1 § 499-a. Establishment of commission. A state commission of prosecuto-2 rial conduct is hereby established. The commission shall have the 3 authority to review the conduct of prosecutors upon the filing of a 4 complaint with the commission to determine whether said conduct as 5 alleged departs from the applicable statutes, case law, New York Rules 6 of Professional Conduct, 22 NYCRR 1200, including but not limited to 7 Rule 3.8 (Special Responsibilities of Prosecutors and Other Government 8 Lawyers).

9 § 499-b. Definitions. For the purposes of this article the following 10 terms have the following meanings:

11 1. "Commission" means the state commission on prosecutorial conduct.

12 2. "Prosecutor" means a district attorney or any assistant district 13 attorney of any county of the state, and the attorney general or any 14 assistant attorney general of the state, in an action to exact any crim-15 inal penalty, fine, sanction or forfeiture.

16 3. "Hearing" means a proceeding under subdivision four of section four 17 hundred ninety-nine-f of this article.

18 4. "Member of the bar" means a person admitted to the practice of law 19 in this state for at least five years.

20 § 499-c. State commission on prosecutorial conduct; organization. 1.
21 The commission shall consist of eleven members, of whom two shall be 22 appointed by the governor, two by the temporary president of the senate, 23 one by the minority leader of the senate, two by the speaker of the 24 assembly, one by the minority leader of the assembly and three by the 25 chief judge of the court of appeals. Of the members appointed by the 26 governor one shall be a public defender and one shall be a prosecutor.
27 Of the members appointed by the chief judge one person shall be a 28 justice of the appellate division of the supreme court and two shall be 29 judges of courts other than the court of appeals or appellate division.
30 Of the members appointed by the legislative leaders, there shall be an 31 equal number of prosecutors and attorneys providing defense services; 32 provided, however, that a temporary imbalance in the number of prosecu-33 tors and defense attorneys pending new appointments shall not prevent 34 the commission from conducting business.

35 2. Membership on the commission by a prosecutor shall not constitute 36 the holding of a public office and no prosecutor shall be required to 37 take and file an oath of office before serving on the commission. The 38 members of the commission shall elect one of their number to serve as 39 chairman during his or her term of office or for a period of two years, 40 whichever is shorter.

41 3. The persons first appointed by the governor shall have respectively 42 three and four year terms as he or she shall designate. The persons 43 first appointed by the chief judge of the court of appeals shall have 44 respectively two, three and four year terms as he or she shall desig-45 nate. The persons first appointed by the temporary president of the 46 senate shall have respectively three and four year terms as he or she 47 shall designate. The person first appointed by the minority leader of 48 the senate shall have a two year term. The persons first appointed by 49 the speaker of the assembly shall have respectively three and four year 50 terms as he or she shall designate. The person first appointed by the 51 minority leader of the assembly shall have a three year term. Each 52 member of the commission shall be appointed thereafter for a term of 53 four years. Commission membership of a judge or justice appointed by the 54 governor or the chief judge shall terminate if such member ceases to 55 hold the judicial position which qualified him or her for such appoint-56 ment. Membership shall also terminate if a member attains a position

1 which would have rendered him or her ineligible for appointment at the 2 time of his or her appointment. A vacancy shall be filled by the 3 appointing officer for the remainder of the term.

4 4. If a member of the commission who is a prosecutor is the subject of 5 a complaint or investigation with respect to his or her qualifications, 6 conduct, fitness to perform or performance of his or her official 7 duties, he or she shall be disqualified from participating in any and 8 all proceedings with respect thereto. If a member of the commission is 9 employed in the same organization as the subject of a complaint or 10 investigation with respect to his or her qualifications, conduct, 11 fitness to perform, or performance of his or her official duties, he or 12 she shall be disqualified from participating in any and all proceedings 13 with respect thereto.

14 5. Each member of the commission shall serve without salary or other 15 compensation, but shall be entitled to receive actual and necessary 16 expenses incurred in the discharge of his or her duties.

17 6. For any action taken pursuant to subdivisions four through nine of 18 section four hundred ninety-nine-f or subdivision two of section four 19 hundred ninety-nine-e of this article, eight members of the commission 20 shall constitute a quorum of the commission and the concurrence of six 21 members of the commission shall be necessary. Two members of a three 22 member panel of the commission shall constitute a quorum of the panel 23 and the concurrence of two members of the panel shall be necessary for 24 any action taken.

25 7. The commission shall appoint and at pleasure may remove an adminis-26 trator who shall be a member of the bar who is not a prosecutor or 27 retired prosecutor. The administrator of the commission may appoint such 28 deputies, assistants, counsel, investigators and other officers and 29 employees as he or she may deem necessary, prescribe their powers and 30 duties, fix their compensation and provide for reimbursement of their 31 expenses within the amounts appropriated therefor.

32 § 499-d. Functions; powers and duties. The commission shall have the 33 following functions, powers and duties:

34 1. To conduct hearings and investigations, administer oaths or affir-35 mations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, examine them under 36 oath or affirmation and require the production of any books, records, 37 documents or other evidence that it may deem relevant or material to an 38 investigation; and the commission may designate any of its members or 39 any member of its staff to exercise any such powers, provided, however, 40 that except as is otherwise provided in section four hundred ninety-41 nine-e of this article, only a member of the commission or the adminis-42 trator shall exercise the power to subpoena witnesses or require the 43 production of books, records, documents or other evidence. The prose-44 cuting agency may inform the commission of its position that the commis-45 sion's investigations will substantially interfere with the agency's own 46 investigation or prosecution. If the prosecuting agency, by affirmation 47 with specificity and particularity, informs the commission of its basis 48 for that position, the commission shall only exercise its powers in a 49 way that will not interfere with an agency's active investigation or 50 prosecution.

51 2. To confer immunity when the commission deems it necessary and prop-52 er in accordance with section 50.20 of the criminal procedure law; 53 provided, however, that at least forty-eight hours prior written notice 54 of the commission's intention to confer such immunity is given the 55 attorney general and the appropriate district attorney.

1 3. To request and receive from any court, department, division, board, 2 bureau, commission, or other agency of the state or political subdivi-3 sion thereof or any public authority such assistance, information and 4 data as will enable it properly to carry out its functions, powers and 5 duties.

6 4. To report annually, on or before the first day of March in each 7 year and at such other times as the commission shall deem necessary, to 8 the governor, the legislature and the chief judge of the court of 9 appeals, with respect to proceedings which have been finally determined 10 by the commission. Such reports may include legislative and administra-
11 tive recommendations. The contents of the annual report and any other 12 report shall conform to the provisions of this article relating to 13 confidentiality.

14 5. To adopt, promulgate, amend and rescind rules and procedures, not 15 otherwise inconsistent with law, necessary to carry out the provisions 16 and purposes of this article. All such rules and procedures shall be 17 filed in the offices of the chief administrator of the courts and the 18 secretary of state.

19 6. To do all other things necessary and convenient to carry out its 20 functions, powers and duties expressly set forth in this article.

21 § 499-e. Panels; referees. 1. The commission may delegate any of its 22 functions, powers and duties to a panel of three of its members, one of 23 whom shall be a member of the bar, except that no panel shall confer 24 immunity in accordance with section 50.20 of the criminal procedure law.
25 No panel shall be authorized to take any action pursuant to subdivisions 26 four through nine of section four hundred ninety-nine-f of this article 27 or subdivision two of this section.

28 2. The commission may designate a member of the bar who is not a 29 prosecutor or a member of the commission or its staff as a referee to 30 hear and report to the commission in accordance with the provisions of 31 section four hundred ninety-nine-f of this article. Such referee shall 32 be empowered to conduct hearings, administer oaths or affirmations, 33 subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, examine them under oath or 34 affirmation and require the production of any books, records, documents 35 or other evidence that the referee may deem relevant or material to the 36 subject of the hearing.

37 § 499-f. Complaint; investigation; hearing and disposition. 1. The 38 commission shall receive, initiate, investigate and hear complaints with 39 respect to the conduct, qualifications, fitness to perform, or perform-40 ance of official duties of any prosecutor, and may determine that a 41 prosecutor be admonished, or censured; and make a recommendation to the 42 governor that a prosecutor be removed from office for cause, for, 43 including, but not limited to, misconduct in office, as evidenced by his 44 or her departure from his or her obligations under appropriate statute, 45 case law, and/or New York Rules of Professional Conduct, 22 NYCRR 1200, 46 including but not limited to Rule 3.8 (Special Responsibilities of 47 Prosecutors and Other Government Lawyers), persistent failure to perform 48 his or her duties, habitual intemperance and conduct, in and outside of 49 his or her office, prejudicial to the administration of justice, or that 50 a prosecutor be retired for mental or physical disability preventing the 51 proper performance of his or her prosecutorial duties. A complaint shall 52 be in writing and signed by the complainant and, if directed by the 53 commission, shall be verified. Upon receipt of a complaint (a) the 54 commission shall conduct an investigation of the complaint; or (b) the 55 commission may dismiss the complaint if it determines that the complaint 56 on its face lacks merit. If the complaint is dismissed, the commission

1 shall so notify the complainant. If the commission shall have notified 2 the prosecutor of the complaint, the commission shall also notify the 3 prosecutor of such dismissal. Pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision 4 four of section ninety of this chapter, any person being an attorney and 5 counselor-at-law who shall be convicted of a felony as defined in para-6 graph e of subdivision four of section ninety of this chapter, shall 7 upon such conviction, cease to be any attorney and counselor-at-law, or 8 to be competent to practice law as such.

9 2. The commission may, on its own motion, initiate an investigation of 10 a prosecutor with respect to his or her qualifications, conduct, fitness 11 to perform or the performance of his or her official duties. Prior to 12 initiating any such investigation, the commission shall file as part of 13 its record a written complaint, signed by the administrator of the 14 commission, which complaint shall serve as the basis for such investi-15 gation.

16 3. In the course of an investigation, the commission may require the 17 appearance of the prosecutor involved before it, in which event the 18 prosecutor shall be notified in writing of his or her required appear-19 ance, either personally, at least three days prior to such appearance, 20 or by certified mail, return receipt requested, at least five days prior 21 to such appearance. In either case a copy of the complaint shall be 22 served upon the prosecutor at the time of such notification. The prose-23 cutor shall have the right to be represented by counsel during any and 24 all stages of the investigation in which his or her appearance is 25 required and to present evidentiary data and material relevant to the 26 complaint. A transcript shall be made and kept with respect to all 27 proceedings at which testimony or statements under oath of any party or 28 witness shall be taken, and the transcript of the prosecutor's testimony 29 shall be made available to the prosecutor without cost. Such transcript 30 shall be confidential except as otherwise permitted by section four 31 hundred ninety-nine-g of this article.

32 4. If in the course of an investigation, the commission determines 33 that a hearing is warranted it shall direct that a formal written 34 complaint signed and verified by the administrator be drawn and served 35 upon the prosecutor involved, either personally or by certified mail, 36 return receipt requested. The prosecutor shall file a written answer to 37 the complaint with the commission within twenty days of such service.
38 If, upon receipt of the answer, or upon expiration of the time to 39 answer, the commission shall direct that a hearing be held with respect 40 to the complaint, the prosecutor involved shall be notified in writing 41 of the date of the hearing either personally, at least twenty days prior 42 thereto, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, at least twen-43 ty-two days prior thereto. Upon the written request of the prosecutor, 44 the commission shall, at least five days prior to the hearing or any 45 adjourned date thereof, make available to the prosecutor without cost 46 copies of all documents which the commission intends to present at such 47 hearing and any written statements made by witnesses who will be called 48 to give testimony by the commission. The commission shall, in any case, 49 make available to the prosecutor at least five days prior to the hearing 50 or any adjourned date thereof any exculpatory evidentiary data and mate-51 rial relevant to the complaint. The failure of the commission to timely 52 furnish any documents, statements and/or exculpatory evidentiary data 53 and material provided for herein shall not affect the validity of any 54 proceedings before the commission provided that such failure is not 55 substantially prejudicial to the prosecutor. The complainant may be 56 notified of the hearing and unless he or she shall be subpoenaed as a

1 witness by the prosecutor, his or her presence thereat shall be within 2 the discretion of the commission. The hearing shall not be public unless 3 the prosecutor involved shall so demand in writing. At the hearing the 4 commission may take the testimony of witnesses and receive evidentiary 5 data and material relevant to the complaint. The prosecutor shall have 6 the right to be represented by counsel during any and all stages of the 7 hearing and shall have the right to call and cross-examine witnesses and 8 present evidentiary data and material relevant to the complaint. A tran-9 script of the proceedings and of the testimony of witnesses at the hear-10 ing shall be taken and kept with the records of the commission.

11 5. Subject to the approval of the commission, the administrator and 12 the prosecutor may agree on a statement of facts and may stipulate in 13 writing that the hearing shall be waived. In such a case, the commission 14 shall make its determination upon the pleadings and the agreed statement 15 of facts.

16 6. If, after a formal written complaint has been served pursuant to 17 subdivision four of this section, or during the course of or after a 18 hearing, the commission determines that no further action is necessary, 19 the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant and the prosecutor 20 shall be so notified in writing.

21 7. After a hearing, the commission may determine that a prosecutor be 22 admonished or censured, or may recommend to the governor that a prosecu-23 tor be removed from office for cause. The commission shall transmit its 24 written determination, together with its findings of fact and conclu-25 sions of law and the record of the proceedings upon which its determi-26 nation is based, to the chief judge of the court of appeals who shall 27 cause a copy thereof to be served either personally or by certified 28 mail, return receipt requested, on the prosecutor involved. Upon 29 completion of service, the determination of the commission, its findings 30 and conclusions and the record of its proceedings shall be made public 31 and shall be made available for public inspection at the principal 32 office of the commission and at the office of the clerk of the court of 33 appeals. The prosecutor involved may either accept the determination of 34 the commission or make written request to the chief judge, within thirty 35 days after receipt of such determination, for a review thereof by the 36 court of appeals. If the commission has determined that a prosecutor be 37 admonished or censured, and if the prosecutor accepts such determination 38 or fails to request a review thereof by the court of appeals, the 39 commission shall thereupon admonish or censure him or her in accordance 40 with its findings. If the commission has recommended that a prosecutor 41 be removed or retired and the prosecutor accepts such determination or 42 fails to request a review thereof by the court of appeals, the court of 43 appeals shall thereupon transmit the commission's findings to the gover-44 nor who will independently determine whether the prosecutor should be 45 removed or retired. Notwithstanding any provision of this subdivision 46 to the contrary, if the commission has and the court of appeals recom-47 mends that the attorney general be removed, the court of appeals shall 48 transmit the commission's findings and, if any, court of appeals find-49 ings to the governor who may recommend the removal of the attorney 50 general pursuant to section thirty-two of the public officers law.

51 8. If the prosecutor requests a review of the determination of the 52 commission, in its review of a determination of the commission pursuant 53 to the second undesignated paragraph of subdivision b of section three 54 of article six of the state constitution, the court of appeals shall 55 review the commission's findings of fact and conclusions of law on the 56 record of the proceedings upon which the commission's determination was

1 based. After such review, the court may accept or reject the determined 2 sanction; impose a different sanction including admonition or censure, 3 recommend removal or retirement for the reasons set forth in subdivision 4 one of this section; or impose no sanction. However, if the court of 5 appeals recommends removal or retirement, it shall, together with the 6 commission, transmit the entire record to the governor who will inde-7 pendently determine whether a prosecutor should be removed or retired.
8 Notwithstanding any provision of this subdivision to the contrary, if 9 the court of appeals recommends the removal or retirement of the attor-10 ney general, it shall, together with the commission, transmit the entire 11 record to the governor who may recommend the removal of the attorney 12 general pursuant to section thirty-two of the public officers law.

13 9. (a) The court of appeals may suspend a prosecutor from exercising 14 the powers of his or her office while there is pending a determination 15 by the commission for his or her removal or retirement, or while he or 16 she is charged in this state with a felony by an indictment or an infor-17 mation filed pursuant to section six of article one of the constitution.
18 The suspension shall terminate upon conviction of a felony resulting in 19 such prosecutor's disbarment pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision four 20 of section ninety of this chapter. If such conviction becomes final, he 21 or she shall be removed from office provided, however, that if such 22 conviction is of the attorney general, he or she shall be removed from 23 office pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision one of section thirty of 24 the public officers law, if applicable, or may be removed from office
25 pursuant to section thirty-two of such law. The suspension shall be 26 terminated upon reversal of the conviction and dismissal of the accusa-
27 tory instrument.

28 (b) Upon the recommendation of the commission or on its own motion, 29 the court may suspend a prosecutor from office when he or she is charged 30 with a crime punishable as a felony under the laws of this state, or any 31 other crime which involves moral turpitude. The suspension shall termi-32 nate upon conviction of a felony resulting in such prosecutor's disbar-33 ment pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision four of section ninety of 34 this chapter. The suspension shall continue upon conviction of any other 35 crime which involves moral turpitude and, if such conviction becomes 36 final, he or she shall be removed from office provided, however, that if 37 such conviction is of the attorney general, he or she shall be removed 38 from office pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision one of section thirty 39 of the public officers law, if applicable, or may be removed from office
40 pursuant to section thirty-two of such law. The suspension shall be 41 terminated upon reversal of the conviction and dismissal of the accusa-
42 tory instrument.

43 (c) A prosecutor who is suspended from office by the court shall 44 receive his or her salary during such period of suspension, unless the 45 court directs otherwise. If the court has so directed and such suspen-46 sion is thereafter terminated, the court may direct that he or she shall 47 be paid his or her salary for such period of suspension.

48 (d) Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the commission from 49 determining that a prosecutor be admonished or censured or prevent the 50 commission from recommending removal or retirement pursuant to subdivi-51 sion seven of this section.

52 10. If during the course of or after an investigation or hearing, the 53 commission determines that the complaint or any allegation thereof 54 warrants action, other than in accordance with the provisions of subdivi-55 sions seven through nine of this section, within the powers of: (a) a 56 person having administrative jurisdiction over the prosecutor involved

1 in the complaint; or (b) an appellate division of the supreme court; or 2 (c) a presiding justice of an appellate division of the supreme court; 3 or (d) the chief judge of the court of appeals; or (e) the governor 4 pursuant to subdivision (b) of section thirteen of article thirteen of 5 the constitution; or (f) an applicable district attorney's office or 6 other prosecuting agency, the commission shall refer such complaint or 7 the appropriate allegations thereof and any evidence or material related 8 thereto to such person, agency or court for such action as may be deemed 9 proper or necessary.

10 11. The commission shall notify the complainant of its disposition of 11 the complaint.

12 12. In the event of removal from office of any prosecutor, pursuant to 13 subdivision seven or eight or paragraph (a) or (b) of subdivision nine 14 of this section, a vacancy shall exist pursuant to article three of the 15 public officers law.

16 § 499-g. Confidentiality of records. Except as hereinafter provided, 17 all complaints, correspondence, commission proceedings and transcripts 18 thereof, other papers and data and records of the commission shall be 19 confidential and shall not be made available to any person except pursu-20 ant to section four hundred ninety-nine-f of this article. The commis-21 sion and its designated staff personnel shall have access to confiden-22 tial material in the performance of their powers and duties. If the 23 prosecutor who is the subject of a complaint so requests in writing, 24 copies of the complaint, the transcripts of hearings by the commission 25 thereon, if any, and the dispositive action of the commission with 26 respect to the complaint, such copies with any reference to the identity 27 of any person who did not participate at any such hearing suitably 28 deleted therefrom, except the subject prosecutor or complainant, shall 29 be made available for inspection and copying to the public, or to any 30 person, agency or body designated by such prosecutor.

31 § 499-h. Breach of confidentiality of commission information. 1. Any 32 staff member, employee or agent of the state commission on prosecutorial 33 conduct who violates any of the provisions of section four hundred nine-34 ty-nine-g of this article shall be subject to a reprimand, a fine, 35 suspension or removal by the commission.

36 2. Within ten days after the commission has acquired knowledge that a 37 staff member, employee or agent of the commission has or may have 38 breached the provisions of section four hundred ninety-nine-g of this 39 article, written charges against such staff member, employee or agent 40 shall be prepared and signed by the chairman of the commission and filed 41 with the commission. Within five days after receipt of charges, the 42 commission shall determine, by a vote of the majority of all the members 43 of the commission, whether probable cause for such charges exists. If 44 such determination is affirmative, within five days thereafter a written 45 statement specifying the charges in detail and outlining his or her 46 rights under this section shall be forwarded to the accused staff
47 member, employee or agent by certified mail. The commission may suspend 48 the staff member, employee or agent, with or without pay, pending the 49 final determination of the charges. Within ten days after receipt of the 50 statement of charges, the staff member, employee or agent shall notify 51 the commission in writing whether he or she desires a hearing on the 52 charges. The failure of the staff member, employee or agent to notify 53 the commission of his or her desire to have a hearing within such period 54 of time shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing. If the hear-55 ing has been waived, the commission shall proceed, within ten days after 56 such waiver, by a vote of a majority of all the members of such commis-

1 sion, to determine the charges and fix the penalty or punishment, if 2 any, to be imposed as hereinafter provided.

3 3. Upon receipt of a request for a hearing, the commission shall sche-4 dule a hearing, to be held at the commission offices, within twenty days 5 after receipt of the request therefor, and shall immediately notify in 6 writing the staff member, employee or agent of the time and place there-7 of.

8 4. The commission shall have the power to establish necessary rules 9 and procedures for the conduct of hearings under this section. Such 10 rules shall not require compliance with technical rules of evidence. All 11 such hearings shall be held before a hearing panel composed of three 12 members of the commission selected by the commission. Each hearing shall 13 be conducted by the chairman of the panel who shall be selected by the 14 panel. The staff member, employee or agent shall have a reasonable 15 opportunity to defend himself and to testify on his or her own behalf.
16 He or she shall also have the right to be represented by counsel, to 17 subpoena witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses. All testimony taken 18 shall be under oath which the chairman of the panel is hereby authorized 19 to administer. A record of the proceedings shall be made and a copy of 20 the transcript of the hearing shall, upon written request, be furnished 21 without charge to the staff member, employee or agent involved.

22 5. Within five days after the conclusion of a hearing, the panel shall 23 forward a report of the hearing, including its findings and recommenda-24 tions, including its recommendations as to penalty or punishment, if one 25 is warranted, to the commission and to the accused staff member, employ-26 ee or agent. Within ten days after receipt of such report the commission 27 shall determine whether it shall implement the recommendations of the 28 panel. If the commission shall determine to implement such recommenda-29 tions, which shall include the penalty or punishment, if any, of a 30 reprimand, a fine, suspension for a fixed time without pay or dismissal, 31 it shall do so within five days after such determination. If the charges 32 against the staff member, employee or agent are dismissed, he or she 33 shall be restored to his or her position with full pay for any period of 34 suspension without pay and the charges shall be expunged from his or her 35 record.

36 6. The accused staff member, employee or agent may seek review of the 37 recommendation by the commission by way of a special proceeding pursuant 38 to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.
