8	complaint with the commission to determine whether said conduct as
9	alleged departs from the applicable statutes, case law, New York Rules
10	of Professional Conduct, 22 NYCRR 1200, including but not limited to 11	Rule 3.8 (Special Responsibilities of Prosecutors and Other Government
12	Lawyers).

14	terms have the following meanings:
15	1. "Commission" means the state commission on prosecutorial conduct.

23	§ 499-c. State commission on prosecutorial conduct; organization. 1.
24	The commission shall consist of eleven members, of whom two shall be 25	appointed by the governor, two by the temporary president of the senate,
26	one by the minority leader of the senate, two by the speaker of the 27	assembly, one by the minority leader of the assembly and three by the 28	chief judge of the court of appeals. Of the members appointed by the 29	governor one shall be a public defender and one shall be a prosecutor.
30	Of the members appointed by the chief judge one person shall be a
31	justice of the appellate division of the supreme court and two shall be 32	judges of courts other than the court of appeals or appellate division.
33 24	Of the members appointed by the legislative leaders, there shall be an equal number of prosecutors and attorneys providing defense services;
34 35	provided, however, that a temporary imbalance in the number of prosecu-
36	tors and defense attorneys pending new appointments shall not prevent 37	the commission from conducting business.
38	2. Membership on the commission by a prosecutor shall not constitute 39	the holding of a public office and no prosecutor shall be required to 40	take and file an oath of office before serving on the commission. The 41	members of the commission shall elect one of their number to serve as 42	chairman during his or her term of office or for a period of two years,

55	member of the commission shall be appointed thereafter for a term of 56	four years. Commission membership of a judge or justice appointed by the

1	governor or the chief judge shall terminate if such member ceases to
2	hold the judicial position which qualified him or her for such appoint-
3	ment. Membership shall also terminate if a member attains a position
4	which would have rendered him or her ineligible for appointment at the 5	time of his or her appointment. A vacancy shall be filled by the 6	appointing officer for the remainder of the term.
7	4. If a member of the commission who is a prosecutor is the subject of 8	a complaint or investigation with respect to his or her qualifications,
9	conduct, fitness to perform or performance of his or her official
10	duties, he or she shall be disqualified from participating in any and 11	all proceedings with respect thereto. If a member of the commission is 12	employed in the same organization as the subject of a complaint or 13	investigation with respect to his or her qualifications, conduct,
14	fitness to perform, or performance of his or her official duties, he or 15	she shall be disqualified from participating in any and all proceedings
16	with respect thereto.

24	members of the commission shall be necessary. Two members of a three
25	member panel of the commission shall constitute a quorum of the panel
26	and the concurrence of two members of the panel shall be necessary for 27	any action taken.
28	7. The commission shall appoint and at pleasure may remove an adminis-
29	trator who shall be a member of the bar who is not a prosecutor or 30	retired prosecutor. The administrator of the commission may appoint such 31	deputies, assistants, counsel, investigators and other officers and 32	employees as he or she may deem necessary, prescribe their powers and 33	duties, fix their compensation and provide for reimbursement of their 34	expenses within the amounts appropriated therefor.
35	§ 499-d. Functions; powers and duties. The commission shall have the 36	following functions, powers and duties:

38	mations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, examine them under 39	oath or affirmation and require the production of any books, records,
40	documents or other evidence that it may deem relevant or material to an 41	investigation; and the commission may designate any of its members or 42	any member of its staff to exercise any such powers, provided, however,
43	that except as is otherwise provided in section four hundred ninety-
44	nine-e of this article, only a member of the commission or the adminis-

47	cuting agency may inform the commission of its position that the commis-
48	sion's investigations will substantially interfere with the agency's own
49	investigation or prosecution. If the prosecuting agency, by affirmation
50	with specificity and particularity, informs the commission of its basis
51	for that position, the commission shall only exercise its powers in a
52	way that will not interfere with an agency's active investigation or 53	prosecution.
54	2. To confer immunity when the commission deems it necessary and prop-
55	er in accordance with section 50.20 of the criminal procedure law;
55	er in accordance with Section 20.20 of the criminal brocedure Idw;

7	duties.
8	4. To report annually, on or before the first day of March in each
9	year and at such other times as the commission shall deem necessary, to 10	the governor, the legislature and the chief judge of the court of 11	appeals, with respect to proceedings which have been finally determined
12	by the commission. Such reports may include legislative and administra-
13	tive recommendations. The contents of the annual report and any other 14	report shall conform to the provisions of this article relating to 15	confidentiality.
16	5. To adopt, promulgate, amend and rescind rules and procedures, not
17	otherwise inconsistent with law, necessary to carry out the provisions
18	and purposes of this article. All such rules and procedures shall be 20	secretary of state.

21	6. To do all other things necessary and convenient to carry out its 22	functions, powers and duties expressly set forth in this article.
23	§ 499-e. Panels; referees. 1. The commission may delegate any of its 24	functions, powers and duties to a panel of three of its members, one of 25	whom shall be a member of the bar, except that no panel shall confer
26	immunity in accordance with section 50.20 of the criminal procedure law.
27	No panel shall be authorized to take any action pursuant to subdivisions
28	four through nine of section four hundred ninety-nine-f of this article
29	or subdivision two of this section.
30	2. The commission may designate a member of the bar who is not a
31	prosecutor or a member of the commission or its staff as a referee to 32	hear and report to the commission in accordance with the provisions of 33	section four hundred ninety-nine-f of this article. Such referee shall 34	be empowered to conduct hearings, administer oaths or affirmations,
35	subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, examine them under oath or
36	affirmation and require the production of any books, records, documents
37	or other evidence that the referee may deem relevant or material to the 38	subject of the hearing.
39	§ 499-f. Complaint; investigation; hearing and disposition. 1. The 40	commission shall receive, initiate, investigate and hear complaints with 41	respect to the conduct, qualifications, fitness to perform, or perform-
42	ance of official duties of any prosecutor, and may determine that a
43	prosecutor be admonished, or censured; and make a recommendation to the 44	governor that a prosecutor be removed from office for cause, for,
45	including, but not limited to, misconduct in office, as evidenced by his 46	or her departure from his or her obligations under appropriate statute,
47	case law, and/or New York Rules of Professional Conduct, 22 NYCRR 1200,
48	including but not limited to Rule 3.8 (Special Responsibilities of 49	Prosecutors and Other Government Lawyers), persistent failure to perform
49 50	his or her duties, habitual intemperance and conduct, in and outside of 50 51	his or her office, prejudicial to the administration of justice, or that 51 52	a prosecutor be retired for mental or physical disability preventing the 5⊿ 53	proper performance of his or her prosecutorial duties. A complaint shall 53 54	be in writing and signed by the complainant and, if directed by the 54 55	commission, shall be verified. Upon receipt of a complaint (a) the commission, shall conduct an investigation of the complaint: or (b) the commission may dismiss the complaint if it determines that the complaint 1 on its face lacks merit. If the complaint is dismissed, the commission 2 3 shall so notify the complainant. If the commission shall have notified 4 the prosecutor of the complaint, the commission shall also notify the 5 prosecutor of such dismissal. Pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision б four of section ninety of this chapter, any person being an attorney and 7 counselor-at-law who shall be convicted of a felony as defined in para-8 graph e of subdivision four of section ninety of this chapter, shall 9 upon such conviction, cease to be any attorney and counselor-at-law, or 10 to be competent to practice law as such. 11 2. The commission may, on its own motion, initiate an investigation of a prosecutor with respect to his or her qualifications, conduct, fitness 12 13 to perform or the performance of his or her official duties. Prior to 14 initiating any such investigation, the commission shall file as part of its record a written complaint, signed by the administrator of the 15 16 commission, which complaint shall serve as the basis for such investi-17 gation. 3. In the course of an investigation, the commission may require the 18 appearance of the prosecutor involved before it, in which event the 19 20 prosecutor shall be notified in writing of his or her required appear-21 ance, either personally, at least three days prior to such appearance, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, at least five days prior 22 to such appearance. In either case a copy of the complaint shall be 23 served upon the prosecutor at the time of such notification. The prose-24 25 cutor shall have the right to be represented by counsel during any and 26 all stages of the investigation in which his or her appearance is 27 required and to present evidentiary data and material relevant to the 28 complaint. A transcript shall be made and kept with respect to all 29 proceedings at which testimony or statements under oath of any party or 30 witness shall be taken, and the transcript of the prosecutor's testimony 31 shall be made available to the prosecutor without cost. Such transcript shall be confidential except as otherwise permitted by section four 32 33 hundred ninety-nine-g of this article. 4. If in the course of an investigation, the commission determines 34 35 that a hearing is warranted it shall direct that a formal written complaint signed and verified by the administrator be drawn and served 36 37 upon the prosecutor involved, either personally or by certified mail, 38 return receipt requested. The prosecutor shall file a written answer to the complaint with the commission within twenty days of such service. 39 If, upon receipt of the answer, or upon expiration of the time to 40 41 answer, the commission shall direct that a hearing be held with respect 42 to the complaint, the prosecutor involved shall be notified in writing 43 of the date of the hearing either personally, at least twenty days prior 44 thereto, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, at least twen-45 ty-two days prior thereto. Upon the written request of the prosecutor, 46 the commission shall, at least five days prior to the hearing or any 47 adjourned date thereof, make available to the prosecutor without cost copies of all documents which the commission intends to present at such 48 49 hearing and any written statements made by witnesses who will be called to give testimony by the commission. The commission shall, in any case, 50 51 make available to the prosecutor at least five days prior to the hearing or any adjourned date thereof any exculpatory evidentiary data and mate-52 53 rial relevant to the complaint. The failure of the commission to timely 54 furnish any documents, statements and/or exculpatory evidentiary data and material provided for herein shall not affect the validity of any 55 56 proceedings before the commission provided that such failure is not substantially prejudicial to the prosecutor. The complainant may be 1 notified of the hearing and unless he or she shall be subpoenaed as a 2 3 witness by the prosecutor, his or her presence thereat shall be within 4 the discretion of the commission. The hearing shall not be public unless 5 the prosecutor involved shall so demand in writing. At the hearing the б commission may take the testimony of witnesses and receive evidentiary 7 data and material relevant to the complaint. The prosecutor shall have 8 the right to be represented by counsel during any and all stages of the 9 hearing and shall have the right to call and cross-examine witnesses and 10 present evidentiary data and material relevant to the complaint. A tran-11 script of the proceedings and of the testimony of witnesses at the hearing shall be taken and kept with the records of the commission. 12 13 5. Subject to the approval of the commission, the administrator and 14 the prosecutor may agree on a statement of facts and may stipulate in writing that the hearing shall be waived. In such a case, the commission 15 16 shall make its determination upon the pleadings and the agreed statement 17 of facts. 6. If, after a formal written complaint has been served pursuant to 18 19 subdivision four of this section, or during the course of or after a 20 hearing, the commission determines that no further action is necessary, 21 the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant and the prosecutor shall be so notified in writing. 22 7. After a hearing, the commission may determine that a prosecutor be 23 admonished or censured, or may recommend to the governor that a prosecu-24 25 tor be removed from office for cause. The commission shall transmit its 26 written determination, together with its findings of fact and conclu-27 sions of law and the record of the proceedings upon which its determination is based, to the chief judge of the court of appeals who shall 28 cause a copy thereof to be served either personally or by certified 29 30 mail, return receipt requested, on the prosecutor involved. Upon 31 completion of service, the determination of the commission, its findings and conclusions and the record of its proceedings shall be made public 32 33 and shall be made available for public inspection at the principal office of the commission and at the office of the clerk of the court of 34 35 appeals. The prosecutor involved may either accept the determination of the commission or make written request to the chief judge, within thirty 36 37 days after receipt of such determination, for a review thereof by the 38 court of appeals. If the commission has determined that a prosecutor be 39 admonished or censured, and if the prosecutor accepts such determination or fails to request a review thereof by the court of appeals, the 40 41 commission shall thereupon admonish or censure him or her in accordance 42 with its findings. If the commission has recommended that a prosecutor 43 be removed or retired and the prosecutor accepts such determination or 44 fails to request a review thereof by the court of appeals, the court of 45 appeals shall thereupon transmit the commission's findings to the gover-46 nor who will independently determine whether the prosecutor should be 47 removed or retired. 8. If the prosecutor requests a review of the determination of the 48 commission, in its review of a determination of the commission pursuant 49 to the second undesignated paragraph of subdivision b of section three 50 51 of article six of the state constitution, the court of appeals shall 52 review the commission's findings of fact and conclusions of law on the 53 record of the proceedings upon which the commission's determination was 54 based. After such review, the court may accept or reject the determined sanction; impose a different sanction including admonition or censure, 55 56 recommend removal or retirement for the reasons set forth in subdivision

1	one of this section; or impose no sanction. However, if the court of 2	appeals recommends removal or retirement, it shall, together with the 3	commission, transmit the entire record to the governor who will inde-
4	pendently determine whether a prosecutor should be removed or retired.
5	9. (a) The court of appeals may suspend a prosecutor from exercising
б	the powers of his or her office while there is pending a determination
7	by the commission for his or her removal or retirement, or while he or 8	she is charged in this state with a felony by an indictment or an infor-
9	mation filed pursuant to section six of article one of the constitution.
10	The suspension shall terminate upon conviction of a felony resulting in 11	such prosecutor's disbarment pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision four 12	of section ninety of this chapter. If such conviction becomes final, he
13	or she shall be removed from office. The suspension shall be terminated
14	upon reversal of the conviction and dismissal of the accusatory instru-
15	ment.
16	(b) Upon the recommendation of the commission or on its own motion,
17	the court may suspend a prosecutor from office when he or she is charged
18	with a crime punishable as a felony under the laws of this state, or any 19	other crime which involves moral turpitude. The suspension shall termi-
20	nate upon conviction of a felony resulting in such prosecutor's disbar-
20 21	ment pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision four of section ninety of 22	this chapter. The suspension shall continue upon conviction of any other
22	crime which involves moral turpitude and, if such conviction becomes 23 24	final, he or she shall be removed from office. The suspension shall be
24 25	terminated upon reversal of the conviction and dismissal of the accusa-
25 26	. –
	tory instrument.
27	(c) A prosecutor who is suspended from office by the court shall 28	receive his or her salary during such period of suspension, unless the 29	court directs otherwise. If the court has so directed and such suspen-
30	sion is thereafter terminated, the court may direct that he or she shall be paid his or her salary for such period of suspension.
31
32	(d) Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the commission from 33 24	determining that a prosecutor be admonished or censured or prevent the 34 25	commission from recommending removal or retirement pursuant to subdivi-
35	sion seven of this section.
36	10. If during the course of or after an investigation or hearing, the
37 38	commission determines that the complaint or any allegation thereof warrants action, other than in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions seven through nine of this section, within the powers of: (a) a person having administrative jurisdiction over the prosecutor involved 40
30 39
41	in the complaint; or (b) an appellate division of the supreme court; or 42	(c) a presiding justice of an appellate division of the supreme court;
43	or (d) the chief judge of the court of appeals; or (e) the governor
44	pursuant to subdivision (b) of section thirteen of article thirteen of 45	the constitution; or (f) an applicable district attorney's office or 46	other prosecuting agency, the commission shall refer such complaint or 47	the appropriate allegations thereof and any evidence or material related 48	thereto to such person, agency or court for such action as may be deemed
49	proper or necessary.
50	11. The commission shall notify the complainant of its disposition of
51	the compleint
52	the complaint.
	12. In the event of removal from office of any prosecutor, pursuant to 53 54

55 public officers law.

499-q. Confidentiality of records. Except as hereinafter provided, 1 S all complaints, correspondence, commission proceedings and transcripts 2 3 thereof, other papers and data and records of the commission shall be 4 confidential and shall not be made available to any person except pursu-5 ant to section four hundred ninety-nine-f of this article. The commisб sion and its designated staff personnel shall have access to confiden-7 tial material in the performance of their powers and duties. If the prosecutor who is the subject of a complaint so requests in writing, 8 9 copies of the complaint, the transcripts of hearings by the commission 10 thereon, if any, and the dispositive action of the commission with 11 respect to the complaint, such copies with any reference to the identity of any person who did not participate at any such hearing suitably 12 deleted therefrom, except the subject prosecutor or complainant, shall 13 14 be made available for inspection and copying to the public, or to any person, agency or body designated by such prosecutor. 15 16 § 499-h. Breach of confidentiality of commission information. 1. Any 17 staff member, employee or agent of the state commission on prosecutorial conduct who violates any of the provisions of section four hundred nine-18 ty-nine-g of this article shall be subject to a reprimand, a fine, 19 20 suspension or removal by the commission. 21 2. Within ten days after the commission has acquired knowledge that a 22 staff member, employee or agent of the commission has or may have breached the provisions of section four hundred ninety-nine-g of this 23 article, written charges against such staff member, employee or agent 24 shall be prepared and signed by the chairman of the commission and filed 25 26 with the commission. Within five days after receipt of charges, the 27 commission shall determine, by a vote of the majority of all the members of the commission, whether probable cause for such charges exists. If 28 29 such determination is affirmative, within five days thereafter a written 30 statement specifying the charges in detail and outlining his or her 31 rights under this section shall be forwarded to the accused staff 32 member, employee or agent by certified mail. The commission may suspend 33 the staff member, employee or agent, with or without pay, pending the final determination of the charges. Within ten days after receipt of the 34 statement of charges, the staff member, employee or agent shall notify 35 36 the commission in writing whether he or she desires a hearing on the 37 charges. The failure of the staff member, employee or agent to notify 38 the commission of his or her desire to have a hearing within such period 39 of time shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing. If the hearing has been waived, the commission shall proceed, within ten days after 40 41 such waiver, by a vote of a majority of all the members of such commis-42 sion, to determine the charges and fix the penalty or punishment, if 43 any, to be imposed as hereinafter provided. 44 3. Upon receipt of a request for a hearing, the commission shall sche-45 dule a hearing, to be held at the commission offices, within twenty days 46 after receipt of the request therefor, and shall immediately notify in 47 writing the staff member, employee or agent of the time and place there-48 of. 49 The commission shall have the power to establish necessary rules 4. and procedures for the conduct of hearings under this section. Such 50 51 rules shall not require compliance with technical rules of evidence. All such hearings shall be held before a hearing panel composed of three 52 53 members of the commission selected by the commission. Each hearing shall 54 be conducted by the chairman of the panel who shall be selected by the panel. The staff member, employee or agent shall have a reasonable 55 56 opportunity to defend himself and to testify on his or her own behalf.

He or she shall also have the right to be represented by counsel, to 1 subpoena witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses. All testimony taken 2 3 shall be under oath which the chairman of the panel is hereby authorized 4 to administer. A record of the proceedings shall be made and a copy of 5 the transcript of the hearing shall, upon written request, be furnished б without charge to the staff member, employee or agent involved. 7 5. Within five days after the conclusion of a hearing, the panel shall 8 forward a report of the hearing, including its findings and recommenda-9 tions, including its recommendations as to penalty or punishment, if one 10 is warranted, to the commission and to the accused staff member, employee or agent. Within ten days after receipt of such report the commission 11 shall determine whether it shall implement the recommendations of the 12 13 panel. If the commission shall determine to implement such recommenda-14 tions, which shall include the penalty or punishment, if any, of a reprimand, a fine, suspension for a fixed time without pay or dismissal, 15 16 it shall do so within five days after such determination. If the charges 17 against the staff member, employee or agent are dismissed, he or she shall be restored to his or her position with full pay for any period of 18 suspension without pay and the charges shall be expunged from his or her 19 20 record. 21 6. The accused staff member, employee or agent may seek review of the 22 recommendation by the commission by way of a special proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. 23 § 499-i. Resignation not to divest commission or court of appeals of 24 jurisdiction. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals and the commis-25 26 sion pursuant to this article shall continue notwithstanding that a 27 prosecutor resigns from office after a recommendation by the commission that the prosecutor be removed from office has been transmitted to the 28 29 chief judge of the court of appeals, or in any case in which the commis-30 sion's recommendation that a prosecutor should be removed from office 31 shall be transmitted to the chief judge of the court of appeals within one hundred twenty days after receipt by the chief administrator of the 32 courts of the resignation of such prosecutor. Any determination by the 33 governor that a prosecutor who has resigned should be removed from 34 35 office shall render such prosecutor ineligible to hold any other prose-36 cutorial office. 37 § 499-j.
