4 a life insurance policy, an employment certificate, a school record, an
5 immigration record, a naturalization record, a court record or any other 6 document or record issued by a governmental entity, showing the date of 7 birth of such parties. The said clerk shall also embody in the statement
8 if either or both of the applicants have been previously married, a 9 statement as to whether the former [~~husband or husbands or the former~~
10 ~~wife or wives~~] spouse or spouses of the respective applicants are living
11 or dead and as to whether either or both of said applicants are divorced
12 persons, if so, when and where and against whom the divorce or divorces
13 were granted and shall also embody therein a statement that no legal 14 impediment exists as to the right of each of the applicants to enter
15 into the marriage state. The town or city clerk is hereby given full 16 power and authority to administer oaths and may require the applicants
17 to produce witnesses to identify them or either of them and may examine 18 under oath or otherwise other witnesses as to any material inquiry
19 pertaining to the issuing of the license, and if the applicant is a
20 divorced person the clerk may also require the production of a certified 21 copy of the decree of the divorce, or proof of an existing marriage of 22 parties who apply for a license to be used for a second or subsequent 23 ceremony; provided, however, that in cities or towns the verified state-
24 ments and affidavits may be made before any regular clerk or designee of 25 the clerk's office.

26 2. If it appears from the affidavits and statements so taken, and from 27 the documentary proof of age presented, that the persons for whose 28 marriage the license in question is demanded are legally competent to 29 marry, the said clerk shall issue such license [~~except in the following~~ 30 ~~cases. If it shall appear upon an application that the applicant is~~ 31 ~~under eighteen years of age, before the town or city clerk shall issue a~~ 32 ~~license, he shall require documentary proof of age in the form of an~~
33 ~~original or certified copy of a birth record, a certification of birth~~
34 ~~issued by the state department of health, a local registrar of vital~~

37 ~~port, automobile driver's license, life insurance policy, employment~~
38 ~~certificate, school record, immigration record, naturalization record or~~ 39 ~~court record, showing the date of birth of such minor. If the town or~~ 40 ~~city clerk shall be in doubt as to whether an applicant claiming to be~~ 41 ~~over eighteen years of age is actually over eighteen years of age, he~~
42 ~~shall, before issuing such license, require documentary proof as above~~
43 ~~defined~~].

44 3. If it shall appear upon an application of the applicants as 45 provided in this section or upon information required by the clerk that 46 either party is at least [~~sixteen~~] seventeen years of age but under 47 eighteen years of age, then the town or city clerk before he shall issue
48 a license shall require:

50 or minors or such as shall then be living, or if the parents of both are 51 dead, then the written consent of the guardian or guardians of such 52 minor or minors. If one of the parents has been missing and has not been 53 seen or heard from for a period of one year preceding the time of the 54 application for the license, although diligent inquiry has been made to 55 learn the whereabouts of such parent, the town or city clerk may issue a 56 license to such minor upon the sworn statement and consent of the other parent. If the marriage of the parents of such minor has been dissolved by decree of divorce or annulment, the consent of the parent to whom the court which granted the decree has awarded the custody of such minor shall be sufficient. If there is no parent or guardian of the minor or minors living to their knowledge then the town or city clerk shall require the written consent to the marriage of the person under whose care or government the minor or minors may be before a license shall be issued. If a parent of such minor has been adjudicated an incompetent, the town or city clerk may issue a license to such minor upon the production of a certified copy of such judgment so determining and upon the written consent of the other parent. If there is no other parent whose consent is required by this section, then and in such event, the town or city clerk shall require the written consent of the guardian of such minor or of the person under whose care or government the minor may be before a license shall be issued. The parents, guardians, or other persons whose consent it shall be necessary to obtain and file with the town or city clerk before the license shall issue, shall personally appear and acknowledge or execute the same before the town or city clerk, or some other officer authorized to administer oaths and take acknowledgments provided that where such affidavit or acknowledgment is made before an official other than an officer designated in section two hundred ninety-eight of the real property law as authorized to take such affidavit or acknowledgment if a conveyance of real property were being acknowledged or proved, or if a certificate of authentication would be required by section three hundred ten of the real property law to entitle the instrument to be recorded if it were a conveyance of real property, the consent when filed must have attached thereto a certificate of authentication[-]; and

~~[3. If it shall appear upon an application for a marriage license that either party is under the age of sixteen years, the town or city clerk shall require, in addition to any consents provided for in this section,]~~

(b) the written approval and consent of a justice of the supreme court or of a judge of the family court, having jurisdiction over the town or city in which the application is made, to be attached to or endorsed upon the application, before the license is issued. The application for such approval and consent shall be heard by the judge at chambers. The justice of the supreme court and the judge of the family court shall appoint an attorney for the child for each minor party immediately upon the application for approval and consent. The attorney for the child must have received training in domestic violence including a component on forced marriage. All papers and records pertaining to any such application shall be sealed by him and withheld from inspection, except by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Before issuing approval and consent, the justice of the supreme court or the judge of the family court shall:

(i) provide notification to each minor party of his or her rights, including but not limited to, in relation to termination of the marriage, child and spousal support, and access to public benefits, domestic violence and other services, which notification shall be developed by the office of court administration in consultation with the office for the prevention of domestic violence;

B. that the minor is not being compelled by force, threat, persuasion, fraud, coercion or duress; and

C. that the marriage will not endanger the mental, emotional or physical safety of the minor.

In making such findings, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the age difference between the parties intending to be married, whether there is a power imbalance between the parties intending to be married, whether the parties are incapable of consenting to a marriage for want of understanding, whether there is a history of domestic violence between the parties and whether there is a history of domestic violence between a party and either parties' or legal guardians' family members. Neither current or past pregnancy of either individual, nor the wishes of the parents or legal guardians of the minor intending to be married nor the existence of a prior religious marriage shall be the sole basis for consent or approval under this subdivision.

Upon the approval and consent of the justice of the supreme court or the judge of the family court of the application to marry, each minor party shall have all the rights and responsibilities of an adult, including the right to enter into a contract, except for those specific constitutional and statutory age requirements such as, but not limited to, voting, use of alcoholic beverages, and other health and safety regulations relevant to him or her because of his or her age.

4. If it shall appear upon an application for a marriage license that either party is under the age of seventeen years, then the town or city clerk shall not issue a license to marry.

5. Before issuing any licenses herein provided for, the town or city clerk shall be entitled to a fee of thirty dollars, which sum shall be paid by the applicants before or at the time the license is issued.
