42 programs, or child day care centers required to be registered without 43 obtaining such registration.

44 (iii) In addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided by 45 law, the office of children and family services shall have the power to 46 assess civil penalties in accordance with its regulations adopted pursu-47 ant to this subdivision after a hearing conducted in accordance with 48 procedures established by regulations of the office of children and 49 family services. Such procedures shall require that notice of the time 50 and place of the hearing, together with a statement of charges of 51 violations, shall be served in person or by certified mail addressed to 52 the school age child care program, group family day care home, family 53 day care home, or child day care center at least thirty days prior to 54 the date of the hearing. The statement of charges shall set forth the 55 existence of the violation or violations, the amount of penalty for 56 which the program may become liable, the steps which must be taken to

3 charges of violations shall be filed with the office of children and 4 family services not less than ten days prior to the date of hearing with 5 respect to each of the charges and shall include all material and rele-

19 as provided in paragraph (c) of this subdivision.

20 (b)(i) In assessing penalties pursuant to this subdivision, the office

23 mitigating factors.

24 (ii) Upon the request of the office of children and family services, 25 the attorney general shall commence an action in any court of competent 26 jurisdiction against any child day care program subject to the 31 accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

32 (iii) Any such penalty assessed by the office of children and family 33 services may be released or compromised by the office of children and 34 family services before the matter has been referred to the attorney
35 general; when such matter has been referred to the attorney general, 36 such penalty may be released or compromised and any action commenced to 37 recover the same may be settled and discontinued by the attorney general 38 with the consent of the office of children and family services.

39 (c)(i) Except as provided for in this paragraph, a child day care
40 provider shall avoid payment of a penalty imposed pursuant to this 41 subdivision where the provider has rectified the condition which 42 resulted in the imposition of the penalty within thirty days of notifi-
43 cation of the existence of the violation of statute or regulation.

44 (ii) ~~Clause~~ Subparagraph (i) of this paragraph notwithstanding, 45 rectification shall not preclude the imposition of a penalty pursuant to 46 this subdivision where:

47 (A) the child day care provider has operated a child day care center
48 or group family day care home without a license, has refused to seek a 49 license for the operation of such a center or home, or has continued to

52 (B) the child day care provider has operated a family day care home, 53 school-age child care program or child day care center required to be 54 registered without being registered, has refused to seek registration

30 (e)(i) The office of children and family services shall deny a new 31 application for licensure or registration made by a day care provider 32 whose license or registration was previously revoked or terminated based 33 on a violation of statute or regulation for a period of two years from 34 the date that the revocation or termination of the license or registra-35 tion became finally effective, unless such office determines, in its 36 discretion, that approval of the application will not in any way jeop-
37 ardize the health, safety or welfare of children in the center, program
38 or home. For the purposes of this paragraph, the date that the revoca-
39 tion or termination became finally effective shall be, as applicable:

40 (A) the date that the revocation or termination became effective based 41 on the notice of revocation or termination;

42 (B) the date that the hearing decision was issued upholding the revo-
43 cation or termination;

44 (C) the date of issuance of a final court order affirming the revoca-

53 program without a license or registration for a period of two years from 54 the date of the court order unless the court order specifically enjoins
55 the provider from providing day care for a period longer than two years,

1 in which case the office shall deny any new application made by the 2 provider while the provider is so enjoined.

3 (B) Such office shall deny a new application for licensure or regis-

12 of such office to impose the second fine, as applicable.

13 (iii) A day care provider who surrenders the provider's license or 14 registration while such office is engaged in enforcement seeking suspen-
