AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to the invalidity of additional insurance provisions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 5-322.1 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 67 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

3 1. A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or connection with or collateral to a contract or agreement relative to the construction, alteration, repair or maintenance of a building, structure, appurtenances and appliances including moving, demolition and excavating connected therewith, purporting to indemnify or hold harmless 9 the promisee against liability for damage arising out of bodily injury 10 to persons or damage to property contributed to, caused by or resulting 11 from the negligence of the promisee, his agents or employees, or indemnitee, whether such negligence be in whole or in part, is against public 13 policy and is void and unenforceable; provided that this section shall 14 not affect the validity of any insurance contract, workers' compensation agreement or other agreement issued by an admitted insurer; provided 15 further, that a provision in a construction contract that requires the 16 purchase of additional insured coverage, or any coverage endorsement, or 17 provision within an insurance policy providing additional insured cover-18 19 age, is void and unenforceable to the extent that it requires coverage, 20 the scope of which is prohibited under this subdivision. This subdivi-21 sion shall not preclude a promisee requiring indemnification for damages 22 arising out of bodily injury to persons or damage to property caused by 23 or resulting from the negligence of a party other than the promisee, 24 whether or not the promisor is partially negligent.
