response to a motor vehicle fire or motor vehicle accident unless such fire department obtains approval from the office of fire prevention and control to charge such fee. Such approval shall be obtained by application to such office in a manner and form prescribed by such office.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date is authorized to be made on or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
