AN ACT to amend the education law and the state finance law, in relation to tuition awards for active members of the reserve armed forces of the United States and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 669-i 2 to read as follows:
  - § 669-i. Tuition awards for members of the reserve armed forces of the United States. 1. The division of military and naval affairs is authorized, within amounts appropriated or otherwise lawfully available from any other source, to establish a tuition award program.
    - 2. As used in this section, the term:
- a. "Active member" shall mean a member of a branch of the reserve armed forces of the United States who meets the minimum requirements for satisfactory active membership as set forth in the regulations of the United States departments of the army, coast guard, navy and air force, as applicable.
- b. "Degree producing curriculum" shall mean a series of courses programmed to culminate in a specific post-secondary degree or diploma when successfully completed.
- 16 c. "Tuition" shall mean the total semester, quarter, or classroom hour 17 cost of instruction to the student as periodically published in the
- 18 catalogue of the institution, specifically excluding mandatory fees,
- 19 book charges, and room and board.

"Tuition benefit" shall mean the payment of whatever cost is attributable to the cost of tuition after the deduction of any other available educational grant aid, including the Army Continuing Education System (ACES) (AR-621-5 17 November 1993) and any successor Army requlations, that could defray such cost; however, specifically excluding the federal Montgomery GI Bill Act.

- e. "Part-time study" shall mean enrollment in an approved post-secondary degree program for at least six but less than twelve semester hours, or the equivalent per semester, or at least four but less than eight semester hours per quarter in an institution.
- 11 f. "Institution" shall mean any institution of higher education recognized and approved by the regents or the university of the state of New 12 13 York which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-14 secondary degree or diploma.
  - g. "Legal resident" shall mean a person whose principal domicile is located within New York state in excess of one hundred eighty-six days per year and has been so domiciled for not less than the three previous years; excepting active federal military duty who was a resident of the state at the time of entry into the armed forces of the United States and is an active member of the reserve armed forces of the United States.
  - 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other general, special, local law, rule, or regulation, any active member who has successfully completed advanced individual training or commissioning and other requirements of the division of military and naval affairs for tuition benefit eligibility shall be entitled to the tuition benefit provided by this section upon his or her enrollment in a degree producing curriculum in any institution.
  - 4. Unless otherwise provided for in this section, eligibility for the tuition benefit provided by this section shall be determined by the education services offices of the division of military and naval affairs, which shall issue certificates of eligibility and promulgate such administrative rules and procedures as are necessary to implement the tuition benefit provided under this section. Such administrative rules and procedures shall include in the factors for the determination of eligibility for the tuition benefit provided by this section the fulfillment of the obligation and commitments for service in the reserve armed forces of the United States.
  - 5. Any active member who currently possesses a baccalaureate degree or higher is ineligible for participation in the recruitment incentive program provided by this section.
  - 6. The tuition benefit provided by this section shall be restricted to legal residents of the state. The benefit may be used for either parttime or full-time study. No restriction as to sessions, student status, or space availability which does not apply to all students shall be placed by institutions upon recipients under this program.
- 7. Upon the recipient's attainment of a baccalaureate degree or cessation of status as an active member, whichever occurs first, the benefit provided by this section shall be discontinued. The tuition benefit provided by this section may be suspended at the direction of the divi-51 sion of military and naval affairs for a recipient's failure to maintain good military standing as an active member, for the failure to maintain 52 good academic progress and program pursuit, or for the failure to main-54 tain sufficient academic standing to retain eligibility for any other 55 financial assistance the recipient may be receiving.

1 8. Unless otherwise provided for in this section, the tuition benefit shall be on the terms and conditions set by the division of military and 2 naval affairs, provided that any such benefit shall not exceed an amount 3 4 equal to the actual annual tuition charged to the recipient or the 5 tuition charged by the state university of New York, whichever is less, 6 offset by any financial assistance and any other resources available 7 through the national quard or the division of military and naval affairs 8 on behalf of the recipient, including the Army Continuing Education 9 System (ACES) (AR-621-5 17 November 1993) and any successor Army regu-10 lations, and the total of all other state, federal, or other educational 11 grant aid that is received or receivable by such student during the school year for which such benefit is applicable. For the purposes of 12 this subdivision, benefits available under the federal Montgomery GI 13 14 Bill act of 1984 shall not be considered as federal or other educational 15 aid.

- 9. Any active member who is eligible for the tuition benefit provided by this section must apply for all other available state, federal, including the Army Continuing Education System (ACES) (AR-621-5 17 November 1993) and any successor Army regulations, or other educational grant aid at time of enrollment. The division of military and naval affairs shall access all financial assistance available on behalf of all such active members. Any grant aid or financial assistance received, excluding that of the Montgomery GI Bill Act of 1984, shall be utilized to offset the cost of tuition to the maximum extent possible, except that nothing shall require that aid or assistance received which may be used towards costs other than that of tuition shall be applied toward the cost of tuition.
- 10. The tuition benefit provided by this section shall be effective beginning with the school semester or quarter following the effective date of this section.
- § 2. Section 604 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 13 to read as follows:
- 33 13. Tuition awards for active members of the reserve armed forces of 34 the United States enrolled in approved post-secondary degree programs in 35 degree-granting institutions.
  - § 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 91-g to read as follows:
  - § 91-g. Tuition award account. 1. There is hereby established in the joint custody of the state comptroller and the commissioner of taxation and finance an account in the miscellaneous special revenue fund to be known as the tuition award account.
- 2. Such account shall consist of all revenues received from contrib-43 utions, donations and all other moneys credited or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law.
  - 3. Moneys of the account, following appropriation by the legislature may be expended for the tuition award program for members of the reserve armed forces of the United States. Moneys shall be paid out of the account on the audit and warrant of the state comptroller on vouchers certified or approved by the adjutant general of New York state.
- § 4. The division of military and naval affairs shall report on the 50 51 operation and subsequent effectiveness of the program created by this 52 act, one year after it shall have become a law and annually thereafter, 53 to the governor, temporary president of the senate and the speaker of 54 the assembly. Upon the expiration and repeal of the provisions of this 55 act, such division shall continue to make such report in any year which any person receives benefits under the provisions of this act.

A. 5607--A 4

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law and shall expire and be deemed repealed five years after such date; provided that any person who has begun to receive the benefits of this act prior to its expiration and repeal shall be entitled to continue to receive the benefits of this act after its expiration and repeal until completion of a baccalaureate degree or cessation of status as an active member, whichever occurs first.
