9 savings account established in accordance with the provisions of this 10 article for the exclusive benefit of the account owner or designated 11 beneficiary that is the first time buyer of a home, townhome, condomin-12 ium or unit in a cooperative housing corporation.

13 2. "Account owner" shall mean a taxpayer who enters into a first home 14 savings agreement pursuant to the provisions of this article, including 16 behalf of a trust, estate, partnership, association, company or corpo-

22 do business in the state, and (a) which is an authorized fiduciary to

14. "First home savings agreement" shall mean an agreement between the comptroller or a financial organization and the account owner.

15. "Program manager" shall mean a financial organization selected by the comptroller to act as a depository and manager of the program.

11 § 1254. Powers of the comptroller. 1. The comptroller may implement

16 to act as depositories and managers of the program. Financial organiza-17 tions submitting proposals shall describe the investment instrument 18 which will be held in accounts. The comptroller shall select as program 19 depositories and managers the financial organization, from among the 21 combination, both to potential program participants and this state, of 22 the following factors:

24 (b) the safety of the investment instrument being offered;

25 (c) the ability of the investment instrument to track increasing costs 26 of residential housing;

27 (d) the ability of the financial organization to satisfy recordkeeping 28 and reporting requirements;

29 (e) the financial organization's plan for promoting the program and 30 the investment it is willing to make to promote the program;

31 (f) the fees, if any, proposed to be charged to persons for opening 32 accounts;

33 (g) the minimum initial deposit and minimum contributions that the 34 financial organization will require;

35 (h) the ability of banking organizations to accept electronic with-36 drawals, including payroll deduction plans; and 37 (i) other benefits to the state or its residents included in the 38 proposal, including fees payable to the state to cover expenses of oper-39 ation of the program.

40 3. The comptroller may enter into a contract with a financial organ-41 ization. Such financial organization management may provide one or more 42 types of investment instrument.

43 4. The comptroller may select more than one financial organization for 44 the program.

45 5. A management contract shall include, at a minimum, terms requiring 46 the financial organization to:

47 (a) take any action required to keep the program in compliance with 48 requirements of section twelve hundred fifty-five of this article and 49 any actions not contrary to its contract to manage the program to quali-50 fy as a "first home savings account" under subsection (w) of section six 51 hundred twelve of the tax law;

52 (b) keep adequate records of each account, keep each account segre-53 gated from each other account, and provide the comptroller with the 54 information necessary to prepare the statements required by section 55 twelve hundred fifty-five of this article;

1 (c) compile and total information contained in statements required to 2 be prepared under section twelve hundred fifty-five of this article and 3 provide such compilations to the comptroller;

4 (d) if there is more than one program manager, provide the comptroller 5 with such information necessary to determine compliance with section 6 twelve hundred fifty-five of this article;

7 (e) provide the comptroller or his designee access to the books and 8 records of the program manager to the extent needed to determine compli-9 ance with the contract;

10 (f) hold all accounts for the benefit of the account owner;

11 (g) be audited at least annually by a firm of certified public 12 accountants selected by the program manager and that the results of such 13 audit be provided to the comptroller;

14 (h) provide the comptroller with copies of all regulatory filings and 15 reports made by it during the term of the management contract or while 16 it is holding any accounts, other than confidential filings or reports 17 that will not become part of the program. The program manager shall make 18 available for review by the comptroller the results of any periodic 19 examination of such manager by any state or federal banking, insurance 20 or securities commission, except to the extent that such report or 21 reports may not be disclosed under applicable law or the rules of such 22 commission; and

23 (i) ensure that any description of the program, whether in writing or 24 through the use of any media, is consistent with the marketing plan as 25 developed pursuant to the provisions of section twelve hundred fifty-26 three of this article.

27 6. The comptroller may provide that an audit shall be conducted of the 28 operations and financial position of the program depository and manager 29 at any time if the comptroller has any reason to be concerned about the 30 financial position, the recordkeeping practices, or the status of 31 accounts of such program depository and manager.

32 7. During the term of any contract with a program manager, the comp-33 troller shall conduct an examination of such manager and its handling of 34 accounts. Such examination shall be conducted at least biennially if 35 such manager is not otherwise subject to periodic examination by the 36 superintendent of financial services, the federal deposit insurance 37 corporation or other similar entity.

38 8. (a) If selection of a financial organization as a program manager 39 or depository is not renewed, after the end of its term:

40 (i) accounts previously established and held in investment instruments 41 at such financial organization may be terminated;

42 (ii) additional contributions may be made to such accounts;

43 (iii) no new accounts may be placed with such financial organization; 44 and

45 (iv) existing accounts held by such depository shall remain subject to 46 all oversight and reporting requirements established by the comptroller.

47 (b) If the comptroller terminates a financial organization as a 48 program manager or depository, he or she shall take custody of accounts 49 held by such financial organization and shall seek to promptly transfer 50 such accounts to another financial organization that is selected as a 51 program manager or depository and into investment instruments as similar 52 to the original instruments as possible.

53 9. The comptroller may enter into such contracts as it deems necessary 54 and proper for the implementation of the program.

1     § 1255. Program requirements; first home savings account. 1. First 2 home savings accounts established pursuant to the provisions of this 3 article shall be governed by the provisions of this section.

4     2. A first home savings account may be opened by any person who 5 desires to save money for the payment of the qualified first home 6 purchase expenses of the account owner or designated beneficiary. An 7 account owner may designate another person as successor owner of the 8 account in the event of the death of the original account owner. Such 9 person who opens an account or any successor owner shall be considered 10 the account owner.

11     (a) An application for such account shall be in the form prescribed by 12 the program and contain the following:

13     (i) the name, address and social security number or employer identifi-14 cation number of the account owner;

15     (ii) the designation of a designated beneficiary;

16     (iii) the name, address, and social security number of the designated 17 beneficiary; and 18     (iv) such other information as the program may require.

19     (b) The comptroller and the corporation may establish a nominal fee 20 for such application.

21     3. Any person, including the account owner, may make contributions to 22 the account after the account is opened.

23     4. Contributions to accounts may be made only in cash.

24     5. An account owner may withdraw all or part of the balance from an 25 account as authorized under rules governing the program. Such rules 26 shall include provisions that will generally enable the determination as 27 to whether a withdrawal is a nonqualified withdrawal or a qualified 28 withdrawal.

29     6. (a) An account owner may change the designated beneficiary of an 30 account in accordance with procedures established by the memorandum of 31 understanding pursuant to the provisions of section twelve hundred 32 fifty-three of this article.

33     (b) An account owner may transfer all or a portion of an account to 34 another first home savings account.

35     (c) Changes in designated beneficiaries and transfers under this 36 subdivision shall not be permitted to the extent that they would cause 37 all accounts for the same beneficiary to exceed the permitted aggregate 38 maximum account balance.

39     7. The program shall provide separate accounting for each designated 40 beneficiary.

41     8. No account owner or designated beneficiary of any account shall be 42 permitted to direct the investment of any contributions to an account or 43 the earnings thereon more than two times in any calendar year.

44     9. Neither an account owner nor a designated beneficiary may use an 45 interest in an account as security for a loan. Any pledge of an interest 46 in an account shall be of no force and effect.

47     10. The comptroller shall promulgate rules or regulations to prevent 48 contributions on behalf of a designated beneficiary in excess of an 49 amount that would cause the aggregate account balance for all accounts 50 for a designated beneficiary to exceed a maximum account balance, as 51 established from time to time by the comptroller.

52     11. Contributions to a first home savings account shall be limited to 53 one hundred thousand dollars per account. This amount shall not take 54 into consideration any gain or loss to the principal investment into the 55 account.

12. In the event that an individual makes a "nonqualified withdrawal" of monies from the first home savings account such individual shall have the entire account taxed, including any interest, as though it was income at the account owner's federal tax rate in the tax years the monies were withdrawn, and incur an additional ten percent state penalty on the amount of earnings. In the event account owners or designated beneficiary does not use the qualified residential housing as a primary residence for a period of not less than two years after the purchase of such housing, the account owner shall have the entire account taxed, including any interest, as though it was ordinary income at the account owner's federal tax rate in the tax years the monies were withdrawn and incur an additional ten percent state penalty on the amount of earnings. For purposes of this article, the two year period shall begin at the time title is transferred to the first time home buyer. The penalty shall be in addition to any taxes due pursuant to a non-qualified withdrawal from a first home savings account.

13. Penalties may be waived by the commissioner if the individual can show proof that the reason the individual did not use the qualified residential housing as a primary residence for a period of two years or more after the purchase or construction was due to either:

(a) an employment relocation outside the state and such relocation required the individual to become a resident of another state;

(b) an unforeseeable emergency;

(c) an absence due to qualifying military service; or

(d) death.

For purposes of this subdivision, an "unforeseeable emergency" shall mean a severe financial hardship resulting from illness, accident or property loss to the account owner, or his or her dependents resulting in circumstances beyond their control. The circumstances that constitute an unforeseeable financial emergency will depend on the facts of each case, however, withdrawal of account funds may not be made, without penalty, to the extent that such hardship is or may be relieved by either:

(i) reimbursement or compensation by insurance or otherwise; or

(ii) liquidation of the individual's assets to the extent the liquidation of such assets would not itself cause severe financial hardship.

14. The commission and the comptroller are directed to promulgate all rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this subsection and are hereby directed to establish, supervise and regulate first home savings accounts authorized to be created by this section.

15. (a) If there is any distribution from a first home savings account to any individual or for the benefit of any individual during a calendar year, such distribution shall be reported to the Internal Revenue Service and the account owner, the designated beneficiary, or the distributee to the extent required by federal law or regulation.

(b) Statements shall be provided to each account owner at least once each year within sixty days after the end of the twelve month period to which they relate. The statement shall identify the contributions made during a preceding twelve month period, the total contributions made to the account through the end of the period, the value of the account at the end of such period, distributions made during such period and any other information that the comptroller shall require to be reported to the account owner.

(c) Statements and information relating to accounts shall be prepared and filed to the extent required by federal and state tax laws.

1 16. An annual fee may be imposed upon the account owner for the main-2 tenance of the account.

3 17. The program shall disclose the following information in writing to 4 each account owner of a first home savings account:

5 (a) the terms and conditions for establishing a first home savings
6 account;

7 (b) any restrictions on the substitution of beneficiaries;

8 (c) the person or entity entitled to terminate the first home savings 9 agreement;

10 (d) the period of time during which a beneficiary may receive benefits 11 under the first home savings agreement;

12 (e) the terms and conditions under which money may be wholly or 13 partially withdrawn from the program, including, but not limited to, any 14 reasonable charges and fees that may be imposed for withdrawal;

15 (f) the probable tax consequences associated with contributions to and 16 distributions from accounts; and 17 (g) all other rights and obligations pursuant to first home savings 18 agreements, and any other terms, conditions, and provisions deemed 19 necessary and appropriate by the terms of the memorandum of understand-20 ing entered into pursuant to section twelve hundred fifty-three of this 21 article.

22 18. First home savings agreements shall be subject to section four-23 teen-c of the banking law and the "truth-in-savings" regulations promul-24 gated thereunder.

25 19. Nothing in this article or in any first home savings agreement 26 entered into pursuant to this article shall be construed as a guarantee 27 by the state that the account owner or designated beneficiary will qual-28 ify for the purchase of a home.

29 20. To establish that an account owner or designated beneficiary is a 30 first time home buyer, the individual shall complete a form promulgated 31 by the comptroller certifying, under the penalties of perjury, that such 32 individual is a first time home buyer.

33 21. An individual must not intend to use any portion of the real prop-34 erty purchased using the first home savings account funds in a trade or 35 business, or as a vacation home or as an investment, except as an owner 36 occupied multiple dwelling with no more than two rental units.

37 22. Monies withdrawn from first home savings accounts and any interest 38 which has accrued shall not be considered as ordinary income to the 39 account owner for state personal income taxation purposes, so long as 40 the monies are applied for the purchase or construction of a qualified 41 first home purchase by the account owner or designated beneficiary of 42 the account.

43 § 1256. Program limitations; first home savings account. 1. Nothing in 44 this article shall be construed to:

45 (a) give any designated beneficiary any rights or legal interest with 46 respect to an account unless the designated beneficiary is the account 47 owner;

48 (b) guarantee that the account owner or designated beneficiary will be 49 financially qualified to purchase a home;

50 (c) create state residency for an individual merely because the indi-51 vidual is a designated beneficiary; or

52 (d) guarantee that amounts saved pursuant to the program will be 53 sufficient to cover the down payment or closing costs pursuant to the 54 purchase of a qualified first home.

55 2. (a) Nothing in this article shall create or be construed to create 56 any obligation of the comptroller, the state, or any agency or instru-

1 mentality of the state to guarantee for the benefit of the account owner 2 or designated beneficiary with respect to:

3 (i) the rate of interest or other return on any account; and 4 (ii) the payment of interest or other return on any account.

5 (b) The comptroller by rule or regulation shall provide that every 6 contract, application, deposit slip or other similar document that may 7 be used in connection with a contribution to an account clearly indicate 8 that the account is not insured by the state and neither the principal 9 deposited nor the investment return is guaranteed by the state.

10 § 2. Subsection (c) of section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding 11 a new paragraph 44 to read as follows:

12 (44) The amount that may be subtracted from federal adjusted gross 13 income pursuant to subsection (w) of this section.

14 § 3. Section 612 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection 15 (w) to read as follows:

16 (w) Deductions for monies deposited into a first home savings account.
17 A taxpayer, who is an account owner as defined in subdivision two of 18 section twelve hundred fifty-two of the private housing finance law, 19 shall be able to deduct annually from his or her federal adjusted gross 20 income that amount, not to exceed five thousand dollars, deposited into 21 a first home savings account created pursuant to article twenty-eight of 22 the private housing finance law. A taxpayer and his or her spouse shall 23 jointly be entitled to a maximum deduction of ten thousand dollars. This 24 amount may be divided in any manner as the taxpayers desire for income 25 tax purposes.

26 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 27 it shall have become a law, and shall apply to taxable years commencing 28 on or after the first of January next succeeding the date on which it 29 shall have become law; provided however, that subdivision 14 of section 30 1255 of the private housing finance law, as added by section one of this 31 act, shall take effect immediately.
