6 the state comptroller to the credit of the crime victim's assistance

21 of litigation.

22 (b) The incarceration fee provided for in subdivision two of section

31 5-a. For the purposes of collecting such mandatory surcharge or crime 32 victim's assistance fee, the state shall be legally entitled to file a 33 crime victim's lien against the convicted offender, in the amount of the 34 unpaid portion of such mandatory surcharge or crime victim's assistance
35 fee. Such lien may be filed any time after a sentence is pronounced upon 36 the offender, and shall exist from the date of the pronouncement of such 37 sentence until the convicted offender pays the full amount of the manda-38 tory surcharge and crime victim's assistance fee, or for twenty-five 39 years from the date of the pronouncement of the convicted offender's
40 sentence, whichever is less. Such lien shall be filed with the attorney 41 general by the clerk of the court from which the offender is convicted.
42 Upon the filing of such lien, the attorney general may at any time ther-

55 sentence pronounced upon him.

1 5-b. All monies collected pursuant to the enforcement and execution of 2 the state's crime victim's lien against a convicted offender, as set 3 forth in subdivision five of this section, shall be delivered by the 4 attorney general to the comptroller. The comptroller shall deposit into 5 the internal service fund account for the department of law, an amount 6 equal to nineteen percent of the monies so collected, in order to offset 7 the costs and expenses of performing such collection, lien enforcement 8 and execution. All remaining monies, if collected from the failure of 9 the convicted offender to pay a mandatory surcharge, shall be deposited 10 by the comptroller into the criminal justice improvement account, as 11 defined in section ninety-seven-bb of the state finance law, and if 12 collected from the failure of the convicted offender to pay a crime 13 victim's assistance fee shall be deposited by the comptroller into the 14 crime victim's assistance account, as defined in section ninety-four-c 15 of the state finance law. Upon the collection of monies under this 16 section, the attorney general shall provide written notice to the crime
17 victim or victims on the crime victim's list for the convicted offender
18 which was prepared by the court or administrative tribunal and filed 19 with the attorney general pursuant to subdivision three-b of this 20 section.
