IN ASSEMBLY

February 6, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. MAGEE, LUPARDO, DiPIETRO, SKOUFIS, FRIEND -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to promoting economic development by expanding products sold by farm cideries and authorizing such cideries to sell cider to other licensees for resale

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 3-a of section 58 of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by chapter 384 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

3-a. A licensed cider producer producing New York state labelled cider may:

(a) sell such cider or any New York state labeled cider to licensed farm distillers, farm wineries, wineries, farm cideries [~~and~~], cideries and farm breweries. All such cider sold by the licensee shall be securely sealed and have attached thereto a label as shall be required by section one hundred seven-a of this chapter;

(b) conduct tastings at the licensed premises of such cider or any New York state labeled cider;

(c) sell such cider or any New York state labeled cider at retail for consumption off the premises at the state fair, at recognized county fairs and at farmers markets operated on a not-for-profit basis;

(d) sell and conduct tastings of such cider or any New York state labeled cider at retail for consumption on the premises of a restaurant, conference center, inn, bed and breakfast or hotel business owned and operated by the licensee in or adjacent to its farm cidery. A licensee who operates a restaurant, conference center, inn, bed and breakfast or hotel pursuant to such authority shall comply with all applicable provisions of this chapter which relate to licenses to sell cider at retail for consumption on the premises;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

(e) apply for a permit to conduct tastings away from the licensed premises of such cider or any New York state labeled cider. Such permit shall be valid throughout the state and may be issued on an annual basis or for individual events. Each such permit and the exercise of the privilege granted thereby shall be subject to such rules and conditions of the authority as it deems necessary. Tastings shall be conducted subject to the following conditions:

(i) tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, representative or solicitor of the licensee. Such agent, representative or solicitor shall be physically present at all times during the conduct of the tastings; and

(ii) any liability stemming from a right of action resulting from a tasting of cider as authorized ~~[herein]~~ in this paragraph and in accordance with the provisions of sections 11-100 and 11-101 of the general obligations law, shall accrue to the licensee.

(f) if it holds a tasting permit issued pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subdivision, apply to the authority for a permit to sell such cider or any New York state labeled cider, for consumption off the premises, during such tastings in premises licensed under sections sixty-four, sixty-four-a, eighty-one and eighty-one-a of this chapter. Each such permit and the exercise of the privilege granted thereby shall be subject to such rules and conditions of the authority as it deems necessary.

§ 2. Paragraphs (c) and (g) of subdivision 2 of section 58-c of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by chapter 384 of the laws of 2013, are amended to read as follows:

(c) sell cider manufactured by the licensee or any New York state labeled cider to wholesalers and retailers licensed in this state to sell such cider, to licensed farm distillers, licensed farm wineries, licensed wineries, licensed farm breweries, and any other licensed farm cidery or licensed cidery. All such cider sold by the licensee shall be securely sealed and have attached thereto a label as shall be required by section one hundred seven-a of this chapter;

(g) sell cider manufactured by the licensee or any other licensed farm cidery, or any New York state labeled cider at retail for consumption off the premises, at the state fair, at recognized county fairs and at farmers markets operated on a not-for-profit basis;

§ 3. Subdivision 5 of section 58-c of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by chapter 384 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

5. A licensed farm cidery may, under such rules as may be adopted by the authority, sell cider manufactured by the licensee or any other licensed farm cidery, or any New York state labeled cider at retail in bulk by the keg, cask or barrel for consumption and not for resale at a clam-bake, barbeque, picnic, outing or other similar outdoor gathering at which more than fifty persons are assembled.

§ 4. Paragraphs (b) and (e) of subdivision 7 of section 58-c of the alcoholic beverage control law, as added by chapter 384 of the laws of 2013, are amended to read as follows:

(b) food items for the purpose of complementing cider tastings, which shall mean a diversified selection of food that is ordinarily consumed without the use of tableware and can be conveniently consumed while standing or walking. Such food items shall include but not be limited to: cheeses, fruits, vegetables, chocolates, breads, baked goods, mustards and crackers;

(e) cider-making equipment and supplies including, but not limited to, apples, apple juice, other pome fruits, other pome fruit juices, home cider-making kits, presses, pumps, filters, yeasts, chemicals and other cider additives, bottling equipment, bottles, cider storage and fermenting vessels, barrels, and books or other written material to assist cider-makers and home cider-makers to produce and bottle cider;

§ 5. Subdivision 2 of section 76 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended by adding a new paragraph (d-1) to read as follows:

(d-1) to sell from the licensed premises to licensed farm distillers, farm wineries, wineries, farm cideries, cideries and farm brewers any New York state labeled cider. All such cider shall be securely sealed and have attached thereto a label as shall be required by section one hundred seven-a of this chapter;

§ 6. Subdivisions 3, 4 and 5 of section 76 of the alcoholic beverage control law, subdivisions 3 and 5 as amended by chapter 221 of the laws of 2011 and subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 431 of the laws of 2014, are amended to read as follows:

3. (a) Any person having applied for and received a license as a winery under this section may conduct wine and cider tastings of New York state labelled wines or ciders in establishments licensed under sections sixty-three and seventy-nine of this chapter to sell wine for off-premises consumption. Such winery may charge a fee for each wine or cider sample tasted. The state liquor authority shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding such tastings as provided for in this subdivision.

(a-1) Any person having applied for and received a license as a winery under this section may conduct wine and cider tastings of New York state labelled wines or ciders and apply to the liquor authority for a permit to sell wine produced by such winery or any New York state labeled cider by the bottle, during such tastings in establishments licensed under section sixty-four, section sixty-four-a, section eighty-one or section eighty-one-a of this chapter to sell wine for consumption on the premises. Such winery may charge a fee of no more than twenty-five cents for each wine or cider sample tasted. The state liquor authority shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding such tastings as provided for in this subdivision.

(b) Tastings shall be conducted subject to the following limitations:

(i) wine and cider tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, representative or solicitor of one or more wineries. Such agent, representative or solicitor shall be physically present at all times during the conduct of the tastings; and

(ii) any liability stemming from a right of action resulting from a wine or cider tasting as authorized herein and in accordance with the provisions of sections 11-100 and 11-101 of the general obligations law, shall accrue to the winery licensee.

(c)(i) Any person having applied for and received a license as a winery under this section may conduct wine and cider tastings of New York state labelled wines or ciders and sell such wine or cider by the bottle, during such tasting, for off-premises consumption at outdoor or indoor gatherings, functions, occasions or events, within the hours fixed by or pursuant to subdivision fourteen of section one hundred five of this chapter, sponsored by a bona fide charitable organization. For the purposes of this paragraph, a bona fide charitable organization shall mean and include any bona fide religious or charitable organization or bona fide educational, fraternal or service organization or bona fide organization of veterans or volunteer firefighters, which by its

1 charter, certificate of incorporation, constitution, or act of the 2 legislature, shall have among its dominant purposes one or more of the 3 lawful purposes as defined in subdivision five of section one hundred 4 eighty-six of the general municipal law.

5 (ii) Upon application, the liquor authority shall issue an annual 6 permit authorizing such winery to participate in outdoor or indoor gath-7 erings, functions, occasions or events sponsored by a charitable organ-8 ization. The winery must give the authority written or electronic 9 notice of the date, time and specific location of each tasting at least 10 fifteen days prior to the tasting. A winery that obtains a permit to 11 conduct such wine or cider tastings does not need to apply for or obtain 12 a temporary beer or wine permit pursuant to section ninety-seven of this 13 chapter or any other permit to conduct such a tasting or to sell wine or 14 cider by the bottle for off-premises consumption at such tastings.

15 (iii) Such winery may charge a fee for each wine or cider sample tast-16 ed. Tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, representative or 17 solicitor of such winery. The state liquor authority may promulgate 18 rules and regulations regarding such tastings as provided for in this 19 subdivision.

20 4. A licensed winery may at the licensed premises, conduct tastings 21 of, and sell at retail for consumption on or off the licensed premises, 22 any wine or wine product manufactured by the licensee or any New York 23 state labeled wine or New York state labeled wine product or any New 24 York state labeled cider. Provided, however, for tastings and sales for 25 on-premises consumption, the licensee shall regularly keep food avail-26 able for sale or service to its retail customers for consumption on the 27 premises. A licensee providing the following shall be deemed in compli-28 ance with this provision: (i) sandwiches, soups or other such foods, 29 whether fresh, processed, pre-cooked or frozen; and/or (ii) food items 30 intended to complement the tasting of alcoholic beverages, which shall 31 mean a diversified selection of food that is ordinarily consumed without 32 the use of tableware and can be conveniently consumed while standing or 33 walking, including but not limited to: cheeses, fruits, vegetables, 34 chocolates, breads, mustards and crackers. All of the provisions of this 35 chapter relative to licenses to sell wine at retail for consumption on 36 or off the premises shall apply so far as applicable to such licensee.

37 5. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, any 38 one or more winery licensees, singly or jointly, may apply to the liquor 39 authority for a license or licenses to sell wine and any New York state 40 labeled cider at retail for consumption off the premises. For licensees 41 applying singly, the duration of such license shall be coextensive with 42 the duration of such licensee's winery license, and the fee therefor 43 shall be five hundred dollars if such retail premises is located in 44 cities having a population of one million or more; in cities having less 45 than one million population and more than one hundred thousand, two 46 hundred fifty dollars; and elsewhere, the sum of one hundred twenty-five 47 dollars. Such license shall entitle the holder thereof to sell at retail 48 for consumption off the premises any New York state labelled wine or 49 cider. Such license shall also entitle the holder thereof to conduct 50 wine and cider tastings. Such license shall also authorize the sale by 51 the holder thereof of New York state labelled wine or cider, in sealed 52 containers for off-premises consumption, from the specially licensed 53 premises of any person licensed pursuant to section eighty-one-a of this 54 article to sell wine at retail for consumption on premises in which the 55 principal business is the operation of a legitimate theater or such 56 other lawful adult entertainment or recreational facility as the liquor

1 authority may classify for eligibility pursuant to subdivision six of 2 section sixty-four-a of this chapter. Not more than five such licenses 3 shall be issued, either singly or jointly, to any licensed winery. All 4 other provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell wine at 5 retail for consumption off the premises shall apply so far as applicable 6 to such application. The liquor authority is hereby authorized to adopt 7 such rules as it may deem necessary to carry out the purpose of this 8 subdivision, provided that all licenses issued pursuant to this subdivi-9 sion shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as are applica-10 ble to the sale of wine at retail for consumption off the premises of 11 the winery licensee.

12 § 7. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 76-a of the alcoholic beverage 13 control law, as added by chapter 221 of the laws of 2011, paragraph (c) 14 of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 384 of the laws of 2013, para-15 graph (e) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 328 of the laws of 16 2016, paragraph (f) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 431 of the 17 laws of 2014, are amended to read as follows:

18 2. A farm winery license shall authorize the holder thereof to:

19 (a) operate a farm winery for the manufacture of wine or cider at the 20 premises specifically designated in the license;

21 (b) sell in bulk from the licensed premises the products manufactured 22 under such license or any New York state labeled cider to any winery 23 licensee, any other farm winery licensee, any distiller licensee or to a 24 permittee engaged in the manufacture of products which are unfit for 25 beverage use and to sell or deliver such wine or cider to persons 26 outside the state pursuant to the laws of the place of such sale or 27 delivery;

28 (c) sell from the licensed premises to a licensed winery, farm distil-29 ler, farm brewery, farm cidery, wholesaler or retailer, or to a corpo-30 ration operating railroad cars or aircraft for consumption on such 31 carriers, or at retail for consumption off the premises, wine or cider 32 manufactured by the licensee or any New York state labeled cider as 33 above set forth and to sell or deliver such wine or cider to persons 34 outside the state pursuant to the laws of the place of such sale or 35 delivery. All wine or cider sold by such licensee for consumption off 36 the premises shall be securely sealed and have attached thereto a label 37 setting forth such information as shall be required by this chapter;

38 (d) operate, or use the services of, a custom crush facility as 39 defined in subdivision nine-a of section three of this chapter;

40 (e) sell at the licensed premises cider and wine manufactured by the 41 licensee or any other licensed farm winery, and beer and spirits manu-42 factured by any licensed farm brewery or farm distillery, at retail for 43 consumption on or off the licensed premises;

44 (f) operate a restaurant, hotel, catering establishment, or other food 45 and drinking establishment in or adjacent to the licensed premises and 46 sell at such place, at retail for consumption on the premises, wine, 47 cider and wine products manufactured by the licensee and any New York 48 state labeled wine, New York state labeled cider or New York state 49 labeled wine product. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to 50 licenses to sell wine at retail for consumption on the premises shall 51 apply so far as applicable to such licensee. Notwithstanding any other 52 provision of law, the licensed winery may apply to the authority for a 53 license under article four of this chapter to sell other alcoholic 54 beverages at retail for consumption on the premises at such establish-55 ment.

3. (a) Any person having applied for and received a license as a farm winery under this section may conduct wine and cider tastings of New York state labelled wines and ciders in establishments licensed under section sixty-three of this chapter and section seventy-nine of this article to sell wine or any New York state labeled cider for off-premises consumption. Such farm winery may charge a fee for each wine or cider sample tasted. The state liquor authority shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding such tastings as provided for in this subdivision.

(b) Any person having applied for and received a license as a farm winery under this section may conduct wine and cider tastings of New York state labelled wines and ciders and apply to the liquor authority for a permit to sell wine produced by such farm winery or any New York state labeled cider, by the bottle, during such tastings in establishments licensed under sections sixty-four and sixty-four-a of this chapter and section eighty-one or section eighty-one-a of this article to sell wine for consumption on the premises. Such farm winery may charge a fee of no more than twenty-five cents for each wine or cider sample tasted. The state liquor authority shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding such tastings as provided for in this subdivision.

(c) Tastings shall be conducted subject to the following limitations:

(i) wine or cider tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, representative or solicitor of one or more farm wineries. Such agent, representative or solicitor shall be physically present at all times during the conduct of the tastings; and

(ii) any liability stemming from a right of action resulting from a wine tasting as authorized herein and in accordance with the provisions of sections 11-100 and 11-101 of the general obligations law, shall accrue to the farm winery.

(d) (i) Any person having applied for and received a license as a farm winery under this section may conduct wine and cider tastings of New York state labelled wines and ciders and sell such wine or cider by the bottle, during such tasting, for off-premises consumption at outdoor or indoor gatherings, functions, occasions or events, within the hours fixed by or pursuant to subdivision fourteen of section one hundred five of this chapter, sponsored by a bona fide charitable organization. For the purposes of this paragraph, a bona fide charitable organization shall mean and include any bona fide religious or charitable organization or bona fide educational, fraternal or service organization or bona fide organization of veterans or volunteer firefighters, which by its charter, certificate of incorporation, constitution, or act of the legislature, shall have among its dominant purposes one or more of the lawful purposes as defined in subdivision five of section one hundred eighty-six of the general municipal law.

(ii) Upon application, the liquor authority shall issue an annual permit authorizing such farm winery to participate in such outdoor or indoor gatherings, functions, occasions or events sponsored by a charitable organization. The farm winery must give the authority written or electronic notice of the date, time and specific location of each tasting at least fifteen days prior to the tasting. A farm winery that obtains a permit to conduct such wine or cider tastings does not need to apply for or obtain a temporary beer or wine permit pursuant to section ninety-seven of this chapter or any other permit to conduct such a tasting or to sell wine or cider by the bottle for off-premises consumption at such tastings.

(iii) Such farm winery may charge a fee for each wine or cider sample tasted. Tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, represen-

1 tative or solicitor of such farm winery. The state liquor authority may 2 adopt rules and regulations regarding such tastings as provided in this 3 subdivision.

4 § 8. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 7-b of section 3 of the alcoholic 5 beverage control law, as amended by chapter 384 of the laws of 2013, is 6 amended to read as follows:

7 (a) "Cider" means the partially or fully fermented juice of fresh, 8 whole apples or other pome fruits, containing more than three and two-9 tenths per centum but not more than eight and one-half per centum alco-10 hol by volume: (i) to which nothing has been added to increase the alco-11 holic content produced by natural fermentation; and (ii) with the usual 12 cellar treatments and necessary additions to correct defects due to 13 climate, [~~saccharine~~] sugar levels and seasonal conditions. Nothing 14 contained in this subdivision shall be deemed to preclude the use of 15 such methods or materials as may be necessary to encourage a normal 16 alcoholic fermentation and to make a product that is free of microbi-17 ological activity at the time of sale. Cider may be sweetened or 18 flavored after fermentation with fruit juice, fruit juice concentrate, 19 sugar, maple syrup, honey, spices or other agricultural products, sepa-20 rately or in combination. Cider may contain retained or added carbon 21 dioxide.

22 § 9. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 23 it shall have become a law; provided, however, that effective immediate-24 ly, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation 25 necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are 26 authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such 27 effective date.
