1	2. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, it
2	shall be unlawful for any employer to request, require or coerce any
3	employee or applicant for employment:
4	(i) disclose any user name and password, password, or other authenti-
5	cation information for accessing a personal account through an electron-
6	ic communications device;
7	(ii) access the employee's or applicant's personal account in the
8	presence of the employer;
9	(iii) reproduce in any manner photographs, video, or other information
10	contained within a personal account.
11	(b) An employer may require an employee to disclose any user name,
12	password or other means for accessing nonpersonal accounts that provide
13	access to the employer's internal computer or information systems.
14	(c) For the purposes of this section, "access" shall not include an
15	employee or applicant voluntarily adding an employer or employment agen-
16	cy to their list of contacts associated with a personal internet
17	account.
18	3. An employer may not:
19	(a) Discharge, discipline, or otherwise penalize or threaten to
20	discharge, discipline, or otherwise penalize an employee for an employ-
21	ee's refusal to disclose any information specified in paragraph (a) of
22	subdivision two of this section; or
23	(b) Fail or refuse to hire any applicant as a result of the appli-
24	cant's refusal to disclose any information specified in paragraph (a) of
25	subdivision two of this section.
26	4. It shall be an affirmative defense to an action under this section
27	that the employer acted to comply with requirements of a federal, state
28 29	or local law.
29 30	5. (a) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an employer from:
	(i) requesting or requiring an employee to disclose access information
31 32	to an account provided by the employer where such account is used for business purposes and the employee was provided prior notice of the
33	employer's right to request or require such access information;
34	(ii) requesting or requiring an employee to disclose access informa-
35	tion to an account known to an employer to be used for business
36	purposes;
37	(iii) accessing an electronic communications device paid for in whole
38	or in part by the employer where the provision of or payment for such
39	electronic communications device was conditioned on the employer's right
40	to access such device and the employee was provided prior notice of and
41	explicitly agreed to such conditions. However, nothing in this subpara-
42	graph shall permit an employer to access any personal accounts on such
43	device;
44	(iv) complying with a court order in obtaining or providing informa-
45	tion from, or access to, an employee's accounts as such court order may
46	require;
47	(v) restricting or prohibiting an employee's access to certain
48	websites while using an employer's network or while using an electronic
49	communications device paid for in whole or part by the employer where
50	the provision of or payment for such electronic communications device
51	was conditioned on the employer's right to restrict such access and the
52	employee was provided prior notice of and explicitly agreed to such
53	conditions.
54	(b) This section does not prohibit or restrict an employer from
55	complying with a duty to screen employees or applicants prior to hiring

56 or to monitor or retain employee communications that is established

2	section 3(a)(26) of the securities and exchange act of 1934, 15 USC
3	78c(a)(26).
4	(c) This section does not prohibit or restrict an employer from view-
5	ing, accessing, or utilizing information about an employee or applicant
6	that can be obtained without any required access information or that is
7	available in the public domain.
8	6. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any law enforce-
9	ment agency, a fire department or a department of corrections and commu-
10	nity supervision.
11	§ 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 115 to read
12	as follows:
13	§ 115. Request for access to personal accounts prohibited. 1. For
14	purposes of this section, the following words shall have the following
15	meanings:
16	(a) "Educational institution" means a public or private educational
17	institution or separate school or department of a public or private
18	educational institution, and includes an academy; elementary or second-
19	ary school; extension course; kindergarten; nursery school; school
20	system; school district; intermediate school district; business, nurs-
21	ing, professional, secretarial, technical, or vocational school; public
22	or private educational testing service or administrator; and an agent of
23	an educational institution. Educational institution shall be construed
24	broadly to include public and private institutions of higher education
25	to the greatest extent consistent with constitutional limitations.
26	(b) "Electronic communications device" means any device that uses
27	electronic signals to create, transmit, and receive information, includ-
28	ing, but not limited to computers, telephones, personal digital assist-
29	ants and other similar devices.
30	(c) "Personal account" means an account or profile on an electronic
31	medium where users may create, share, and view user-generated content,
32	including uploading or downloading videos of still photographs, blogs,
33	video blogs, podcasts, instant messages, or Internet Website profiles or
34	locations that is used by a student or a prospective student primarily
35	for personal purposes.
36	2. It shall be unlawful for any educational institution to:
37	(a) request, require, or coerce any student or prospective student to
38	disclose any user name and password, password, or other authentication
39	information that allows access to a personal account;
40	(b) request, require, or coerce a student or perspective student to
41	access the student's or prospective student's personal account in the
42	presence of the educational institution;
43	(c) request, require or coerce a student or perspective student to
44	reproduce in any manner photographs, videos, or other information
45	contained within a personal account; or
46	(d) suspend, expel, discipline, fail to admit, or otherwise penalize a
47	student or prospective student for failure to grant access to, allow
48	observation of, or disclose information that allows access to or obser-
49	vation of the student's or prospective student's personal account.
50	(e) For the purposes of this section, "access" shall not include a
51	student or applicant voluntarily adding an educational institution to
52	their list of contacts associated with a personal account.
53	3. Nothing in this section prohibits an educational institution from:
54	(a) accessing an electronic communications device paid for in whole or
55	in part by the educational institution where the provision of or payment
56	for such electronic communications device was conditioned on the educa-

2	provided prior notice of and explicitly agreed to such conditions.
3	However, nothing in this paragraph shall permit an educational institu-
4	tion to access any personal accounts or services on such device; or
5	(b) requesting or requiring a student to disclose access information
б	to an account provided by the educational institution where such account
7	is used exclusively for educational purposes and the student or parent
8	or guardian for students under the age of eighteen was provided prior
9	notice of the educational institution's right to request or require such
10	access information. However, nothing in this subdivision shall permit
11	an educational institution to access any personal accounts on a communi-
12	cations device.
13	4. This section shall not prohibit or restrict an educational institu-
14	tion from viewing, accessing, or utilizing information about a student
15	or applicant that can be obtained without any required access informa-
16	tion or that is available in the public domain.
17	5. It is an affirmative defense to an action under this section that
18	the educational institution acted to comply with requirements of a
