IN ASSEMBLY

February 15, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. CYMBROWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the multiple dwelling law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to clarifying certain provisions relating to occupancy of class A multiple dwellings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. Paragraph a of subdivision 8 of section 4 of the multiple dwelling law is amended by adding a new subparagraph 3 to read as follows:
- 4 (3) In a class A multiple dwelling, the use of a short-term rental
 5 unit for occupancy of fewer than thirty consecutive days shall not be
 6 inconsistent with the occupancy of such multiple dwelling for permanent
 7 residence purposes if:
- 8 (A) such dwelling unit does not provide single room occupancy as 9 defined by subdivision sixteen of this section;
- 10 (B) such dwelling unit contains a bathroom and a kitchen not shared 11 with another unit;
- 12 (C) such dwelling unit provides for an evacuation diagram identifying 13 all means of egress from the short-term rental unit and the building in 14 which it is located. Such evacuation diagram shall be posted in a
 15 conspicuous place on the inside entrance door of each short-term rental

16 unit;

- 17 (D) such dwelling unit contains working smoke detectors in accordance 18 with local fire code;
- 19 (E) such dwelling unit has sufficient fire, hazard, and liability 20 insurance to cover those persons using the unit for such occupancy;
- 21 (F) all compensation received for rent, or for hire, for such dwelling 22 unit, shall be subject to all appropriate taxes and fees, including, but
- 23 not limited to, taxes and fees imposed by sections eleven hundred four,
- 24 eleven hundred five, eleven hundred seven and eleven hundred nine of

ARTICLE 7-D

SHORT-TERM RENTALS

18 Section 288. Registration required.

289. Registration fee.

290. Violations.

291. Regulations.

- § 288. Registration required. Any individual that operates a short-term rental unit, as defined by subdivision fifteen-a of section four of this chapter, must be registered with the department. Each unit operated by the individual shall have a registration identification number. The registration shall include the location of the unit.
- § 289. Registration fee. The registration fee shall be five hundred dollars per unit, all of which shall be dedicated to the division, unit or special task force in charge of enforcing this article, as determined by the division of housing and community renewal.
- § 290. Violations. When the use of a short-term rental unit is determined to not comply with any requirements set forth in subparagraph three of paragraph a of subdivision eight of section four of this chapter, the individual who registered the unit as required by this article, shall be in violation of the registration and subject to a fine of not less than one thousand dollars and not more than two thousand dollars. If an individual commits three violations in a single unit, the individual's registration of such unit shall be revoked permanently. Such individual shall be afforded the opportunity to appeal such revocation in accordance with regulations and procedures adopted by the city.
- § 291. Regulations. The division of housing and community renewal shall promulgate regulations to deal with the registration and enforcement of short-term rental units, including inspection and audit procedures concerning all registered units. Such regulations may also create a public registry of all short-term rental units so that the public is aware of those units in good standing.
- § 4. Subparagraph (a) of paragraph 8 of subdivision a of section 27-2004 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new clause 3 to read as follows:
- 50 (3) In a class A multiple dwelling, the use of a short-term rental
 51 unit for occupancy of fewer than thirty consecutive days shall not be
 52 inconsistent with the occupancy of such multiple dwelling for permanent
 53 residence purposes if:
- 54 (A) such dwelling unit does not provide single room occupancy as 55 defined by subdivision sixteen of this section;
