AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to notifying the owner of an animal killed on a highway

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 332 to
- 2 read as follows: 3 § 332. Notifying the owner of an animal killed on a highway. (a) Tags. If the animal has a tag with the family's contact information and/or a
- license number, the department shall: (i) make a reasonable attempt to notify the family using the contact information and (ii) notify the
- issuer of the license, if any, so that the issuer will attempt to notify 8 the family.
- 9 (b) Chips. The department shall scan the animal's remains for an iden-10 tification chip and, should a chip be found, notify the chip registry through the registry website or by telephone, in accordance with the 11 12 information on the identification chip.
- 13 (c) Web posting. Absent a tag or identification chip, the department 14 shall use a publicly available website to post a description of the animal and the circumstances of its death; and to post a photograph if 15 the department believes this can be done with due respect for personal 16
- and community sensibilities. 17
- (d) Storage. If the department has a suitable temporary storage facil-18 19 ity it shall store the animal's remains for at least seven days after 20 the department: (i) collects the remains or (ii) makes actual contact
- 21 directly with the animal's owners, whichever is longer.
- (e) Alternatives. The department can delegate the above functions to 22 another entity such as a shelter or veterinarian. 23
- 2.4 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
