AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law, in relation to increasing the age of consent for purposes of marriage to the age of seventeen

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1, and subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 of section 15 of the domestic relations law, paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 415 of the laws of 2014, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 126 of the laws of 1984, subdivision 3 as amended by section 5 of part W2 of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003 and subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 424 of the laws of 1990, are amended to read as follows:

8 (a) It shall be the duty of the town or city clerk when an application for a marriage license is made to him or her to require each of the 9 10 contracting parties to sign and verify a statement or affidavit before 11 such clerk or one of his or her deputies, containing the following 12 information. From [the groom] party one: Full name [of husband], place 13 of residence, social security number, age, occupation, place of birth, 14 name of father, country of birth, maiden name of mother, country of 15 birth, number of marriage. From [the bride] party two: Full name [of bride], place of residence, social security number, age, occupation, 16 17 place of birth, name of father, country of birth, maiden name of mother, 18 country of birth, number of marriage. Both parties shall also be 19 required to present to the clerk documentary proof of age in the form of 20 an original or certified copy of a birth record, a certification of 21 birth issued by the state department of health, a local registrar of 22 vital statistics or other public officer charged with similar duties by the laws of any other state, territory or country, a baptismal record, a passport, an automobile driver's license, any government or school issued identification card that contains a photograph of the applicant, a life insurance policy, an employment certificate, a school record, an immigration record, a naturalization record, a court record or any other document or record issued by a governmental entity, showing the date of birth of such parties. The said clerk shall also embody in the statement 7 either or both of the applicants have been previously married, a 8 if 9 statement as to whether the former [husband or husbands or the former 10 wife or wives] spouse or spouses of the respective applicants are living or dead and as to whether either or both of said applicants are divorced 11 persons, if so, when and where and against whom the divorce or divorces 12 13 were granted and shall also embody therein a statement that no legal 14 impediment exists as to the right of each of the applicants to enter 15 into the marriage state. The town or city clerk is hereby given full 16 power and authority to administer oaths and may require the applicants 17 to produce witnesses to identify them or either of them and may examine under oath or otherwise other witnesses as to any material inquiry 18 pertaining to the issuing of the license, and if the applicant is a 19 20 divorced person the clerk may also require the production of a certified 21 copy of the decree of the divorce, or proof of an existing marriage of parties who apply for a license to be used for a second or subsequent 22 ceremony; provided, however, that in cities or towns the verified state-23 24 ments and affidavits may be made before any regular clerk or designee of 25 the clerk's office.

26 2. If it appears from the affidavits and statements so taken, and from 27 the documentary proof of age presented, that the persons for whose marriage the license in question is demanded are legally competent to 28 marry, the said clerk shall issue such license [except in the following 29 30 cases. If it shall appear upon an application that the applicant is 31 under eighteen years of age, before the town or city clerk shall issue a 32 license, he shall require documentary proof of age in the form of an 33 original or certified copy of a birth record, a certification of birth issued by the state department of health, a local registrar of vital 34 statistics or other public officer charged with similar duties by the 35 laws of any other state, territory or country, a baptismal record, pass-36 port, automobile driver's license, life insurance policy, employment 37 certificate, school record, immigration record, naturalization record or 38 court record, showing the date of birth of such minor. If the town or 39 city clerk shall be in doubt as to whether an applicant claiming to be 40 41 over eighteen years of age is actually over eighteen years of age, he 42 shall, before issuing such license, require documentary proof as above 43 defined].

44 3. If it shall appear upon an application of the applicants as 45 provided in this section or upon information required by the clerk that 46 either party is at least [sixteen] seventeen years of age but under 47 eighteen years of age, then the town or city clerk before he shall issue 48 a license shall require:

(a) the written consent to the marriage from both parents of the minor 49 50 or minors or such as shall then be living, or if the parents of both are dead, then the written consent of the guardian or guardians of such 51 minor or minors. If one of the parents has been missing and has not been 52 53 seen or heard from for a period of one year preceding the time of the 54 application for the license, although diligent inquiry has been made to 55 learn the whereabouts of such parent, the town or city clerk may issue a 56 license to such minor upon the sworn statement and consent of the other

parent. If the marriage of the parents of such minor has been dissolved 1 2 by decree of divorce or annulment, the consent of the parent to whom the court which granted the decree has awarded the custody of such minor 3 4 shall be sufficient. If there is no parent or guardian of the minor or 5 minors living to their knowledge then the town or city clerk shall б require the written consent to the marriage of the person under whose 7 care or government the minor or minors may be before a license shall be issued. If a parent of such minor has been adjudicated an incompetent, 8 9 the town or city clerk may issue a license to such minor upon the 10 production of a certified copy of such judgment so determining and upon 11 the written consent of the other parent. If there is no other parent whose consent is required by this section, then and in such event, the 12 13 town or city clerk shall require the written consent of the guardian of 14 such minor or of the person under whose care or government the minor may 15 be before a license shall be issued. The parents, guardians, or other 16 persons whose consent it shall be necessary to obtain and file with the town or city clerk before the license shall issue, shall personally 17 appear and acknowledge or execute the same before the town or city 18 clerk, or some other officer authorized to administer oaths and take 19 20 acknowledgments provided that where such affidavit or acknowledgment is 21 made before an official other than an officer designated in section two hundred ninety-eight of the real property law as authorized to take such 22 affidavit or acknowledgment if a conveyance of real property were being 23 24 acknowledged or proved, or if a certificate of authentication would be 25 required by section three hundred ten of the real property law to enti-26 tle the instrument to be recorded if it were a conveyance of real prop-27 erty, the consent when filed must have attached thereto a certificate of 28 authentication[+]; and [3. If it shall appear upon an application for a marriage license that 29 30 either party is under the age of sixteen years, the town or city clerk 31 shall require, in addition to any consents provided for in this 32 section, 33 (b) the written approval and consent of a justice of the supreme court or of a judge of the family court, having jurisdiction over the town or 34 35 city in which the application is made, to be attached to or endorsed 36 upon the application, before the license is issued. The application for 37 such approval and consent shall be heard by the judge at chambers. The 38 justice of the supreme court and the judge of the family court shall appoint an attorney for the child for each minor party immediately upon 39 the application for approval and consent. The attorney for the child 40 must have received training in domestic violence including a component 41 42 on forced marriage. All papers and records pertaining to any such appli-43 cation shall be sealed by him and withheld from inspection, except by 44 order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Before issuing approval and 45 consent, the justice of the supreme court or the judge of the family 46 court shall: 47 (i) provide notification to each minor party of his or her rights, 48 including but not limited to, in relation to termination of the marriage, child and spousal support, and access to public benefits, 49 domestic violence and other services, which notification shall be devel-50 51 oped by the office of court administration in consultation with the 52 office for the prevention of domestic violence; 53 (ii) with respect to each party, including a minor party, conduct a 54 review of related decisions in court proceedings initiated pursuant to article ten of the family court act, and all warrants issued under the family court act, and reports of the statewide computerized registry of

5	(iii) have an in camera interview, separately with each minor party,
б	and make the following written affirmative findings:
7	A. that it is the minor's own will that the minor enter into the
8	marriage;
9	B. that the minor is not being compelled by force, threat, persuasion,
10	fraud, coercion or duress; and
11	C. that the marriage will not endanger the mental, emotional or phys-
12^{11}	ical safety of the minor.
13	In making such findings, the court shall consider, among other rele-
14^{13}	vant factors, the age difference between the parties intending to be 15^{11}	married, whether there is a power imbalance between the parties intending to be
